Jung's Red Book for Our Time: Searching for Soul in the 21st Century Murray Stein, 2022-12-10 Do we like Jung need to leave the spirit of the time and follow the spirit of the depths to call out my soul where are you through the windows of our now post modern homes We live in a digital world of incredible virtual interconnectedness but at the same time fragmented and divided on many levels including the psychological The pace of life is rapid and ever accelerating The spirit of the time is flux It twitters There is no sense of coherence in the whole The guidance of a transcendent North Star is invisible to the naked eye of consciousness Our existential crisis is not about the individual alone It infects the entire human world like the Covid 19 pandemic Wars between cultural brothers and sisters increasingly dire effects of climate change economic disruptions hunger migration these conditions affect everyone on the planet Is there a spirit of the depths that can take us through this Inferno perhaps toward the emergence of a meaningful narrative that can stabilize the global community and provide a collective sense of supreme meaning This is the search for soul in the 21st Century

Jung's Red Book For Our Time Murray Stein, Thomas Arzt, 2021-09-25 Edited by Murray Stein and Thomas Arzt the essays in the series Jung's Red Book for Our Time Searching for Soul under Postmodern Conditions are geared to the recognition that the posthumous publication of The Red Book Liber Novus by C G Jung in 2009 was a meaningful gift to our contemporary world The Red Book can be considered as a contribution to the Golden Chain aurea catena of the world's imaginative literature reaching back to the ancient Sumerian Epic of Gilgamesh As Jung describes this tradition in a letter to Max Rychner Faust is the most recent pillar in that bridge of the spirit which spans the morass of world history beginning with the Gilgamesh epic the I Ching the Upanishads the Tao te Ching the fragments of Heraclitus and continuing in the Gospel of St John the letters of St Paul in Meister Eckhart and in Dante The Red Book extends the Golden Chain into our era Each of the 18 essays in this third volume of the series Jung's Red Book for Our Time is unique and all of them converge on the central theme of the relevance of The Red Book for people today in search of soul under postmodern conditions This is the third volume of a multi volume series set up on a global and multicultural level and includes essays from the following distinguished Jungian analysts and scholars Anna Karenina in Our Time Gary Saul Morson, 2007-01-01 In this invigorating new assessment of Anna Karenina Gary Saul Morson overturns traditional interpretations of the classic novel and shows why readers have misunderstood Tolstoy's characters and intentions Morson argues that Tolstoy's ideas are far more radical than has been thought his masterpiece challenges deeply held conceptions of romantic love the process of social reform modernization and the nature of good and evil By investigating the ethical philosophical and social issues with which Tolstoy grappled Morson finds in Anna Karenina powerful connections with the concerns of today He proposes that Tolstoy's effort to see the world more wisely can deeply inform our own search for wisdom in the present day The book offers brilliant analyses of Anna Karenin Dolly Levin and other characters with a particularly subtle portrait of Anna's extremism and self deception Morson probes Tolstoy's important insights evil is often the result of negligence goodness derives from small everyday deeds and completes the volume with an irresistible original list of One Hundred and Sixty Three Tolstoyan Conclusions

Imagining Our Time Lewis P. Simpson, 2007-01-01 Lewis P Simpson towers among scholars of American literary studies as an intellectual historian of the South and American literary culture and a revered essayist His last book Imagining Our Time offers a wide ranging erudite and enlightening look at the culture of letters in American society Primarily through an examination of the works of some of the leading writers of the twentieth century many of whom Simpson knew intimately this final volume provides insight into the struggles and concerns unique to prominent American thinkers literary artists and critics contemporary to his own lifetime Often moving from an intriguing anecdote or recollection to a rigorous discussion of ideas Simpson's style is captivating He begins with speculation on Eric Voegelin's interest in Julien Benda's polemic La Trahison des Clercs and follows with thoughts on the declining faith in the university as an embodiment of humanistic letters and learning surveying the American Republic as far back as Benjamin Franklin In successive chapters Simpson pays tribute to Malcolm Cowley as a hero of the literary art and probes Robert Penn Warren's fixation with Thomas Jefferson as manifested in the writing and complete rewriting of Brother to Dragons He ruminates on the vocation of the critic as practiced by Lionel Trilling and Diana Trilling and the literary and cultural politics of the 1930s Brief portraits of Andrew Lytle and Louis D Rubin Jr appear as well as a poignant argument for the autobiographical cast of Eudora Welty's writing A lengthy riveting consideration of Simpson's friend Walker Percy and Percy's quest for identity as a modern Christian novelist alienated from the society around him forms the core of the volume Fred Hobson's introduction fittingly rounds out Imagining Our Time offering an intimate appreciation of Lewis Simpson who will remain a giant among scholars of southern literary studies

