

ECCLESIOLOGY

THE DOCTRINE OF THE CHURCH

A. INTRODUCTION

1. Ecclesia:

- The Greek word which is translated 'church' is the term Ecclesia/Ekklesia = 'those who are called out' — 'called together'.
- Called out ones, continuity of Called out ones from before Abraham to the New Testament Church. Church was in the Heart of God.
- The New Testament Church is different because of its
 - a) Revelation Of Jesus Christ
 - b) Presence, Power And Person Of The Holy Spirit
- The Holy Spirit did not just inspire thoughts — He breathed out the very words to be used in the Scriptures. We can translate ekklesia by the word 'assembly'. (Acts 19)
- Holy Spirit has ELEVATED the word ekklesia that is a common word — giving it divine meaning and purpose.
- He chooses THAT word to identify and speak of those called out of the world to be the EXPRESSION of the Kingdom of God in a world that is totally outside of that rule.

2. The Church and the Kingdom of God

The Relationship of the Church and the Kingdom of God.

- What is the Kingdom of God (KOG)?

KOG is best defined as the rule of God.

- WHERE is the Kingdom of God?

The kingdom of God is present wherever God is reigning.

- What is the relationship of the Church to the kingdom?

"The Church is an expression of the Kingdom but is not to be equated with it. The kingdom of God is wider and bigger than the Church." - Martin Lloyd-Jones

3. Usage of Ecclesia: as both

- a) The Universal Church and
- b) The Local Church

B. THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH

The universal body of Christ including all believers of all times — the saints IN CHRIST.

²² And He put all things under His feet, and gave Him to be head over all things to the church, ²³ which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all.

Ephesians 1: 22-23 (NKJV)

Teaching Theology in a Technological Age Doru Costache,James R. Harrison,2015-11-25 The iGeneration has learned to adapt rapidly to technological change Tech savvy students multi task with consummate ease accessing email on smart phones researching assignments on tablets reading a book on Kindle while drinking a flat white and listening to iTunes in the background How does the tertiary educational curriculum meet the learning needs of students whose attention transitions rapidly between mediums and messages The complexity and pace of modern technological change has left the theological educational sector gasping as it struggles to devise pedagogically engaging online distance learning materials in traditional disciplines and teach units with significant relational and pastoral components The technological benefits are vast the instant availability of information unprecedented and the opportunities to provide theological education to groups marginalised by the tyranny of distance and time enormous How should the theological sector address these challenges and opportunities Although the benefits are massive the media is replete with stories of the casualties of technological change including cyber bullying internet predators the psychic damage from trolls addiction to gaming and issues of body image among others How should the theological sector drawing upon its scriptural and teaching heritage come to grips with the deficits spawned by the technological revolution What is the theological pastoral social and pedagogic responsibility of theology teachers in nurturing this new generation Teaching Theology in a Technological Age draws together in an inspiring volume a series of cutting edge essays from Australian New Zealand and South African scholars on the learning and teaching of theology in a digital age The Ecclesiologist ,1852 Theological Education at Finkenwalde H. Gaylon Barker,Dietrich

Bonhoeffer,Mark Brocker,Douglas W. Stott,2014-04-17 In the spring of 1935 Dietrich Bonhoeffer returned from England to direct a small illegal seminary for the Confessing Church The seminary existed for two years before the Gestapo ordered it closed in August 1937 This volume includes bible studies sermons and lectures on homiletics pastoral care and catechesis giving a moving and up close portrait of the Confessing Church in these crucial years the same period during which Bonhoeffer wrote his classics Discipleship and Life Together Apostolic and Prophetic Gesa E. Thiessen,2011-11-11 Apostolic and Prophetic promotes a vision of the church as apostolic ecumenical and radical It explores the meaning of each of these ecclesial marks and their intrinsic connections The volume thus draws a wide span between the apostolic past tradition and a radical perspective on the present and future ecumenical church The book considers the concept of apostolicity emerging in patristic theology and it examines this concept as it has been developed in some select Lutheran Roman Catholic and Anglican ecumenical documents Unresolved ecumenical questions concerning ecumenical method and church ministry are frankly discussed including critical observations on ecumenical praxis The modern notion of churches as denominations is examined in detail especially in the Lutheran context The author also offers a critical assessment of an important ecumenical event the annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity The notion of a radical church aware of its roots and prophetically committed to faith in the kingdom of God seeking freedom and justice is explored through an extensive analysis and discussion of the work of Dorothee Solle and Terry Eagleton two seminal thinkers of our time Theological Education at Finkenwalde Dietrich Bonhoeffer,2013-10-01 In the spring of 1935 Dietrich Bonhoeffer returned from England to direct a small illegal seminary for the Confessing Church The seminary existed for two years before the Gestapo ordered it closed in August 1937 This volume includes bible studies sermons and lectures on homiletics pastoral care and catechesis giving a moving and up close portrait of the Confessing Church in these crucial years the same period during which Bonhoeffer wrote his classics Discipleship and Life Together The Ecclesiologist Ecclesiological society,1851

Receptive Ecumenism and the Call to Catholic Learning Paul Murray,2010-05-06 This volume proposes a fresh strategy for ecumenical engagement Receptive Ecumenism that is fitted to the challenges of the contemporary context and has already been internationally recognised as making a distinctive and important new contribution to ecumenical thought and practice Beyond this the volume tests and illustrates this proposal by examining what Roman Catholicism in particular might fruitfully learn from its ecumenical others Challenging the tendency for ecumenical studies to ask whether explicitly or implicitly What do our others need to learn from us this volume presents a radical challenge to see ecumenism move forward into action by highlighting the opposite question What can we learn with integrity from our others This approach is not simply ecumenism as shared mission or ecumenism as problem solving and incremental agreement but ecumenism as a vital long term programme of individual communal and structural conversion driven like the Gospel that inspires it by the promise of conversion into greater life and flourishing The aim is for the Christian traditions to become more not less than they currently are by learning from or receiving of each other's gifts The 32 original essays that have been written for this unique volume explore these issues from a wide variety of denominational and disciplinary perspectives drawing together ecclesiologists professional ecumenists sociologists psychologists and organizational experts The Presbyterian Quarterly ,1892

Important Themes in Biblical Theology Canice Njoku C.S.Sp,2020-02-17 This work is a collection of twenty five papers that I have personally written They consist of themes which were actually suggested assigned and moderated by seasoned professors and biblical scholars in various aspects of Biblical Theology Although in some cases I have modified the themes yet I tried as much as possible to remain focused on the objectives of the papers One very interesting point to note is the treatment of most of these themes basically from the biblical perspective This is mostly with regards to themes drawn from courses which are not strictly scriptural courses but rather are more of theological courses which nonetheless form an integral part of the study of Biblical Theology So in addition to the core scriptural courses I have featured themes from Fundamental Theology Ecclesiology and Eschatology Sacramental and Liturgical Theology Trinitarian Theology etcetera Also it suffices to note that this work is not a commentary on the bible nor is it a comprehensive approach to all the courses in Biblical Theology Rather it is a treatment of some important provocative and challenging themes scholars or students encounter in the course of their study of Biblical Theology This is simply meant to give one an idea of how these themes together shape Biblical Theology and most importantly how to approach some of these themes I hope you will find them very helpful and interesting The Union Seminary Review ,1892
