Faulk, 2004-10-01 The late Victorian discovery of the music hall by English intellectuals marks a crucial moment in the history of popular culture Music Hall and Modernity demonstrates how such pioneering cultural critics as Arthur Symonds and Elizabeth Robins Pennell used the music hall to secure and promote their professional identity as guardians of taste and national welfare These social arbiters were at the same time devotees of the spontaneous culture of the people In examining fiction from Walter Besant Hall Caine and Henry Nevinson performance criticism from William Archer and Max Beerbohm and late Victorian controversies over philanthropy and moral reform scholar Barry Faulk argues that discourse on music hall entertainment helped consolidate the identity and tastes of an emergent professional class Critics and writers legitimized and cleaned up the music hall at the same time allowing issues of class respect and empowerment to be negotiated Music Hall and Modernity offers a complex view of the new middle class middlebrow mass culture of late Victorian London and contributes to a body of scholarship on nineteenth century urbanism The book will also interest scholars concerned with the emergence of a professional managerial class and the genealogy of cultural studies

Interpretation And Cultural History Joan H Pittock, Andrew Wear, 1991-05-13 No Free Speech for Fascists David Renton, 2021-06-24 No Free Speech for Fascists explores the choice of anti fascist protesters to demand that the opportunities for fascists to speak in public places are rescinded as a question of history law and politics It explains how the demand to no platform fascists emerged in 1970s Britain as a limited exception to a left wing tradition of support for free speech The book shows how no platform was intended to be applied narrowly only to a right wing politics that threatened everyone else It contrasts the rival idea of opposition to hate speech that also emerged at the same time and is now embodied in European and British anti discrimination laws Both no platform and hate speech reject the American First Amendment tradition of free speech but the ways in which they reject it are different Behind no platform is not merely a limited range of political targets but a much greater scepticism about the role of the state The book argues for an idea of no platform which takes on the electronic channels on which so much speech now takes place It shows where a fascist element can be recognised within the much wider category of far right speech This book will be of interest to activists and to those studying and researching political history law free speech the far right and anti fascism It sets out a philosophy of anti fascism for a social media age Men in Groups Lionel Tiger, Australian Beach Cultures Douglas Booth, 2012-12-06 Australians are surrounded by beaches But this enclosure is more than a geographical fact for the inhabitants of an island continent the beach is an integral part of the cultural envelope This work analyzes the history of the beach as an integral aspect of Australian culture Orchid Muse: A History of Obsession in Fifteen Flowers Erica Hannickel, 2022-12-20 Longlisted for the 2023 PEN E O Wilson Literary Science Writing Award A kaleidoscopic journey into the world of nature s most tantalizing flower and the lives it has inspired The epitome of floral beauty orchids have long fostered works of art tales of adventure and scientific discovery Tenacious plant hunters have traversed continents to collect rare specimens naturalists and shoguns have marveled at orchids seductive architecture royalty and the smart set have adorned themselves with their allure In Orchid Muse historian and home grower Erica Hannickel gathers these bold tales of the orchid smitten throughout history while providing tips on cultivating the extraordinary flowers she features Consider Empress Eugenie and Queen Victoria the two most powerful women in nineteenth century Europe who shared a passion for Coelogyne cristata with its cascading fragrant white blooms John Roebling builder of the Brooklyn Bridge cultivated thousands of orchids and introduced captivating hybrids Edmond Albius an enslaved youth on an island off the coast of Madagascar was the first
