Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology Lorelei F. Fuchs,2008 The word koinonia has gained prominence in recent ecumenical discussions In this original and substantial work

Lorelei Fuchs proposes the theological idea of koinonia commonly translated as communion or fellowship as the key to moving fractured churches toward a future unity Fuchs challenges churches to move beyond mere dialogue and to apply ecumenical insights at the local level She begins by relating the exegetical meaning of koinonia to its ecumenical meaning tracing the place of koinonia both within the churches and between the churches She then examines the concept of koinonia in the extensive and fruitful dialogues that have taken place between Lutherans Anglicans and Roman Catholics finally articulating a symbolic competence for communionality that provides a rich and workable way forward for church unity at all levels Encompassing the latest in ecumenical thought Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology provides a broad thoughtful framework for realizing Christ's prayer that all may be one so that the world may believe Analogia Andrew Louth, Sotiris Mitralaxis, Dimitris Salapatas, Edward A. Siecienski, Thomas O'Loughlin, George E. Demacopoulos, Manuel Sumares, Adam A.J. DeVille, Jonathan Goodall, 2022-03-04

The beginning of the Roman Catholic Orthodox Theological dialogue during the 20th century raised to some high hopes for an imminent canonical unity between the two Denominations and this though premature is not of course to be blamed it is impossible for any contemporary Christian theologian not to suffer from the division within this very womb of the ontological unification of all things which is the Church of Christ precisely because this division gives to many the impression of a fragmentation of the Church's very being and subsequently weakens her witness

Did the Anglicans and Roman Catholics Agree on the Eucharist? Colin Buchanan, 2018-10-17 Fifty two years ago in 1966 Archbishop Michael Ramsey of Canterbury visited Rome and agreed with the Pope to inaugurate an Anglican Roman Catholic theological dialogue Three phases of the Anglican Roman Catholic

International Commission ARCIC resulted and continue to this day ARCIC I agreed on a statement on Eucharistic Doctrine in 1971 and an Elucidation of it in 1979 The Vatican declined full endorsement of these and in 1994 ARCIC II produced Clarifications of them which the Vatican accepted as sufficient Colin Buchanan who himself published the 1971 Statement in England has followed the international dialogue closely since 1971 He here prints all the relevant texts and examines in detail the attempted reconciling of traditional Roman Catholic eucharistic belief and Anglican reformed doctrine His study includes Apostolicae curae and Malines and in the modern era follows public and synodical debate and the question of reception Three unprecedented unique features are first a diachronic study of the one doctrine second a fair regard for reformed Anglican beliefs and third a relating of dogmatic theology to eucharistic liturgy The history prompts the question that forms the book's title and close following of that history also provides the answer Introduction to Ecumenism Gros, Jeffrey, McManus, Eamon, Riggs, Ann, 1998 An overview of the history content and future of the modern ecumenical movement with particular attention to Catholic leadership and the results of dialogues among the churches Interrupting White Privilege Laurie M. Cassidy, Alexander Mikulich, 2007 More than twenty five years have passed since the publication in 1979 of Brothers and Sisters to Us the U S Bishops statement against racism and during this time white Catholic theologians have remained relatively silent on this topic In this hard hitting study prominent Roman Catholic theologians address white privilege and the way it contributes to racism They maintain that systems of white privilege are a significant factor in maintaining evil systems of racism in our country and that most white theologians and ethicists remain ignorant of their negative impact Adventist Interchurch Relations Stefan Höschele, 2022-09-05 This study presents the first comprehensive analysis of Seventhday Adventist interchurch relations a 20 million member body whose ecumenical stance has so far been underresearched For the sake of interpreting denominational involvement and reservations in Adventism as well as beyond the study develops a new academic approach to ecumenism based on Relational Models Theory a comprehensive social science paradigm of interpreting human relationships The resulting typology of ecumenical interactions and the historical case study of Adventism suggest that such a relational interpretation of ecumenical interaction sheds light on many of the unresolved issues in ecumenics such as divergent concepts of unity difficulties in recognition processes and the permanence of denominationalism Communion with Non-Catholic Christians Jeffrey Thomas VanderWilt, 2003 How should a Catholic pastor respond to non Catholics who wish to have Communion without conveying harshness scrupulosity legalism or rudeness Intended to help Christians recognize the present provisional norms and to seek new possibilities in eucharistic sharing Communion with Non Catholic Christians examines the risks challenges and opportunities involved in the admission of Communion to non Catholic Christians Churches in the Family of God Dr Peter Uche Uzochukwu, 2012-04-04 God, Science, Sex, Gender Patricia Beattie Jung, Aana Marie Vigen, 2023-12-11 God Sex Science Gender An Interdisciplinary Approach to Christian Ethics is a timely wide ranging attempt to rescue dialogues on human sexuality sexual diversity and gender from insular exchanges based primarily on biblical scholarship and denominational ideology Too often dialogues on sexuality and gender devolve into the repetition of party lines and defensive postures without considering the interdisciplinary body of scholarly research on this complex subject This volume expands beyond the usual parameters opening the discussion to scholars in the humanities social sciences and natural sciences to foster the development of Christian sexual ethics for contemporary times Essays by prominent and emerging scholars in the fields of anthropology sociology psychology philosophy literary studies theology and ethics reveal how faith and reason can illuminate our understanding of human sexual and gender diversity Focusing on the intersection of theology and science and incorporating feminist theory God Science Sex Gender is a much needed call for Christian ethicists to map the origins and full range of human sexual experience and gender identity Essays delve into why human sexuality and gender can be so controversial in Christian contexts investigate the complexity of sexuality in humans and other species and reveal the implications of diversity for Christian moral theology Contributors are Joel Brown James Calcagno Francis J Catania Pamela L Caughie Robin Colburn Robert Di Vito Terry Grande Frank Fennell Anne E Figert Patricia Beattie Jung Fred Kniss John McCarthy Jon Nilson Stephen J Pope Susan A Ross Joan Roughgarden and Aana Marie Vigen

Cathedrals of Bone John C. Waldmeir, 2009-08-25 The metaphor of the Church as a body has shaped Catholic thinking since the Second Vatican Council Its influence on theological inquiries into Catholic nature and practice is well known less obvious is the way it has shaped a generation of Catholic imaginative writers Cathedrals of Bone is the first full length study of a cohort of Catholic authors whose art takes seriously the themes of the Council from novelists such as Mary Gordon Ron Hansen Louise Erdrich and J F Powers to poets such as Annie Dillard Mary Karr Lucia Perillo and Anne Carson to the Pulitzer Prize winning playwright John Patrick Shanley Motivated by the inspirational yet thoroughly incarnational rhetoric of Vatican II each of these writers encourages readers to think about the human body as a site perhaps the most important site of interaction between God and human beings Although they represent the body in different ways these late twentieth century Catholic artists share a sense of its inherent value Moreover they use ideas and terminology from the rich tradition of Catholic sacramentality especially as it was articulated in the documents of Vatican II to describe that value In this way they challenge the Church to take its own tradition seriously and to reconsider its relationship to a relatively recent apologetics that has emphasized a narrow view of human reason and a rigid sense of orthodoxy
