Novum Glossarium Mediae Latinitatis Norm:

Novum glossarium mediae latinitatis Jacques Monfrin, 2005 Novum glossarium mediae latinitatis , 2005

Novum glossarium mediae latinitatis Anne Grondeux, François Dolbeau, 1995 Novum glossarium mediae latinitatis Union académique internationale, 1957 Dictionary of Medical Vocabulary in English, 1375-1550 Juhani Norri, 2016-06-10

Medical texts written in English during the late Middle Ages have in recent years attracted increasing attention among scholars. From approximately 1375 onwards the use of English began to gain a firmer foothold in medical manuscripts which in previous centuries had been written mainly in Latin or French. Scholars of Middle English and editors of medical texts from late medieval England are thus faced with a huge medical vocabulary which no single volume has yet attempted to define. This dictionary is therefore an essential reference tool. The material analysed in the Dictionary of Medical Vocabulary in English 1375-1550 includes edited texts, manuscripts and early printed books and represents three main types of medical writing: surgical manuals and tracts, academic treatises by university-trained physicians and remedy-books. The dictionary covers four lexical fields: names of sicknesses, body parts, instruments and medicinal preparations. Entries are structured as follows: 1. headword, 2. scribal variants occurring in the texts, 3. etymology, 4. definition, 5. each definition followed by relevant quotations, 6. references to corresponding entries in the Dictionary of Old English, Middle English Dictionary and The Oxford English Dictionary, 7. references to academic books and articles containing information on the history and/or meaning of the term.

Lexicon Grammaticorum Harro Stammerjohann, 2009-06-02. Lexicon Grammaticorum is a biographical and bibliographical reference work on the history of all the world's traditions of linguistics. Each article consists of a short definition, details of the life, work and influence of the subject and a primary and secondary bibliography. The authors include some of the most renowned linguistic scholars alive today. For the second edition, twenty co-editors were commissioned to propose articles and authors for their areas of expertise. Thus this edition contains some 500 new articles by more than 400 authors from 25 countries in addition to the completely revised 1,500 articles from the first edition. Attention has been paid to making the articles more reader-friendly in particular by resolving abbreviations in the textual sections. Key features: essential reference book for linguists worldwide, 500 new articles, over 400 contributors of 25 countries.

Anglo-Norman Studies XXIV John Gillingham, 2002. This annual publication covers not only matters relating to pre and post-Conquest England and France but also the activities and influences of the Normans on the wider European, Mediterranean and Middle Eastern stage.

Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science: Volume 7 - Derunov: Konstantin Nikolaevitch Allen Kent, Harold Lancour, 1972-03-01. Impeccably researched, cross-referenced, alphabetized by subject.

and generously illustrated the Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science integrates the essential theoretical and practical information accumulating in this rapidly growing field Early Music History: Volume 23 Iain Fenlon, Wulf Arlt, Margaret Bent, 2004-12-27 Musical history from the early Middle Ages to the end of the seventeenth century Law, laity and solidarities Pauline Stafford, Janet L. Nelson, Jane Martindale, 2020-01-03 The primary focus of this collection by leading medieval historians is the laity in particular the ideas and ideals of lay people The contributors explore lay attitudes as expressed in legal cases charters chronicles and collective activities Highlights the centrality of kinship whilst stressing its limitations as an all purpose social bond Ranges chronologically and geographically from the seventh century to the eve of the Reformation from Western Britain to papal and urban Italy from Carolingian dynastic politics to the decline of medieval pilgrimage in the sixteenth century and from the courts of twelfth century France to the fifteenth century wards of London

