Now In November:

Now in November Josephine W. Johnson, 2013-08-31 Brilliant evocative poetic savage this Pulitzer Prize winning first novel 1934 depicts a white middle class urban family that is turned into dirt poor farmers by the Depression and the great drought of the thirties The novel moves through a single year and at the same time a decade of years from the spring arrival of the family at their mortgaged farm to the winter 10 years later when the ravages of drought fire and personal anguish have led to the deaths of two of the five Like Ethan Frome the relatively brief intense story evokes the torment possible among people isolated and driven by strong feelings of love and hate that unexpressed lead inevitably to doom Reviewers in the thirties praised the novel calling its prose profoundly moving music expressing incredulity that this mature style and this mature point of view are those of a young woman in her twenties comparing the book to the luminous work of Willa Cather and with prescience suggesting that it has that rare quality of timelessness which is the mark of first rate fiction

School Memories Cristina Yanes-Cabrera, Juri Meda, Antonio Viñao, 2016-09-15 This book reveals how school memories offer not only a tool for accessing the school of the past but also a key to understanding what people today know or think they know about the school of the past It describes in fact how historians work does not purely and simply consist in exploring school as it really was but also in the complex process of defining the memory of school as one developed and revisited over time at both the individual and collective level Further it investigates the extent to which what people know reflects the reality or is in fact a product of stereotypes that are deeply rooted in common perceptions and thus exceedingly difficult to do away with The book includes fifteen peer reviewed contributions that were presented and discussed during the International Symposium School Memories New Trends in Historical Research into Education Heuristic Perspectives and Methodological Issues Seville 22 23 September 2015
