Verse, Voice, and Vision Marlisa Santos, 2013-09-26 Although it is a somewhat underrepresented form of literature in popular sensibility poetry finds relevance in the modern world through its appearance in cinema Film adaptations of poems and depictions of poets on the screen date back to the silent era and continue to the present day However there have been few serious studies of how cinema has represented the world of poetic expression In Verse Voice and Vision Poetry and the Cinema Marlisa Santos has compiled essays that explore the relationship between one of the world s oldest art forms poetry and one of the world s newest art forms film The book is divided into three sections poets on film poetry as film and film as poetry Topics include analyses of poet biopics such as Mrs Parker and the Vicious Circle filmic representations of poets or poetic studies including Pyaasa films inspired by particular poems such as Splendor in the Grass and the avant garde phenomenon of the poem film such as The Tree of Life Poetic influences considered in this volume range from William Shakespeare to e e cummings and the films discussed hail from several different countries including the U S the U K India China Italy and Argentina Featuring a great diversity in the age genres and countries of origin of the films these essays provide an in depth look at how poetry has been interpreted on film over the years By addressing a heretofore unexamined aspect of film studies Verse Voice and Vision will appeal to fans and scholars of both literature and cinema Cinema, MD Eelco F.M. Wijdicks MD, PhD, 2020-02-28 Cinema MD follows the intersection of medicine and film and how filmmakers wrote a history of medicine over time The narrative follows several main story lines How did the portrayal of physicians nurses and medical institutions change over the years What interested filmmakers and which topics had priority What does film s obsession with experiments and monstrosities reveal about medical ethics and malpractice How could the public s perception of the medical profession change when watching these films on diseases and treatments including palliative care and medical ethics Are screenwriters actors and film directors channeling a popular view of medicine Cinema MD analyzes not only changing practices changing morals and changing expectations but also medical stereotypes medical activism and violations of patients integrity and autonomy Examining over 400 films with medical themes over a century of cinema this book establishes the cultural medical and historical importance of the art form Film allows us to see our humanity our frailty and our dependence when illness strikes Cinema MD provides uniquely new and fascinating insight into both film criticism and the history of medicine and has a resonance to the medical world we live in today

Film and Television In-Jokes Bill van Heerden, 2015-09-02 In Only the Lonely 1991 Ally Sheedy appeases prospective mother in law Maureen O Hara by going along to see the 1939 film How Green Was My Valley starring Maureen O Hara Richard LaGravenese slighted by critic Gene Siskel over his screenplay for The Fisher King 1991 wrote an unsavory character named Siskel into The Ref 1994 Movies and television shows often feature inside jokes Sometimes there are characters named after crew members Directors are often featured in cameo appearances Alfred Hitchcock s silhouette can be seen in Family Plot 1976 for example This work catalogs such occurrences Each entry includes the title of the film or show year of release and a full description of the in joke

The Art of American Screen Acting, 1960 to Today Dan Callahan, 2019-01-31 Modern screen acting in English is dominated by two key figures Method acting guru Lee Strasberg who taught the the art of experiencing over the art of representing and English theater titan Laurence Olivier who once said of the Method s immersive approach try acting it s so much easier This book explores in detail the work of such method actors as Al Pacino Ellen Burstyn Jack Nicholson and Jane Fonda and charts the shift away from the more internally focused Strasberg based acting of the 1970s and towards the more external way of working exemplified by the career of Meryl Streep in the 1980s

Nobody's Perfect Anthony Lane, 2009-08-19 Anthony Lane on Con Air Advance word on Con Air said that it was all about an airplane with an unusually dangerous and potentially lethal load Big deal You should try the lunches they serve out of Newark Compared with the chicken napalm I ate on my last flight the men in Con Air are about as dangerous as balloons Anthony Lane on The Bridges of Madison County I got my copy at the airport behind a guy who was buying Playboy s Book of Lingerie and I think he had the better deal He certainly looked happy with his purchase whereas I had to ask for a paper bag Anthony Lane on Martha Stewart Super skilled free of fear the last word in human efficiency Martha Stewart is the woman who convinced a million Americans that they have the time the means the right and damn it the duty to pipe a little squirt of soft cheese into the middle of a snow pea and to continue piping until there are fifty to sixty stuffed peas raring to go For ten years Anthony Lane has delighted New Yorker readers with his film reviews book reviews and profiles that range from Buster Keaton to Vladimir Nabokov to Ernest Shackleton Nobody s Perfect is an unforgettable collection of Lane s trademark wit satire and insight that will satisfy both the long addicted and the not so familiar

Cinema of Outsiders Emanuel Levy, 1999 The most important development in American culture of the last two decades is the emergence of independent cinema as a viable alternative to Hollywood's safe and innocuous entertainment. Indeed while Hollywood studios devote much of their time and energy to churning out big budget star studded event movies a renegade independent cinema that challenges mainstream fare continues to flourish with strong critical support and loyal audiences.

