Greek Art and Aesthetics in the Fourth Century B.C. William A. P. Childs, 2018-04-10 Greek Art and Aesthetics in the Fourth Century B C analyzes the broad character of art produced during this period providing in depth analysis of and commentary on many of its most notable examples of sculpture and painting Taking into consideration developments in style and subject matter and elucidating political religious and intellectual context William A P Childs argues that Greek art in this era was a natural outgrowth of the high classical period and focused on developing the rudiments of individual expression that became the hallmark of the classical in the fifth century As Childs shows in many respects the art of this period corresponds with the philosophical inquiry by Plato and his contemporaries into the nature of art and speaks to the contemporaneous sense of insecurity and renewed religious devotion Delving into formal and iconographic developments in sculpture and painting Childs examines how the sensitive expressive quality of these works seamlessly links the classical and Hellenistic periods with no appreciable rupture in the continuous exploration of the human condition Another overarching theme concerns the nature of style as a concept of expression an issue that becomes more important given the increasingly multiple styles and functions of fourth century Greek art Childs also shows how the color and form of works suggested the unseen and revealed the profound character of individuals and the physical world A Dictionary of Greek and Roman biography and mythology, 1872 Nothing Absolute Alex Dubilet, Kirill Chepurin, 2021-02-09 Featuring scholars at the forefront of contemporary political theology and the study of German Idealism Nothing Absolute explores the intersection of these two flourishing fields Against traditional approaches that view German Idealism as a secularizing movement this volume revisits it as the first fundamentally philosophical articulation of the political theological problematic in the aftermath of the Enlightenment and the advent of secularity Nothing Absolute reclaims German Idealism as a political theological trajectory Across the volume s contributions German thought from Kant to Marx emerges as crucial for the genealogy of political theology and for the ongoing reassessment of modernity and the secular By investigating anew such concepts as immanence utopia sovereignty theodicy the Earth and the world as well as the concept of political theology itself this volume not only rethinks German Idealism and its aftermath from a political theological perspective but also demonstrates what can be done with or against German Idealism using the conceptual resources of political theology today Contributors Joseph Albernaz Daniel Colucciello Barber Agata Bielik Robson Kirill Chepurin S D Chrostowska Saitya Brata Das Alex Dubilet Vincent Lloyd Thomas Lynch James Martel Steven Shakespeare Oxana Timofeeva Daniel Whistler The Haarlem Legend Lourens Coster, 2025-08-18 Reprint of the original first published in 1871 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the
