all biography unveils the secret closeted life of the indomitable grande dame of American actresses Katharine Hepburn covering the years between her birth in 1907 and the debut of her role in The African Queen in 1950 Telling the Untold Story Steve Weinberg, 1992 Author of his own controversial unauthorized biography of Armand Hammer Steve Weinberg here shows how a new generation of biographers is revealing the lives of powerful individuals in dramatic and important new ways Trained as investigative journalists today's writers have entered a domain once dominated by university scholars Unlike their more academic predecessors who often wrote nonjudgmental books on the public lives of long dead individuals these new biographers are willing to tackle such powerful living subjects as Nancy Reagan Henry Kissinger Hugh Hefner Pete Rose and Fidel Castro Few of these books are adoring Without cooperation from their subjects and sometimes under threat of lawsuit these writers are probing into private lives and enabling readers to make up their own minds about public figures Tracing the evolution of the craft of biography up to the present day Weinberg draws on interviews with some of today's best biographers as well as his own experience with the Hammer biography to highlight the careers of some of the writers whose work exploded the boundaries of traditional biography When Robert Caro became the first journalist to win a Pulitzer Prize for Biography for his book on Robert Moses it marked the dawn of a new approach to the craft Weinberg also explores the techniques of Philadelphia Inquirer journalists Donald Barlett and James Steele whose jointly authored biographies of Howard Hughes and Nelson Rockefeller mark another sign of how far the genre of biography has come The book is enriched by samples of investigative biography at its best including a scathingly honest profile of the reigning queen of unauthorized biography Kitty Kelley and Calvin Trillin's fascinating New Yorker profile of the Miami Herald's inimitable police reporter Edna Buchanan The living of a life is more difficult than the chronicling of it but the chronicling is certainly no simple task writes Weinberg Telling somebody else's life fully fairly and compellingly is probably an impossible task But it is important to keep pushing the limits of the possible For writers reviewers publishers and general readers Telling the Untold Story is a fascinating look at how a new kind of biographer has forever changed our expectations of the genre and continues to push biography to exciting new limits Kate William J. Mann, 2007-10-30 The first major Katharine Hepburn biography independent of her control reveals the smart complicated and sophisticated woman behind the image Onscreen she played society girls Spencer Tracy's sidekick lionesses in winter But the best character Katharine Hepburn ever created was Katharine Hepburn a Connecticut Yankee outspoken and elegant she wore pants whatever the occasion and bristled at Hollywood glitter So captivating was her image that she never seemed less than authentic But how well did we know her really Was there a woman behind the image who was more human more driven and ultimately more triumphant because of her vulnerability William J Mann a cultural historian and journalist a sympathetic admirer but no mere fan has fashioned an intimate often revisionist and truly unique close up that challenges much of what we think we know about the Great Kate Previous biographies mostly products of friends and fans have recycled the stories she hid behind taking Hollywood myths at

face value Mann goes deeper delivering new details from friends and family who have not been previously interviewed and drawing on materials only available since Hepburn's death With affection intelligence and a voluminous knowledge of Hollywood history Mann shows us how a woman originally considered too special and controversial for fame learned the fine arts of movie stardom and transformed herself into an icon as durable and all American as the Statue of Liberty
