Commandery of the State of Illinois,1902 The world's wit and humor Lionel Strachey,1906 Rough Writing Aviva F. Taubenfeld,2008-11-01 As the United States struggled to absorb a massive influx of ethnically diverse immigrants at the turn of the twentieth century the question of who and what an American is took on urgent intensity It seemed more critical than ever to establish a definition by which Americanness could be established transmitted maintained and judged Americans of all stripes sought to articulate and enforce their visions of the nation s past present and future central to these attempts was President Theodore Roosevelt Roosevelt fully recognized the narrative component of American identity and he called upon authors of diverse European backgrounds including Israel Zangwill Jacob Riis Elizabeth Stern and Finley Peter Dunne to promote the nation in popular written form With the swell and shift in immigration he realized that a more encompassing national literature was needed to express and guide the soul of the nation Rough Writing examines the surprising place and implications of the immigrant and of ethnic writing in Roosevelt s America and American literature Contemporary American Literature John Matthews Manly,Edith Rickert,1922 Current Literature ,1899 Finding List of English Prose Fiction in the Chicago Public Library ,1911 Public Opinion ,1901 American Narratives Margaret Crumpton Winter,2007-05 American Narratives takes readers back to the turn of the twentieth century to reintroduce four writers of varying ethnic backgrounds whose works were mostly ignored by critics of their day With the skill of a literary detective Molly Crumpton Winter recovers an early multicultural discourse on assimilation and national belonging that has been largely overlooked by literary scholars At the heart of the book are close readings of works by four nearly forgotten artists from 1890 to 1915 the era often termed the age of realism Mary Antin a Jewish American immigrant from Russia Zitkala a a Sioux woman originally from South Dakota Sutton E Griggs an African American from the South and Sui Sin Far a biracial Chinese American female writer who lived on the West Coast Winter's treatment of Antin's The Promised Land serves as an occasion for a reexamination of the concept of assimilation in American literature and the chapter on Zitkala a is the most comprehensive analysis of her narratives to date Winter argues persuasively that Griggs should have long been a more visible presence in American literary history and the exploration of Sui Sin Far reveals her to be the embodiment of the varied and unpredictable ways that diversity of cultures came together in America In American Narratives Winter maintains that the writings of these four rediscovered authors with their emphasis on issues of ethnicity identity and nationality fit squarely in the American realist tradition She also establishes a multiethnic dialogue among these writers demonstrating ways in which cultural identity and national belonging are persistently contested in this literature
