Nubian Ethnographies:

Nubian Ethnographies Elizabeth Warnock Fernea, Robert Alan Fernea, Aleya Rouchdy, 1991 The majority of this ethnographic collection chronicles the period of Nubian history in the 1960s just before 50 000 Egyptian Nubians were moved from their ancestral home along the Upper Nile

Nubian Encounters Nicholas S. Hopkins, Sohair Mehanna, 2010 In the 1960s the construction of the Aswan High Dam occasioned the forced displacement of a large part of the Nubian population Including maps and photos this book chronicles the research carried out by an international team

Aswan High Dam Resettlement of Egyptian Nubians Thayer Scudder, 2016-08-05 This book highlights the long term resettlement process of the Egyptian Nubian people along the Aswan High Dam Assessing the resettlement of 48 000 Egyptian Nubians in connection with the High Dam is especially important for three main reasons firstly this resettlement process is one of the rare cases in which research begun before the dam was built has continued for over forty years Secondly the resettlement of the Egyptian Nubian people is one of the few cases in which the living standards of the large majority improved because of the initial political will of the government combined with Nubian initiatives Thirdly given the complexity of the resettlement process weaknesses in government planning implementation and in the weakening of government political provide valuable lessons for future dam induced resettlement efforts

Ancient Nubia Marjorie M. Fisher, Peter Lacovara, Salima Ikram, Sue D'Auria, 2012-09-06 A lushly illustrated gazetteer of the archaeological sites of southern Egypt and northern Sudan and named a 2012 American Publishers PROSE Awards winner for Best Archaeology Anthropology Book For most of the modern world ancient Nubia seems an unknown and enigmatic land Only a handful of archaeologists have studied its history or unearthed the Nubian cities temples and cemeteries that once dotted the landscape of southern Egypt and northern Sudan Nubia s remote setting in the midst of an inhospitable desert with access by river blocked by impassable rapids has lent it not only an air of mystery but also isolated it from exploration Over the past century particularly during this last generation scholars have begun to focus more attention on the fascinating cultures of ancient Nubia ironically prompted by the construction of large dams that have flooded vast tracts of the ancient land This book attempts to document some of what has recently been discovered about ancient Nubia with its remarkable history architecture and culture and thereby to give us a picture of this rich but unfamiliar African legacy

Historical Dictionary of Ancient and Medieval Nubia Richard A. Lobban, 2003-12-09 The Historical Dictionary of Ancient and Medieval Nubia covers the period from the Paleolithic all the periods of ancient Nubia Predynastic Kerma Dynasty XXV Napatan Meroitic Post Meroitic and to the end of medieval Christianity in Nubia Sudan This resource focuses on Nubian history through a Nubian perspective rather than on the more common Egypto centrism perspective and the coverage is based on the latest and best archaeological and epigraphic evidence Newly created maps of the general area and its specific regions and place names and a photospread showing important related features of the region are included A detailed chronology provides a timeline of historical events and an introductory narrative shapes the overall history and leads to the main body of the work in the form of a cross referenced dictionary The descriptive entries cover the main features of the region in the various periods that are key not only to Nubian events but also to the important interactions they had with Egypt to the north Nine appendices and an extensive bibliography conclude this work Lobban has been teaching Nubian studies in undergraduate classrooms for thirty years and this book is a product of his hands on experiences as well as extensive anthropological fieldwork and travel in Sudanese and Egyptian Nubia Nubian Ceremonial Life John G. Kennedy, 2005 Reveals and discusses some of the important and distinctive aspects of Nubian culture This study contains discussions on the psychology of death ceremonies the nature of taboo and the importance of trance curing ceremonies Medieval Nubia Giovanni R. Ruffini, 2012-09-18 As one of the few surviving archaeological sites from the medieval Christian kingdom of Nubia Qasr Ibrim is critically important in a number of ways It is the only site in Lower Nubia that remained above water after the completion of the Aswan high dam In addition thanks to the aridity of the climate in the area the site is marked by extraordinary preservation of organic material especially textual material written on papyrus leather and paper Particularly rich is the textual material from the twelfth and thirteenth centuries CE written in Old Nubian the region's indigenous language As a result Qasr Ibrim is probably the best documented ancient and medieval site in Africa outside of Egypt and the Maghreb Medieval Nubia is the first book to make available this remarkable material much of which is still unpublished The evidence discovered reveals a more complicated picture of this community than originally thought Previously it was accepted that medieval Nubia had existed in relative isolation from the rest of the world subsisting on a primitive economy Legal documents accounts and letters however reveal a complex monetized economy with exchange rates connected to those of the wider world Furthermore they reveal public festive practices in which lavish feasting and food gifts reinforced the social prestige of the participants These documents prove medieval Nubia to have been a society combining legal elements inherited from the Greco Roman world with indigenous African social practices In reconstructing the social and economic life of medieval Nubia based on the Old Nubian sources from the site as well as other previously examined materials Giovanni R Ruffini corrects previous assumptions and provides a new picture of Nubia one that links it to the wider Mediterranean economy and society of its time Dotawo Dotawo Journal, 2019-02-05 Dotawo A Journal of Nubian Studies offers a platform in which the old meets the new in which archaeological papyrological and philological research into Meroitic Old Nubian Coptic Greek and Arabic sources confront current investigations in modern anthropology and ethnography Nilo Saharan linguistics and the critical and theoretical approaches of postcolonial and African studies Dotawo gives a common home to the past present and future of one of the richest areas of research in African studies It offers a crossroads where papyrus can meet the internet scribes meet critical thinkers and the promises of growing nations meet the accomplishments of older kingdoms Volume 5 of Dotawo focuses on Nubian women both ancient and contemporary Nubian women whether they were queens or commoners Christians or

