Portuguese Decolonization in the Indian Ocean World Pamila Gupta, 2018-10-18 Pamila Gupta takes a unique approach to examining decolonization processes across Lusophone India and Southern Africa focusing on Goa Mozambique Angola and South Africa weaving together case studies using five interconnected themes Gupta considers decolonization through the twined lenses of history and ethnography accessed through written oral visual and eyewitness accounts of how people experienced the transfer of state power She looks at the materiality of decolonization as a movement of peoples across vast oceanic spaces demonstrating how it was a process of dispossession for both the Portuguese formerly in power and ordinary colonial citizens and subjects She then discusses the production of race and class anxieties during decolonization which took on a variety of forms but were often articulated through material objects The book aims to move beyond linear histories of colonial independence by connecting its various regions using the theme of decolonization offering a productive and new approach to writing post national histories and ethnographies Finally Gupta demonstrates the value of using different source materials to access narratives of decolonization analyzing the work of Mozambican photographer Ricardo Rangel and including lyrical prose and ethnographical observations Portuguese Decolonization in the Indian Ocean World provides a nuanced understanding of Lusophone decolonization revealing the perspectives of people who experienced it This book will be highly valuable for historians of the Indian Ocean world and decolonization but also those interested in ethnography diaspora studies and material culture Why Peacekeeping Fails D. Jett, 2000-03-01 Dennis C Jett examines why peacekeeping operations fail by comparing the unsuccessful attempt at peacekeeping in Angola with the successful effort in Mozambique alongside a wide range of other peacekeeping experiences The book argues that while the causes of past peacekeeping failures can be identified the chances for success will be difficult to improve because of the way such operations are initiated and conducted and the way the United Nations operates as an organization Jett reviews the history of peacekeeping and the evolution in the number size scope and cost of peacekeeping missions He also explains why peacekeeping has become more necessary possible and desired and yet at the same time more complex more difficult and less frequently used The book takes a hard look at the UN's actions and provides useful information for understanding current conflicts Whatever Happened to the Post-apartheid Moment? Mozambique's Samora Machel Allen F. Isaacman, Barbara S. Isaacman, 2020-09-08 The precipitous rise and controversial fall of a formidable African leader Samora Machel 1933 1986 the son of small town farmers led his people through a war against their Portuguese colonists and became the first president of the People's Republic of Mozambique Machel's military successes against a colonial regime backed by South Africa Rhodesia the United States and its NATO allies enhanced his reputation as a revolutionary hero to the oppressed people of Southern Africa In 1986 during the country's civil war Machel died in a plane crash under circumstances that remain uncertain Allen and Barbara Isaacman lived through many of these changes in Mozambique and bring personal recollections together with archival research and interviews with others who knew Machel or participated in events of the revolutionary or post revolutionary years

The Portuguese Colonial War and the African Liberation Struggles Miguel Cardina, 2023-09-14 The Portuguese Colonial War and the African Liberation Struggles Memory Politics and Uses of the Past presents a critical and comparative analysis on the memory of the colonial and liberation wars that led to a regime change in Portugal and to the independence of five new African countries Angola Mozambique Guinea Bissau Cape Verde and S o Tom and Pr ncipe Covering more than six decades and based on original archival research and critical analysis of sources and interviews the book offers the first plural account of the public memorialisation of this contested past in Portugal and in former colonised territories in Africa focussing on diachronic and synchronic processes of mnemonic production This innovative exercise highlights the changing and crossed nature of political memories and social representations through time emphasizing three modes of mnemonic intersections the intersection of distinct historical times the intersection between multiple products and practices of memory and the intersection connecting the different countries and national histories The Portuguese Colonial War and the African Liberation Struggles Memory Politics and Uses of the Past a major output of the research developed by CROME Crossed Memories Politics of Silence a project funded by a Starting Grant 715593 from the European Research Council ERC The book advances current knowledge on Portugal and Lusophone Africa and deepens ongoing conceptual and epistemological discussions regarding the relationship between social and individual memories the dialectics between memory power and silence and the uses and representations of the past in postcolonial states and societies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Winds of History Andreas Zeman,2023-10-24 Based on extensive archival research in six countries and intensive fieldwork the book analyzes the history of the village of Nkhlongue on the eastern Mozambican shores of Lake Malawi from the time of its formation in the 19th century to the present day The study uses Nkhlongue as a microhistorical lens to examine such diverse topics as the slave trade the spread of Islam colonization subsistence production counter insurgency decolonization civil war ecotourism and matriliney Thereby the book attempts to reflect as much as possible on the generalizability and global comparability of local findings by framing analyses in historiographical discussions that aim to go beyond the regional or national level Although the chapters of the book deal with very different topics they are united by a common interest in the social history of rural Africa in the longue dur e Contrary to persistent clich s of rural inertia in Africa the book as a whole underscores the profound changeability of social conditions and relations in Nkhlongue over the years and highlights how people's room for maneuver kept changing as a result of the Winds of History the frequent and often violent ruptures brought to the village from outside