Bound to Last Sean Manning, 2010-10-26 Lovers of the printed book arise Thirty of today's top writers are here to tell you you're not alone In Bound to Last an amazing array of authors comes to the passionate defense of the printed book with spirited never before published essays celebrating the hardcover or paperback they hold most dear not necessarily because of its contents but because of its significance as a one of a kind irreplaceable object Whether focusing on the circumstances behind how a particular book was acquired or how it has become forever bound up with a specific person time or place each piece collected here confirms poignantly delightfully irrefutably that every book tells a story far beyond the one found within its pages In addition to a foreword by Ray Bradbury Bound to Last features original contributions by Chris Abani Rabih Alameddine Anthony Doerr Louis Ferrante Nick Flynn Karen Joy Fowler Julia Glass Karen Green David Hajdu Terrence Holt Jim Knipfel Shahriar Mandanipour Sarah Manguso Sean Manning Joyce Maynard Philipp Meyer Jonathan Miles Sigrid Nunez Ed Park Victoria Patterson Francine Prose Michael Ruhlman Elissa Schappell Christine Schutt Jim Shepard Susan Straight J Courtney Sullivan Anthony Swofford Danielle Trussoni and Xu Xiaobin

Performing Gender and Comedy Shannon Hengen, 2014-01-02 First Published in 1998 This lively volume explores comedy as a place where gender and sexuality through performance challenge sexist and heteronormative forces in Western culture The contributors investigate the effects of gender sexuality sexual identity race class and nationality on humor and comedic performance Each chapter distinct in its voice and content addresses how particular historical periods seem to affect who laughs at what why and with what consequences This book not only spans a broad range of historical and literary periods it also engages in a critical conversation with past and present thinkers to articulate the political cultural and social effects of comedy

New York Magazine, 1994-12-05 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Edith Wharton on Film Parley Ann Boswell, 2007-10-23 Edith Wharton 1862-1937 who lived nearly half of her life during the cinema age when she published many of her well-known works acknowledged that she disliked the movies characterizing them as an enemy of the imagination Yet her fiction often referenced film and popular Hollywood culture and she even sold the rights to several of her novels to Hollywood studios Edith Wharton on Film explores these seeming contradictions and examines the relationships among Wharton's writings the popular culture in which she published them and the subsequent film adaptations of her work three from the 1930s and four from the 1990s Author Parley Ann Boswell examines the texts in which Wharton referenced film and Hollywood culture and evaluates the extant films adapted from Wharton's fiction The volume introduces Wharton's use of cinema culture in her fiction through the 1917 novella Summer written during the nation's first wave of feminism in which the heroine Charity Royall is moviegoer and new American woman consumer and consumable Boswell considers the source of this conformity and entrapment especially for women She discloses how Wharton struggled to write popular stories and then how she revealed her antipathy toward popular movie culture in two late novels Boswell describes Wharton's financial dependence on the American movie industry which fueled her antagonism toward Hollywood culture her well-documented disdain for popular culture and her struggles to publish in women's magazines This first full-length study that examines the film adaptations of Wharton's fiction covers seven films adapted from Wharton's works between 1930 and 2000 and the fifty-year gap in Wharton film adaptations The study also analyzes Sophy Viner in The Reef as pre-Hollywood ingénue characters in Twilight Sleep and The Children and the real Hollywood figures who might have inspired them and The Sheik and racial stereotypes Boswell traces the complicated relationship of fiction and narrative film the adaptations and cinematic metaphors of Wharton's work in the 1990s and Wharton's persona as an outsider Wharton's fiction on film corresponds in striking ways to American noir cinema says Boswell because contemporary filmmakers recognize and celebrate the subversive qualities of Wharton's work Edith Wharton on Film which includes eleven illustrations enhances Wharton's stature as a major American author and provides persuasive evidence that her fiction should be read as American noir literature
