Notes on the Parables of Our Lord: All Thirty Trench Bible Commentaries on the Teachings of Jesus Christ, Complete with Annotations Richard Chenevix Trench, 2018-08-28 This complete collection of Richard Chenevix Trench's parable notes contains all thirty of his splendid commentaries complete with his introduction and preface. A renowned scholar of the Biblical texts who served as Archbishop of the Church of England, the author offers here a detailed and meticulous examination of thirty of the best known Biblical parables. The words of Jesus Christ, who was renowned for using parables to teach his followers, plus examples of other New Testament stories are subject to lengthy yet informative analyses. The language the Bible uses down to the individual chapters and verses is subject to an annotated commentary. Trench commonly references other books in the Bible which compliment a given passage as well as poignant classical literature from writers as diverse as Plato, Ovid, and Seneca. The author on many occasions quotes the original Greek text of the Bible in order to confer clarity to a given verse. Notes on the parables of our Lord ... Severe and indignant it may be, but it never jests at the calamities of men, however well deserved, and its indignation is that of holy love.
