Contains hundreds of short entries on Islamic concepts religious practices historical events and personalities geographical places and fact files of nations with large Muslim populations Cultural Fusion of Sufi

Islam Sarwar Alam,2019-08-19 It has been argued that the mystical Sufi form of Islam is the most sensitive to other cultures being accommodative to other traditions and generally tolerant to peoples of other faiths It readily becomes integrated into local cultures and they are similarly often infused into Sufism Examples of this reciprocity are commonly reflected in Sufi poetry music hagiographic genres memoirs and in the ritualistic practices of Sufi traditions This volume shows how this often side lined tradition functions in the societies in which it is found and demonstrates how it relates to mainstream Islam The focus of this book ranges from reflecting Sufi themes in the Qur anic calligraphy to movies from ideals to everyday practices from legends to actual history from gender segregation to gender transgression and from legalism to spiritualism Consequently the international panel of contributors to this volume are trained in a range of disciplines that include religious studies history comparative literature anthropology and ethnography Covering Southeast Asia to West Africa as well as South Asia and the West they address both historical and contemporary issues shedding light on Sufism s adaptability This book sets aside conventional methods of understanding Islam such as theological juridical and philosophical in favour of analysing its cultural impact As such it will be of great interest to all scholars of Islamic Studies the Sociology of Religion Religion and Media as well as Religious Studies and Area Studies more generally Traveling in French Cinema Sylvie

Blum-Reid,2016-02-25 Travel narratives abound in French cinema since the 1980s This study delineates recurrent travel

tropes in films such as departures and returns the chase the escape nomadic wandering interior voyages the unlikely travel rituals pilgrimages migrants narratives and emergencies women s travel and healing narratives

Transnational Arab Stardom Kaya Davies Hayon, Stefanie Van de Peer, 2024-01-25 Building on the work of star studies scholars this collection provides contextual analyses of off screen representation as well as close textual analyses of films and star personas thereby offering an in depth study of the Arab star as text and context of Arab cinema Using the tools of audience reception studies the collection will also look at how stars of film stage screen and new media are viewed and received in different cultural contexts both within and outside of the Arabic speaking world Arab cinema is often discussed in terms of political representation and independent art film but rarely in terms of stardom glamour performance or masquerade Aside from a few individual studies on female stardom or aspects of Arab masculinity no major English language study on Arab stardom exists and collections on transnational stars or world cinema also often neglect to include Arab performers This new book seeks to address this gap by providing the first study dedicated entirely to stardom on the Arab screen Structured chronologically and thematically this collection highlights and explores Arab film screen and music stars through a transnational and interdisciplinary set of contributions that draw on feminist performance and film theories media studies sound studies material culture queer star and celebrity studies and social media studies