Intellectual Life in the Middle Ages Lesley Smith, 1992-07-01 The variety of experience available to medieval scholars and the vitality of medieval thought are both reflected in this collection of original essays by distinguished historians Intellectual Life in the Middle Ages is presented to Margaret Gibson whose own work has ranged from Boethius to Lanfranc and to the study of the Bible in the middle ages Liber Eliensis Janet Fairweather, 2005 The translation does full justice to the compiler's wide range of source material it gives priority to the readings of the oldest manuscript of the Liber Eliensis but covers everything included in the later but fuller recension of the Latin text presented in E O Blake's 1962 edition There are notes on the text and sources an introductory essay appendices and indices Jacket Adelard of Bath, Conversations with His Nephew Adelard (of Bath), 1998-12-10 Adelard of Bath was one of the most colourful personalities of the Middle Ages He travelled to the Crusader kingdoms to Sicily and south Italy and translated texts on astronomy astrology and magic from Arabic into Latin He acquired a lasting reputation as a pioneering mathematician and he was a gifted teacher He addressed one of these works on cosmology and the astrolabe to the future King Henry II and it is in the context of the education of the nobility that the three works edited in this book are to be viewed Adelard meant them to be both entertaining and instructive They deal with all kinds of topics from the nature of the soul to the cause of earthquakes from the effects of music to how to train a hawk A preface provides the results of research on Adelard's life and work Reading the Juggler of Notre Dame Jan M. Ziolkowski, 2022-07-25 In this two part anthology Jan M Ziolkowski builds on themes uncovered in his earlier The Juggler of Notre Dame and the Medievalizing of Modernity Here he focuses particularly on the performing arts Part one contextualises Our Lady's Tumbler a French poem of the late 1230s by comparing it with episodes in the Bible and miracles in a wide variety of medieval European sources It relates this material to analogues and folklore across the ages from among others Persian Jewish and Hungarian cultures Part two scrutinizes the reception and impact of the poem with reference to modern European and American literature including works by the Nobel prize winner Anatole France professor poet Katharine Lee Bates philosopher historian Henry Adams and poet W H Auden This innovative collection of sources introduces readers to many previously untranslated texts and invites them to explore the journey of Our Lady's Tumbler across both sides of the Atlantic Reading the Juggler of Notre Dame Medieval Miracles and Modern Remakings will benefit scholars and students alike The short introductions and numerous annotations shed light on unusual beliefs and practices of the past making the readings accessible to anyone with an interest in the arts and an openness to the Middle Ages Gestures and Looks in Medieval Narrative J. A. Burrow, 2002-08-08 In medieval society gestures and speaking looks played an even more important part in public and private exchanges than they do today Gestures meant more than words for example in ceremonies of homage and fealty In this the first study of its kind in English John Burrow examines the role of non verbal communication in a wide range of narrative texts including Chaucer's Troilus and Criseyde the anonymous Sir Gawain and the Green Knight Malory's Morte D'Arthur the romances of Chrétien de Troyes the Prose Lancelot Boccaccio's Il Filostrato and Dante's Commedia Burrow argues that since non verbal signs are in general less subject to change than words many of the behaviours recorded in these texts such as pointing and amorous gazing are familiar in themselves yet many prove easy to misread either because they are no longer common like bowing or because their use has changed like winking The Making of Gratian's Decretum Anders Winroth, 2000-11-23 This book offers perspectives on the legal and intellectual developments of the twelfth century Gratian's collection of Church law the Decretum was a key text in these developments Compiled in around 1140 it remained a fundamental work throughout and beyond the Middle Ages Until now the many mysteries surrounding the creation of the Decretum have remained unsolved thereby hampering exploration of the jurisprudential renaissance of the twelfth century Professor Winroth has now discovered the original version of the Decretum which has long lain unnoticed among medieval manuscripts in a version about half as long as the final text It is also different from the final version in many respects for example with regard to the use of Roman law sources enabling a reconsideration of the resurgence of law in the twelfth century Anglo-Norman Studies VII Reginald Allen Brown, 1985 Proceedings of the Battle Conference 1984 St Antoninus of Florence on Trade, Merchants, and Workers Jason Aaron Brown, 2024-11-30 Saint Antoninus of Florence was a Dominican friar and archbishop of Florence from 1446 to 1459 He composed one of the most comprehensive manuals of moral theology the Summa which has long been counted among the more copious influential and rewarding medieval sources St Antoninus of Florence on Trade Merchants and Workers gives an orientation to the life and teaching of Saint Antoninus focusing on his writings on economic ethics and includes a critical edition of his original Latin text with an English translation The book provides an extensive introduction to his thought situating it in its intellectual and social context and elucidates the development of medieval economic and moral doctrines in law and theology Jason Aaron Brown examines historians' arguments about Italian business culture in the wake of the medieval Commercial Revolution and whether this culture can be considered capitalistic He concludes that while Saint Antoninus is surprisingly modern in the economic concepts he deploys his moral teaching on proper means and ends in the marketplace stood against certain nascent capitalistic tendencies in fifteenth century Florence Through examination of the manuscripts this book opens a window into a premodern author's writing process that will be of interest to scholars of medieval manuscripts and literary production

