Mr. Britling Sees it Through Herbert George Wells, 1917 A running commentary on the European War and what it means to an English man of letters and his family Mr. Britling Sees It Through H. G. Wells, 2016-09-27 A moving novel of one Englishman's experience as his country goes to war from the author of who gave us The Time Machine and The Invisible Man Mr Britling considers himself an optimist But as the Great War begins he finds himself forced to reassess many of the things he thought he was sure of As refugees from Belgium arrive in the town of Matching's Easy telling frightening tales of what they have seen Mr Britling sees men dressed in khakis everywhere he looks and his family's tutor a German is forced to return home Then comes the change that scares him the most His own son Hugh only seventeen enlists in the Territorials the British Army's volunteer reserve Day by day and month by month Britling observes the unfolding events and public reaction to the war as his ordinary life is shaken in ways large and small As Wells's characters try to keep their bearings in a world suddenly changed beyond recognition Mr Britling must wrestle with outrage grief and attempts at rationalization as he resolves to see it through Whether science fiction or not H G Wells's stories always reflect deep human truths Written in 1916 when the outcome of the conflict was still uncertain this is both a fascinating portrait of Britain at war and a rare inside look at H G Wells himself as Mr Britling was a largely autobiographical character Mr. Britling Sees It Through (annotated) H. G. Wells, 2015-10-04 For Mr Britling eccentric and vivacious writer the summer of 1914 consisted of long hot days and luxurious house parties with a host of international guests to entertain him And when he tired of this he hopped across the channel where his devoted mistress was patiently waiting But all this was about to change as Germany began marching into Belgium and Europe no longer provided the easy diversion he had so enjoyed Mr Britling soon came to realise that this war was more than simply an inconvenience and was a dangerous threat to those he loved But all he could do was sit at home and wait Number one best selling novel of 1917 Mr. Britling Sees It Through (Volume 2 of 2) (EasyRead Super Large 20pt Edition) Herbert George Wells, 1980 Mr. Britling Sees It Through H G Wells, 2020-11-20 Mr Britling Sees It Through by H G Wells Mr. Britling Sees it Through Herbert George Wells, 1917 Mr. Britling Sees It Through H.
