Reconfiguring the Natures of Childhood Affrica Taylor,2013 In this fascinating new book Affrica Taylor encourages an exciting paradigmatic shift in the ways in which childhood and nature are conceived and pedagogically deployed and invites readers to critically reassess the naturalist childhood discourses that are rife within popular culture and early years education Through adopting a common worlds framework Reconfiguring the Natures of Childhood generates a number of complex and inclusive ways of seeing and representing the early years It recasts childhood as messy and implicated rather than pure and innocent situated and differentiated rather than decontextualized and universal entangled within real world relations rather than protected in a separate space Throughout the book the author follows an intelligent and innovative line of thought which challenges many pre existing ideas about childhood Drawing upon cross disciplinary perspectives and with international relevance this book makes an important contribution to the field of childhood studies and early childhood education and will be a valuable resource for scholars postgraduate students and higher education teachers A Paper Inheritance Dymphna Stella Rees,2021-06-01 When Dymphna Stella Rees finds bundles of love letters buried in her parents archive she is intrigued by the discovery Leslie Rees and Coralie Clarke Rees were a power couple of the Australian literary scene in the mid twentieth century They took their shared dream of being writers from Perth to London and launched themselves in Fleet Street interviewing some of the century s literary greats including James Joyce AA Milne and George Bernard Shaw After settling in Sydney in the 1930s they embraced the city s vibrant arts scene and established prolific careers Leslie became an award winning children s book author and the ABC s national drama editor while Coralie was one of the country s first female broadcasters They influenced the development of an authentically Australian arts culture and included among their friends Mary Gilmore Ruth Park D Arcy Niland Mary Durack and Vance and Nettie Palmer Drawn from personal notebooks letters and original transcripts A Paper Inheritance is the engrossing story of what drove this literary couple to prominence and is a celebration of their love and their passion for words Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1975 The New Beacon ,1982 British Books in Print ,1978
