

A long pier extends from the foreground into a calm body of water towards a bright sunset on the horizon. The sky is filled with soft, colorful clouds in shades of orange, yellow, and blue. The water reflects the light from the sun. The quote is centered over the image in a large, white, sans-serif font.

Nothing To Remember:

Nothing is Lost Edvard Kocbek, 2004-03-16 This is the first comprehensive English language collection of verse by the most celebrated Slovenian poet of modern times and one of Europe's most notable postwar poets Edvard Kocbek 1904-1981 The selections introduce the reader to the full spectrum of Kocbek's long and distinguished career starting with the pantheist and expressionist nature poems of his early period and continuing through the politically engaged poetry written during and after World War II to the philosophical and metaphysical meditations of his fecund late period Readers will be struck by the originality and freshness of Kocbek's sinewy and intense vision rendered into fluid and idiomatic English by two experienced translators The Slovenian texts appear on the facing pages The opening stanza of Moon with a Halo The man beside me was killed He had a mother who bore him and a father who made him toys he had a brother and a playful uncle and a little girl with blond braids he had a wooden cart and a wooden horse a trunkful of colored dreams and a brook where he used to fish Belchamber Howard Overing Sturgis, 2015-02-22. In his remarkably interesting novel, Howard Sturgis, with a skilful touch, describes life in the rich and self-indulgent aristocratic society. It traces the career of a young man, Sainty, brought up in the midst of great luxury. Indecision of character is the weakness of Sainty. He allows himself to become the prey of a scheming mother and her worthless daughter, and in spite of the tremendous advantage of his wealth and position and a strong desire to benefit his fellow men, he never accomplishes anything. Sainty is the victim of his surroundings; he makes a few ineffectual struggles before the waters of adverse circumstance close over him. Most of the men and women described in Belchamber are hard and grasping, if not distinctly vicious, and yet the variety shown is endless. The book is extremely well written, showing marked skill in the delineation of character. Mary K Ford.

The Mountain of Kept Memory Rachel Neumeier, 2016-11-08. A prince and a princess must work together to save their kingdom from invaders and dangers within.

A Choice to Forgive Luiz Alberto Mortari, 2010-12-07. In a fictitious ideal world where omnipotent beings behave with perfection, someone has the desire to experience forgiveness. Since there are neither offenses nor pride there, for it is perfect, such a wish is not easily realizable. However, once the wish is expressed, the world loses its perfection because in it there is an unsatisfied desire. That is an impossibility even for omnipotent beings In the book you will meet the solution which resettles their omnipotence and perfection allowing all to experience forgiveness Interesting visions of life are exposed and although fictitious they may be useful for us here to forgive but moreover to exercise love to God to our fellow men and to ourselves Dont miss reading this book Meditate about the possibilities presented and observe your life transform itself to the best As a reward maybe besides understanding a facet of forgiveness you will be able to realize that much of what we do whether good or not is just another way of increasing the love between us Perhaps you will realize further that there is only one of us and that we are all one finally making into a whole boundless divine family
