Routledge Performance Practitioners are unbeatable value for today's student Dancing with Georges Perec Leslie Satin, 2024-06-14 This book explores the relationship of the life and work of the remarkable Parisian Jewish writer Georges Perec 1936-1983 to dance. Dancing addresses art making parallels and their personal and sociocultural contexts including Perec's childhood loss of his parents in the Holocaust and its repercussions in the significance of the body, everydayness, space, and attention permeating his work. This book, emerging from the author Leslie Satin's perspective as a dancer and scholar, links Perec's concerns with those of dance and demonstrates that Perec's work has implications for dance and how we think about it. Moreover, it is framed as a performative autobiographical enactment of the author's relationship to Perec, periodically linking their written, danced, and imagined lives. This exploration will be of great interest to dancers, dance scholars, and dance students interested in contemporary experimental dance and contemporary dance. Method Meets Art Patricia Leavy, 2013-04-01 This book presents the first comprehensive introduction to arts-based research (ABR) practices which scholars in multiple disciplines are fruitfully using to reveal information and represent experiences that traditional methods cannot capture. Each of the six major ABR genres—narrative inquiry, poetry, music, performance, dance, and visual art—is covered in chapters that introduce key concepts and tools and present an exemplary research article by a leading ABR practitioner. Patricia Leavy discusses the kinds of research questions these innovative approaches can address and offers practical guidance for applying them in all phases of a research project, from design and data collection to analysis, interpretation, representation, and evaluation. Chapters include checklists to guide methodological decision making, discussion questions, and recommended print and online resources. State of Mind Constance M. Lewallen, Karen Moss, 2011-10 State of Mind, the lavishly illustrated companion book to the exhibition of the same name, investigates California's vital contributions to Conceptual art in particular work that emerged in the late 1960s among scattered groups of young artists. The essays reveal connections between the northern and southern California Conceptual art scenes and argue that Conceptualism's experimental practices and an array of then new media—performance, site-specific installations, film, and video, mail art, and artists' publications—continue to exert an enormous influence on the artists working today. The Choreography of Environments Janice Ross, 2025-01-28 The Choreography of Environments How the Anna and Lawrence Halprin Home Transformed Contemporary Dance and Urban Design explores how objects and the domestic spaces seep into the aesthetic consciousness of movement based artists like dancers and urban designers significantly shaping their approach to movement invention and choreography If these objects and spaces happen to have been designed by a leading modernist architect and landscape designer working with the dancer then the aesthetic imprint is amplified Dance innovation becomes pressed into dialogue with spatial environmental and urban agendas The Choreography of Environments builds on this premise to consider the use of ordinary objects from a private residence as lenses into viewing dance innovation Author Janice Ross posits the Halprins 1950s iconic mid century modern home and expansive outdoor dance deck as a hidden archive She explores four objects from their house and gardens staircase deck chair and window to trace how despite the conservative postwar climate this intimate domestic space became a radical template reshaping postmodern dance invention and its expansion into civic social and environmental engagement in the twentieth and twenty first centuries The work that happened in this white middle class Jewish American home in a San Francisco suburb paved the way for changes that continue to resonate today across contemporary dance performance and urban design These include defamiliarizing urban landscape and gardens as cloistered theaters where civic identities are rehearsed orchestrating collective problem solving and invention normalizing the nude body privileging a utilitarian and responsive rather than sentimental approach to dance in the environment and re positioning choreography as a vital medium for urban problem solving These four representative objects in the Halprin home are also used to trace the burgeoning of dance as a forceful medium for civic engagement and its valorization of the ordinary in movement As a whole this book shows how dance architecture and landscape design would have a profound confluence through these shared domestic spaces and objects of the Halprins lives Anna Halprin Ursula Schorn, Ronit Land, Gabriele Wittmann, 2014-09-21 This book considers the creative work and therapeutic and pedagogical approach of Anna Halprin a dancer choreographer and early pioneer in the expressive arts healing movement It looks at her Life Art Process and the wider impact of her work across the fields of art education therapy and politics The Concrete Body Elise Archias, 2016-11-29 Offering an incisive rejoinder to traditional histories of modernism and postmodernism this original book examines the 1960s performance work of three New York artists who adapted modernist approaches to form for the medium of the human body Finding parallels between the tactility of a drip of paint and a body s reflexive movements Elise Archias argues convincingly that Yvonne Rainer b 1934 Carolee Schneemann b 1939 and Vito Acconci b 1940 forged a dialogue between modernist aesthetics and their own artistic community s embrace of all things ordinary through work that explored the abstraction born of the body s materiality Rainer s task like dances Schneemann s sensuous appropriations of popular entertainment and Acconci s behaviorist inflected tests highlight the body s unintended movements as vital reminders of embodied struggle amid the constraining structures in contemporary culture Archias also draws compelling comparisons between embodiment as performed in the work of these three artists and in the sit ins and other nonviolent protests of the era