Hostages in the Middle Ages Adam J. Kosto, 2012-06-21 Examines the changing situations in which hostages were used in the Europe and the Mediterranean world from the fifth to the fifteenth centuries touching on a wide range of topics in military diplomatic political social gender economic and legal history

Onomastics of the "Chanson de Roland" Gustav A. Beckmann, 2023-03-06 This ambitious study of all proper names in the Chanson de Roland is based for the first time on a systematic survey of the whole geographical and historical literature from antiquity to after 1100 for the Geographica and on working through almost the entire documentary tradition of France and its neighbouring regions from 778 to the early 12th century for the personal names The overall result is clear the surviving song is more tightly and profoundly structured even in smaller scenes than generally assumed it is also richer in depicting reality and it has a very long prehistory which can be traced in outline albeit with decreasing certainty almost back to the Frankish defeat of 778 Here are some individual results for the first time a detailed and ultimately simple explanation not only of the pagan catalogue of peoples but also of the overarching structure of Baligant's empire the organisation of North Africa the corpus of the Twelve Anti Pairs as well as the pagan gods are given and individual names such as Bramimunde and Jurfaret toponyms such as Marbrise and Marbrose are explained From Roland's Spanish conquests v 196 200 the course of the elapsed set anz toz pleins is reconstructed Even the names of the weapons prove to be a small structured group in that they are very discreetly adapted to their respective pagan or Christian owner On the Christian side the small list of relics in Roland's sword is also carefully devised not least in what is left out a relic of the Lord this is reserved for Charlemagne's Joise The author explains for example why from the archangel triad only Michael and Gabriel descend to the dying Roland whereas the angel Cherubin descends in Rafael's place Munjoie requires extensive discussion because here a hitherto insufficiently recorded toponym has been secondarily charged by the poet with traditional theological associations The term Terre major is attested for the first time in reality namely in the late 11th century in Norman usage For the core of France the fourth cornerstone along with Besançon, Wisant and Mont Saint Michel is Xanten and its centre is Aachen The poet's artful equilibration of Charles's ten eschieles and their leaders is traced The Capetian barrier emerges as a basic fact of epic geography Approximately the last quarter of the study is devoted to the prehistory of the song going backwards in time still quite clearly visible is an Angevin Song of Roland from around 1050 in which Marsile Olivier Roland Ganelon Turpin and Naimes already have roles similar to those in the preserved Song Behind it between about 970 and shortly after 1000 is the Girart de Vienne from the Middle Rhine already recognised by Aebischer with the newly invented Olivier contra Roland Finally in faint outlines an oldest attainable also Middle Rhine adaptation of the Roland material from shortly after 870 emerges For the Chanson de Roland Gaston Paris and Joseph Bédier were thus each right on the main point that was close to their hearts the surviving song has both the thoroughly sophisticated structure of great art that B dier recognised in it and the imposingly long prehistory that Paris conjectured
