Nuba Personal Art James C. Faris,1972 Anthropological Filmmaking Jack R. Rollwagen,1988 First Published in 1988 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Rare Art Traditions Joseph Alsop,2023-08-15 A cultural and social history of art collecting art history and the art market In The Rare Art Traditions Joseph Alsop offers a wide ranging cultural and social history of art collecting art history and the art market He argues that art collecting is the basic element in a remarkably complex and historically rare behavioral system which includes the historical study of art the market for buying and selling art museums forgery and the astonishing prices commanded by some works of art The Rare Art Traditions tells the story of three important traditions of art collecting the classical tradition that began in Greece the Chinese tradition and the Western tradition The result is a major original contribution to art history Body and Image Christopher Tilley,2016-09-16 The understanding and interpretation of ancient architecture landscapes and art has always been viewed through an iconographic lens a cognitive process based on traditional practices in art history But ancient people did not ascribe their visions on canvas rather on hills stones and fields Thus Chris Tilley argues the iconographic approach falls short of understanding how ancient people interacted with their imagery A kinaesthetic approach one that uses the full body and all the senses can better approximate the meaning that these artifacts had for their makers and today s viewers The body intersects the landscape in a myriad of ways through the effort to reach the image the angles that one can use to view the multiple senses required for interaction Tilley outlines the choreographic basis of understanding ancient landscapes and art phenomenologically and demonstrates the power of his thesis through examples of rock art and megalithic architecture in Norway Ireland and Sweden This is a powerful new model from one of the leading contemporary theorists in archaeology

Anthropological Filmmaking J.R Rollwagen,2014-06-03 First Published in 1988 Visual Anthropology is a book series devoted to the illumination of the human condition through a systematic examination of all that is made to be seen It is our intention to demonstrate the value of an anthropological approach to the study of the visual and pictorial world The anthropological filmmaker just like the ethnographer must be content to present something about a dynamic process at a particular moment in time regardless of the fact that all of the variables are constantly in flux The purpose of this work is to make available a collection of articles by individuals who are both anthropologists and filmmakers The Grace of Four Moons Pravina Shukla, 2015-10-16 Because clothing food and shelter are basic human needs they provide excellent entries to cultural values and individual aesthetics Everyone gets dressed every day but body art has not received the attention it deserves as the most common and universal of material expressions of culture The Grace of Four Moons aims to document the clothing decisions made by ordinary people in their everyday lives Based on fieldwork conducted primarily in the city of Banaras India Pravina Shukla conceptualizes and realizes a total model for the study of body art understood as all aesthetic modifications and supplementations to the body Shukla urges the study of the entire process of body art from the assembly of raw materials and the manufacture of objects through their sale and the interactions between merchants and consumers to the consumer's use of objects in creating personal decoration

Symbols in Action Ian Hodder, 1982-01-14 Material culture the objects made by man provides the primary data from which archaeologists have to infer the economies technologies social organization and ritual practices of extinct societies The analysis and interpretation of material culture is therefore central to any concern with archaeological theory and methodology and in order to understand better the relationship between material culture and human behaviour archaeologists need to draw upon models derived from the study of ethnographic societies First published in 1982 this book presents the results of a series of field investigations carried out in Kenya Zambia and the Sudan into the archaeological remains and material culture of contemporary small scale societies and demonstrates the way in which objects are used as symbols within social action and within particular world views and ideologies

