Catalog of Captioned Films/videos for the Deaf, 1991
Deaf, 1984 Catalog of Captioned Films for the Deaf, 1985 Catalog of Educational Captioned Films/videos for the Keep Watching the Skies! Bill Warren, 2017-01-12 Bill Warren's Keep Watching the Skies was originally published in two volumes in 1982 and 1986. It was then greatly expanded in what we called the 21st Century Edition with new entries on several films and revisions and expansions of the commentary on every film. In addition to a detailed plot synopsis, full cast and credit listings and an overview of the critical reception of each film, Warren delivers richly informative assessments of the films and a wealth of insights and anecdotes about their making. The book contains 273 photographs, many rare, 35 in color, has seven useful appendices and concludes with an enormous index. This book is also available in hardcover format. ISBN 978 0 7864 4230 0 The Encyclopedia of Fantastic Film R. G. Young, 2000-04. Thirty-five years in the making and destined to be the last word in fantasy film references. This incredible 1,017-page resource provides vital credits on over 9,000 films: 1896-1999 of horror, fantasy, mystery, science fiction, heavy melodrama, and film noir. Comprehensive cast lists include directors, writers, cinematographers, and composers. Also includes plot synopses, critiques, retitle translation information, running times, photographs, and several cross-referenced indexes by artist, year, song, etc. Paperback Other Worlds Albert Goldbarth, 2021-11-02. Other Worlds is true to its title: from a look at our everyday joys and griefs as interpreted by the Mars of classic science fiction and the crazy domain of quantum physics to studies of the many conflicting realities that America uneasily accommodates in a time of pandemic and protests to elegiac poems informed by the realms of memory, ghosts, and imagined afterlives. From a poem of one line to a sequence of twelve sections from comic hijinks to despair and from private revelation to public declaiming, this is a bravura performance by the only poet to have twice received the National Book Critics Circle Award and who at age seventy-three is writing at the height of his powers. Excerpt from Last Song: I choose the other way with heels dug in. I vote for screaming yearningly. For heading into the afterlife against the grain of this one. For a slowing down to the pace of a person too absorbed in the glory and grit to work up any hurry for departing it. Onscreen and Undercover Wesley Britton, 2006-10-30. Wes Britton's Spy Television 2004 was an overview of espionage on the small screen from 1951 to 2002. His Beyond Bond: Spies in Fiction and Film 2004 wove spy literature, movies, radio comics, and other popular media together with what the public knew about actual espionage to show the interrelationships between genres and approaches in the past century. Onscreen and Undercover, the last book in Britton's Spy Trilogy, provides a history of spies on the large screen with an emphasis on the stories these films present. Since the days of the silent, documentary short spying has been a staple of the movie business. It has been the subject of thrillers, melodramas, political films, romances, and endless parodies as well. But despite the developing mistrust of the spy as a figure of hope and good works, the variable relationship between real spying and screen spying over the past 100 years sheds light on how we live, what we fear, who we admire, and what we want our culture and our world to become. Onscreen

and Undercover describes now forgotten trends traces surprising themes and spotlights the major contributions of directors actors and other American and English artists The focus is on movies on and off camera In a 1989 National Public Radio interview famed author John Le Carre said a spy must be entertaining Spies have to interest potential sources and be able to draw people in to succeed in recruiting informants In that spirit Wes Britton now offers Onscreen and Undercover Idylls And Rambles James V. Schall,2011-08-08 Fr Schall writes profoundly and charmingly about people places and things giving a Christian perspective to the importance of little things and particular moments His essays on a variety of interesting topics combine fun substance and serious reflection In Theaters Everywhere Brian Hannan,2019-01-09 Conflicts among Hollywood studios and exhibitors have been going on for years At their heart are questions about how films should be released where when and at what speed Both sides of this disagreement are losers with exhibitors using the law via various Consent Decrees and studios retaliating by tightly controlling output In the Silent Era movies were not released nearly as widely as they are now This book tells the story of how the few became the many It explores the contraction of the release cycle the maximization of the marketing dollar and the democratization of consumer access It also offers a comprehensive list of wide releases and rebuts much of what previous scholars have found Tab Hunter Confidential Tab Hunter,Eddie Muller,2025-05-01 Mesmerizing The New York Times Book Review Welcome to Hollywood circa 1950 the end of the Golden Age A remarkably handsome young boy still a teenager gets discovered by a big time movie agent Because when he takes his shirt off young hearts beat faster because he is the picture of innocence and trust and need he will become a star It seems almost preordained The open smile says You will love me and soon the whole world does The young boy s name was Tab Hunter a made up name of course a Hollywood name and it was his time Stardom didn t come overnight although it seemed that way In fact the fame came first when his face adorned hundreds of magazine covers the movies the studio contract the name in lights all that came later For Tab Hunter was a true product of Hollywood a movie star created from a stable boy a shy kid made even more so by the way his schoolmates both girls and boys reacted to his beauty by a mother who provided for him in every way except emotionally and by a secret that both tormented him and propelled him forward In Tab Hunter Confidential The Making of a Movie Star Hunter speaks out for the first time about what it was like to be a movie star at the end of the big studio era to be treated like a commodity to be told what to do how to behave whom to be seen with what to wear He speaks also about what it was like to be gay at first confused by his own fears and misgivings then as an actor trapped by an image of boy next door innocence And when he dared to be difficult to complain to the studio about the string of mostly mediocre movies that were assigned to him he learned that just like any manufactured product he was disposable disposable and replaceable Hunter s career as a bona fide movie star lasted a decade But he persevered as an actor working continuously at a profession he had come to love seeking and earning the respect of his peers and of the Hollywood community And so Tab Hunter Confidential is at heart a story of survival of the giddy highs of stardom and the soul

destroying lows when phone calls begin to go unreturned of the need to be loved and the fear of being consumed of the hope of an innocent boy and the rueful summation of a man who did it all and who lived to tell it all Italian Horror Film

Vampires in Italian Cinema, 1956-1975 Michael Guarneri, 2020-05-28 Positioning itself at the intersection of Italian film history horror studies and cultural studies this fascinating book asks why and how was the protean transnational and transmedial figure of the vampire appropriated by Italian cinema practitioners between 1956 and 1975 The book outlines both the 1945-85 industrial context of Italian cinema and the political economic and sociocultural context of the Italian Republic from post war reconstruction to the austerity of the mid 1970s Using case studies of films by directors such as Mario Bava and Riccardo Freda it also delves into lesser known gems of Italian psychotronic cinema from the 1960s and 1970s like L'amante del vampiro The Vampire and the Ballerina and Riti magiche nere e segrete orge nel Trecento The Reincarnation of Isabel With original research into hitherto unpublished film production data censorship data original screenplays trade papers film magazines and vampire themed paraliterature the book strongly argues for the cultural legitimacy of Italian film genres like horror adventure comedy and erotica whose study has so far been neglected in favour of the Italian auteur cinema of the 1940s neorealists and their later followers Film Review ,1976 The year's releases in review with necrologies and brief articles Science Fiction Film Directors, 1895-1998 Dennis Fischer,2011-12-14 This enormous and exhaustive reference book has entries on every major and minor director of science fiction films from the inception of cinema circa 1895 through 1998 For each director there is a complete filmography including television work a career summary a critical assessment and behind the scenes production information Seventy nine directors are covered in especially lengthy entries and a short history of the science fiction film genre is also included Horror and Science Fiction Films III Donald C. Willis,1984 The third volume in the author's Horror and Science Fiction Films series covers new titles released from 1981 to 1983 and updates entries in the original list John Willis' Screen World ,1975
