Transatlantic Intellectual Networks, 1914-1964 Hans Bak,Céline Mansanti,2019-11-13 The twelve essays in this book by scholars from the U S France Germany the Netherlands and the Czech Republic offer new transnational perspectives in transatlantic historical literary and cultural studies They explore the special role of American and European intellectuals as agents of transatlantic cultural transfer and examine the mechanisms and instruments through which artists writers and intellectuals communicated across oceans and national borders in the half century between 1914 and 1964 Their focus is on transatlantic networks and the instruments of culture through which such networks become operative as sites of cross cultural exchange circulation and interaction magazines caf s publishing houses book fairs agents translators and mediators and last but not least transatlantic personal friendships Contending that the dynamics of transatlantic cultural transfer need to be understood as reciprocal and multi directional they also exemplify the shift within transatlantic intellectual history from a traditional concern with European U S relations to a multidirectional triangular exploration of cultural political and intellectual relations between Europe the United States and Latin America

The Making of the Nations and Cultures of the New World Gérard Bouchard,2008-03-03

The Making of the Nations and Cultures of the New World explores the question of how a culture a collective consciousness is born G rard Bouchard compares the histories of New World collectivities which were driven by a dream of freedom and sovereignty and finds both major differences and striking commonalities in their formation and evolution He also considers the myths and discursive strategies devised by elites in their efforts to unite and mobilize diversified populations

Republic Denied Fulvio Caccia,Daniel Sloate,2002 Addressing political theory both past and present this extended essay studies the personalities that have affected Canada s social and political history It examines numerous factors in the success or failure of various governments in order to learn from the past A major focus of this political study is the concept of metissage which is the mixing of culture and race

The Great Powers (Routledge Revivals) Max Beloff,2009-07-15 This re issued work first published in 1959 is a collection of essays by British historian Max Beloff designed to help us to understand and interpret the political problems of the twentieth century The essays are divided into three key areas the challenges and limitations of interpretation from a historian s perspective the appropriate scale for political activity and organisation in the modern world and the emergence of the United States of America as the most powerful nation on the planet

The Roots of Cane John Kevin Young,2024 The Roots of Cane proposes a new way to read one of the most significant works of the New Negro Renaissance Jean Toomer s Cane John Young traces the many pieces of Cane that were dispersed across multiple modernist magazines from 1922 through 1923 Interweaving a periodical studies approach to modernism with book history and critical race theory Young resituates Toomer s uneasy place within Black modernism by asking how original readers would have encountered his work