Handbook of Ethnography Paul Atkinson, 2007-05-14 I wish the Handbook of Ethnography had been available to me as a fledgling ethnographer I would recommend it for any graduate student who contemplates a career in the field Likewise for experienced ethnographers who would like the equivalent of a world atlas to help pinpoint their own locations in the field Journal of Contemporary Ethnography No self-respecting qualitative researcher should be without Paul Atkinson's handbook on ethnography This really is encyclopaedic in concept and scope Many big names in the field have contributed so this has to be the starting point for anyone looking to understand the field in substantive topic theoretical tradition and methodology SRA News Ethnography is one of the chief research methods in sociology anthropology and other cognate disciplines in the social sciences This Handbook provides an unparalleled critical guide to its principles and practice The volume is organized into three sections The first systematically locates ethnography firmly in its relevant historical and intellectual contexts The roots of ethnography are pinpointed and the pattern of its development is demonstrated The second section examines the contribution of ethnography to major fields of substantive research The impact and strengths and weaknesses of ethnographic method are dealt with authoritatively and accessibly The third section moves on to examine key debates and issues in ethnography from the conduct of research through to contemporary arguments The result is a landmark work in the field which draws on the expertise of an internationally renowned group of interdisciplinary scholars The Handbook of Ethnography provides readers with a one stop critical guide to the past present and future of ethnography It will quickly establish itself as the ethnographer s bible The Mediation of Ornament Oleg Grabar,2023-08-15 How ornamentation enables a direct and immediate encounter between viewers and art objects Based on universal motifs ornamentation occurs in many artistic traditions though it reaches its most expressive tangible and unique form in the art of the Islamic world The Mediation of Ornament shares a veteran art historian s love for the sheer sensuality of Islamic ornamentation but also uses this art to show how ornament serves as a consistent intermediary between viewers and artistic works from all cultures and periods Oleg Grabar analyzes early and medieval Islamic objects ranging from frontispieces in Yemen to tilework in the Alhambra and compares them to Western examples treating all pieces as testimony of the work life thought and emotion experienced in one society The Mediation of Ornament is essential reading for admirers of Islamic art and anyone interested in the ways of perceiving and understanding the arts more broadly Phenomenology of Life - From the Animal Soul to the Human Mind Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka,2007-08-23 Transcendental phenomenology presumed to have overcome the classic mind body dichotomy in terms of consciousness yet according to progress in scientific studies the biological functions of the brain seem to appropriate significant functions attributed traditionally to consciousness Should we indeed dissolve the specificity of human consciousness by explaining human experience in its multiple sense giving modalities through the physiological functions of the brain The present collection of studies addresses this crucial question challenging such naturalizing reductionism from multiple angles In search for the roots of The Specifically Human Experience Bombala moving along the line of Animality and Intellection Gosetti Ferencei Naturalistic Attitude and Personalistic Attitude Villela Petit and numerous other perspectives we arrive at a novel proposal to explain the scholar functional differentiation of conscious modalities We reach their source in the onto-poietic thread conducting the Logos of Life in its stepwise Evolutive Unfolding Carmen Cozma and in sentience as its quintessential core of further irreducible continuity Tymieniecka dispelling dichotomies and reductionisms Encyclopedia of African Peoples The Diagram Group,2013-11-26 Africa is a vast continent home to many millions of people Its history stretches back millennia and encompasses some of the most ancient civilizations in the world Modern Africa boasts a rich cultural heritage the legacy of many diverse influences from all around the world reflecting the central role African plays in world history Encyclopedia of African Peoples provides extensive information about Africa s cultures history geography economics and politics it provides an invaluable overview of the whole continent region by region ethnic group by ethnic group nation by nation personality by personality Sections include Africa Today The Peoples of Africa Culture and History The Nations of Africa Biographies Past to Present Glossary Index Structure and Cognition in Art Dorothy K. Adornment Stephen Davies, 2020-01-09 Elaborating the history variety pervasiveness and function of the adornments and ornaments with which we beautify ourselves this book takes in human prehistory ancient civilizations hunter foragers and present day industrial societies to tell a captivating story of hair skin and make up practices across times and cultures From the decline of the hat the function of jewelry and popularity of tattooing to the wealth of grave goods found in the Upper Paleolithic burials and body painting of the Nuba we see that there is no one who does not adorn themselves their possessions or their environment But what messages do these adornments send Drawing on aesthetics evolutionary history archaeology ethology anthropology psychology cultural history and gender studies Stephen Davies brings together African Australian and North and South American indigenous cultures and unites them around the theme of adornment He shows us that adorning is one of the few social behaviors that is close to being genuinely universal more typical and extensive than the high minded activities we prefer to think of as marking our species religion morality and art Each chapter shows how modes of decoration send vitally important signals about what we care about our affiliations and backgrounds our social status and values In short by using the theme of bodily adornment to unify a very diverse set of human practices this book tells us about who we are

Lines That Connect Graeme Were, 2010-08-31 Building on historical and contemporary literature in anthropology and art theory Lines That Connect treats pattern as a material form of thought that provokes connections between disparate things through processes of resemblance memory and transformation Pattern is constantly in a state of motion as it traverses spatial and temporal divides and acts as an endless source for innovation through its inherent transformability Graeme Were argues that it is the ideas carried by pattern's relational capacity that allows Pacific islanders to express their links to land genealogy and resources in the most economic ways In doing so his book is a timely and unique contribution to the analysis of pattern and decorative art in the Pacific amid growing debates in anthropology and art history This striking and original study brings together objects and photographs historical literature and contemporary ethnographic case studies to explore pattern in its logical workings It presents the first ever analysis of the well known patterned shell valuable called kapkap as revealed in New Ireland mortuary feasts Innovative research in the study of Christianity and the Baha'i faithful in the region shows how pattern has been appropriated in new religious communities Were argues that pattern is used in various guises in performances church architecture and funerary images to contrasting effect He explores the conditions under which pattern facilitates a connecting of old and new ideas and how missionary processes are implicated in this flow He then considers the mechanisms under which pattern is internalized paying particular attention to its embeddedness in spatial and numerical thinking Finally he examines how pattern carries new materials and technologies which in turn provide new resources for sustaining old beliefs Drawing on a multitude of fields anthropology art history Pacific museum and religious studies education ethnomathematics Lines That Connect raises key questions about the capacity of pattern across the Pacific to bind and sustain ideas about place body and genealogy in the most logical of ways

An Engraved Landscape: Rock carvings in the Wadi al-Ajal, Libya Tertia Barnett, 2023-02-23 An Engraved Landscape is a contextual analysis of a substantial new corpus of engravings from the Wadi al Ajal situated in the Central Saharan region of south west Libya The wadi is renowned as the heartland of the Garamantian civilization which emerged from local mobile Pastoral communities in the 1st millennium BC and dominated trans Saharan trade and politics for over a thousand years Extensive archaeological and palaeoenvironmental investigations in recent years have provided detailed insight into the later prehistory and protohistory of the wadi and surrounding areas However prior to the fieldwork detailed in this work only a handful of carvings had been recorded in the wadi This work is based on systematic survey conducted between 2004 and 2009 which recorded around 2 500 previously unknown or unpublished engraved and inscribed rock surfaces All forms of engraving whether figurative or surface markings were viewed as significant residues of human interaction with the rock surface and were recorded The resulting database provides an opportunity to analyze the engravings in relation to their changing physical and cultural contexts and the discussion offers a fresh interpretation of Saharan rock art based on this substantial new evidence An Engraved Landscape also captures in detail a unique heritage resource that is currently inaccessible and threatened This record of the fragile engravings provides an important source of information for researchers and students