A Writer of Our Time Joshua Sperling, 2018-11-20 This engaging intellectual biography traces Berger's creative evolution analyzes highlights from his vast output and situates them within his empathetic Marxism The New Yorker The first intellectual biography of the life and work of John Berger John Berger was one of the most influential thinkers and writers of postwar Europe As a novelist he won the Booker prize in 1972 donating half his prize money to the Black Panthers As a TV presenter he changed the way we looked at art with Ways of Seeing As a storyteller and political activist he defended the rights and dignity of workers migrants and the oppressed around the world Far from dragging politics into art he wrote in 1953 art has dragged me into politics He remained a revolutionary up to his death in January 2017 Built around a series of watersheds at once personal and historical A Writer of Our Time traces Berger's development from his roots as a postwar art student and polemicist in the Cold War battles of 1950s London through the heady days of the 1960s when the revolutions were not only political but sexual and artistic to Berger's reinvention as a rural storyteller and the long hangover that followed the rise and fall of the New Left Drawing on first hand unpublished interviews and archival sources only recently made available Joshua Sperling digs beneath the moments of controversy to reveal a figure of remarkable complexity and resilience The portrait that emerges is of a cultural innovator as celebrated as he was often misunderstood and a writer increasingly driven as much by what he loved as by what he opposed A Writer of Our Time brings the many faces of John Berger together repatriating one of our great minds to the intellectual dramas of his and our time

A Mirror For Our Times Paul Weller, 2009-02-22 26th September 2008 marks the twentieth anniversary of the beginning of The Satanic Verses controversy a controversy that in many ways became paradigmatic for the following two decades Taking as its starting point the opening two years of the controversy Paul Weller uses the events and arguments of those years as a lens through which to view what later developed both in relation to the controversy itself but also its wider entails and the incidents and issues through which aspects of the original controversy were reprised The anniversary of the controversy presents a good opportunity to review the incidents issues and debates of the time in some historical perspective while also connecting them with subsequent incidents that have reprised some of the key themes such as the cartoons controversy the terror attacks of 9 11 and 7 7 and the killing of the Dutch filmmaker Theo Van Gogh The book holds up a mirror for our times that will be of interest to academics politicians students and religious believers as well as to all who are engaged with the twenty first century challenges posed by living with radical difference freedom of expression and mutual respect with exploring the relationship between religion and secularity and with overcoming the threats posed by religiously informed violence The Irish Novel in Our Time Patrick Rafroidi, Maurice Harmon, 1976 Reading for Our Time J. Hillis Miller, 2012-03-05 A masterclass in attentive reading that opens up brilliant insights into two of George Eliot's novels Can reading Adam Bede and Middlemarch be justified in this time of climate change financial meltdown and ineffective politicians J Hillis Miller shows how to be read for today they must be read slowly closely and carefully with much attention to linguistic detail and especially to figures of speech By relating mistakes like Dorothea's about Casaubon to current affairs Miller's readings for today can help us to come to terms with our human social and political situation and even inspire us to act to ameliorate it Hemingway's In Our Time Wendolyn E. Tetlow, 1992 Many scholars consider In Our Time to be Hemingway's finest work yet the cohesiveness of this sequence of stories and interchapters has often been questioned Hemingway himself however had a clear idea of the work's integrity as his manuscripts and letters reveal As he wrote to his publisher Horace Liveright on 31 March 1925 There is nothing in the book that has not a definite place in its organization and if I at any time seem to repeat myself I have a good reason for doing so Selected Letters 154 According to Ms Tetlow author of this thoughtful study of Hemingway's In Our Time the relationship among the stories and interchapters is precisely analogous to that within a modern poetic sequence as characterized by M L Rosenthal and Sally M Gall in The Modern Poetic Sequence The Genius of Modern Poetry a grouping of mainly lyric poems and passages rarely uniform in pattern which tend to interact as an organic whole It usually includes narrative and dramatic elements and ratiocinative ones as well but its structure is finally lyrical 9 The structure of In Our Time then is similar to such works as Ezra Pound's Hugh Selwyn Mauberley and T S Eliot's The Waste Land works that progress tonally Looking closely at the language of In Our Time Ms Tetlow pays particular attention to recurring images and sounds and the successive sets of feeling these tonal complexes project She traces the lyrical pattern in the sequence as it builds in intensity from denial of fear suffering and death in the first stories and early interchapters and then traces the progression to cautious resignation in the latter stories and interchapters The author also takes into account the importance for Hemingway of Pound's and Eliot's aesthetics and demonstrates how Eliot's idea of the objective correlative and Pound's idea of direct treatment of the thing apply to Hemingway's stories and interchapters Literary Essays 3 Opening with a discussion of the six prose pieces in the original version the shorter In Our Time 1923 the study considers the aesthetic choices Hemingway made in revising these pieces when he incorporated them in his longer sequence of eighteen in In Our Time 1924 The study then discusses the lyrical progression of the prose sequence in the fully developed volume In Our Time 1925 Finally it looks at A Farewell to Arms and shows how the lyrical structure of In Our Time anticipates the longer work with its more continuous narrative pattern

The United Stories of America Rolf Lundén, 2022-06-08 This book discusses the American short story composite or short story cycle a neglected form of writing consisting of autonomous stories interlocking into a whole The critical work done on this genre has so far focused on the closural strategies of the composites on how unity is accomplished in these texts This study takes into consideration to a greater degree than earlier criticism the short story composite as an open work emphasizing the tension between the independent stories and the unified work between the discontinuity and fragmentation on the one hand and the totalizing strategies on the other The discussion of the genre is illustrated with references to numerous American short story composites
