Moving Through Here:

To the Beginning & Journey Through Here Michael A. Susko, 2019-11-13 After their unexpected crossing near Yosemite Zoe and Tod awaken in a luminous in between world neither earth nor heaven but something wholly other Guided by a radiant being they embark on a soul journey across surreal landscapes of living crystals sentient colors and inner transformations Each realm they traverse orange violet green blue black and white challenges their assumptions and invites them to let go evolve and remember what truly matters Along the way they encounter souls who need to let go of earthly hurts and possessions memories and ghostly contact with their daughter and the strange freedom of a place where thoughts shape reality Both intimate and visionary this poetic narrative explores what might come after death not as an ending but as a continuation filled with mystery choice and love events of last fall when a strange new case demands Maggie's attention. The body of an unidentified Irish national turns up in a wealthy Long Island beach community and with little to go on but the scars on his back, Maggie once again teams up with Garda detectives in Ireland to find out who the man was and what he was doing on Long Island. The strands of the mystery take Maggie to a quiet village in rural County Clare that's full of secrets and introduce her to the world of humanitarian aid workers half a world away. And as she gets closer to the truth about the murder, what she learns leads her back to her home turf and into range of a dangerous and determined killer who will do anything to keep the victim's story hidden forever. With the lyrical prose, deeply drawn characters, and atmospheric setting that put The Mountains Wild on multiple best of the year lists, Sarah Stewart Taylor delivers another gripping mystery novel about family survival and the meaning of home. Dead Eye Mark Greaney, 2013-12-03

Ex CIA master assassin Court Gentry gets hit with a blast from the past in the fourth Gray Man novel from 1 New York Times bestselling author Mark Greaney. Court Gentry has always prided himself on his ability to disappear at will, to fly below the radar and exist in the shadows to survive as the near mythical Gray Man. But when he takes revenge upon a former employer who betrayed him, he exposes himself to something he's never had to face before: a killer who is just like him. Code-named Dead Eye, Russell Whitlock is a graduate of the same ultra-secret Autonomous Asset Program that trained and once controlled Gentry. But now Whitlock is a free agent who has been directed to terminate his fellow student of death. He knows how his target thinks, how he moves, and how he kills. And he knows the best way to do the job is to make Gentry run for his life right up until the moment Dead Eye finally ends it. Queer Sites in Global Contexts Regner Ramos, Sharif Mowlabocus, 2020-12-30

Queer Sites in Global Contexts showcases a variety of cross-cultural perspectives that foreground the physical and online experiences of LGBTQ people living in the Caribbean, South and North America, the Middle East, Europe, and Asia. The individual chapters, a collection of research-based texts by scholars around the world, provide twelve compelling case studies: queer sites that include buildings, digital networks, natural landscapes, urban spaces, and non-normative bodies. By prioritizing divergent histories and practices of queer life in geographies that are often othered by dominant queer studies in the West—female sex workers, people of color, indigenous populations, Latinx communities, trans identities, migrants—the book constructs thoroughly situated, nuanced discussions on queerness through a variety of research methods. The book presents tangible examples of empirical research and practice-based work in the fields of queer and gender studies, geography, architectural and urban theory, and media and digital culture. Responding to the critical absence surrounding experiences of non-White queer folk in Western academia, Queer Sites in Global Contexts acts as a timely resource for scholars, activists, and thinkers interested in queer placemaking practices, both spatial and digital, of diverse cultures. The Shadow Woman Ake Edwardson, 2010-09-28

The second installment of the internationally best-selling Erik Winter series, It's August, and the annual Gothenburg Party is in full swing. But this year, the bacchanalian blowout is simmering with ethnic discord spurred by nativist gangs. When a woman is found murdered in the park, her identity as inscrutable as the blood red symbol on the tree above her body Winter's search for her missing child leads him from sleek McMansions to the Gothenburg fringes where northern suburbs is code for outsider and the past is inescapable even for Sweden's youngest chief inspector Psychologically gripping and socially astute The Shadow Woman puts this master of Swedish noir on track to build an American audience on par with his international fame Notices of the Proceedings Royal Institution of Great Britain, 1879 Investigation of South Amboy, N.J., Port Explosion United States. Congress. House. Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries. Special Subcommittee to Investigate the Explosion At South Amboy, N.J., 1951
