imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Mrs Maxon Protests. by Anthony Hope (Classics) Anthony Hope, 2016-03-07 Mrs Maxon Protests Hope has presented with his usual brilliancy a study of the false position incurred by a thoroughly good woman when she defies fundamental conventionalities Mrs Maxon's marriage is a failure so is her attempt to find satisfaction outside the marriage tie And as she exclaims If both orthodoxy and unorthodoxy go wrong what is a poor human woman to do Mr Hawkins answer to this provides an interesting examination of the complexities of the divorce and separation question and although he attempts no definite solution his discussion exploits many suggestive theories of social philosophy He touches a fundamental factor for solution when one of his characters remarks

Everybody's Lonesome Clara E. Laughlin, 2019-12-09 In Everybody's Lonesome Clara E Laughlin explores the intricate dynamics of loneliness and human connection in early 20th century America Written in a lyrical prose that intertwines poignant character studies with sharp social commentary Laughlin presents a vivid tapestry of lives shaped by isolation and yearning The novel is set against the backdrop of an evolving society reflecting the shifting norms and values of her time while also delving into universal themes of solitude and the innate desire for companionship Each character's journey illuminates the often overlooked emotional landscapes that define personal and shared experiences of lonesomeness revealing the delicate balance between solitude and social bonds Clara E Laughlin was a trailblazing author known for her keen insight into the human condition Drawing from her own struggles with solitude as a writer in a male dominated literary sphere she crafted narratives that resonate with the themes of alienation and communal longing Her multifaceted background in journalism and literature enriched her storytelling allowing her to deftly navigate both the emotional depth of her characters and the societal pressures they face Everybody's Lonesome is a profound exploration of the human spirit's resilience in the face of isolation Readers who are intrigued by the complexities of human emotions and the nuances of interpersonal relationships will find this work to be a compelling and thought provoking read Laughlin s masterful storytelling invites us to reflect on our connections with others making it essential for anyone seeking to understand the intricacies of loneliness in a modern context Some English Story Tellers Frederic Taber Cooper,1912