Muslims have always been held in high esteem by their communities The articles in this volume of Dotawo focus on the ways in which Nubian women survive and thrive throughout the centuries

The Republic of the Sudan was long the largest country in Africa and according to the general consensus also one of the least successful in many ways This was not entirely its fault since it lay along the fault line between Muslim and Christian Africa and between the Nile Valley civilizations and African Sudanic cultures This partly explains the long and bloody warfare waged by the Southerners to achieve independence which they did in July 2011 So this hefty book actually covers not one but two states This fourth edition of the Historical Dictionary of the Sudan does so first through a lengthy and detailed chronology tracing its relatively few successes and numerous failures The introductory essay does an admirable job of putting it all in perspective But the most informative part is the dictionary with now over 700 entries for this fourth edition They deal with important personalities politics the economy society culture religion and inevitably the civil war There are also appendixes and an extensive bibliography

The Politics of Indigeneity Sita Venkateswar, Emma Hughes, 2013-04-04

Provocative and original The Politics of Indigeneity explores the concept of indigeneity across the world from the Americas to New Zealand Africa to Asia and the ways in which it intersects with local national and international social and political realities Taking on the role of critical interlocutors the authors engage in extended dialogue with indigenous spokespersons and activists as well as between each other In doing so they explore the possibilities of a second wave indigeneity one that is alert to the challenges posed to indigenous aspirations by the neo liberal agenda of nation states and their concerns with sovereignty Timely and topical in its focus on global indigenous politics and featuring a variety of first hand indigenous voices including those of indigenous activists scholars leaders and interviewees this is a vital contribution to an often contentious topic

The Future of Large Dams Thayer

Scudder,2012-04-27 Viewed by some as symbols of progress and by others as inherently flawed large dams remain one of the most contentious development issues on Earth Building on the work of the now defunct World Commission on Dams Thayer Scudder wades into the debate with unprecedented authority Employing the Commission s Seven Strategic priorities Scudder charts the middle way forward by examining the impacts of large dams on ecosystems societies and political economies He also analyses the structure of the decision making process for water resource development and tackles the highly contentious issue of dam induced resettlement illuminated by a statistical analysis of 50 cases In Search of Islamic Feminism Elizabeth Warnock Fernea,2010-12-29 An acclaimed Arab Studies scholar and bestselling author offers a groundbreaking new interpretation of the status and vision of Muslim women and challenges our own sense of the meaning of feminism Islamic feminism would seem a contradiction in terms to most Westerners We are taught to think of Islam as a culture wherein social code and religious law alike force women to accept male authority and surrender to the veil How could feminism emerge under such a code let alone flourish Now traveling throughout Central Asia Africa and the Middle East as well as Islamic communities in the United States acclaimed Arab Studies scholar and bestselling author Elizabeth Fernea sets out to answer that question Fernea s dialogue with friends colleagues and acquaintances prompts a range of diverse and unpredictable responses but in every country she visits women demonstrate they are anything but passive In Iraq we see an 85 percent literacy rate among women in Egypt we see women owning their own farms and in Israel we see women at the very forefront of peacemaking efforts Poor or rich educated or illiterate these women define their own needs solve their own problems and determine the boundaries of their own very real very viable feminism Women Writing Culture Ruth Behar,Deborah A. Gordon,1995 Extrait de la couverture Here for the first time is a book that brings women s writings out of exile to rethink anthropology s purpose at the end of the century As a historical resource the collection undertakes fresh readings of the work of well known women anthropologists and also reclaims the writings of women of color for anthropology As a critical account it bravely interrogates the politics of authorship As a creative endeavor it embraces new Feminist voices of ethnography that challenge prevailing definitions of theory and experimental writing Water on Sand Alan Mikhail,2013-01-10 Making environmental history accessible to scholars of the Middle East and the history of the region accessible to environmental historians Water on Sand opens up new fields of scholarly inquiry The Modern Neighbors of Tutankhamun Kees van der Spek,2011-02-01 Until their recent demolition the colorful mud brick hamlets of al Qurna village situated among the Noble Tombs of the Theban Necropolis on the Luxor West Bank were home to a vibrant community Inhabiting a place of intensive Egyptological research for over two centuries it was inevitable that Qurnawis should become part of the history of Egyptology and the development of archaeological practice in the Theban Necropolis But they have mostly been regarded as laborers for the excavation teams or dealers in the illicit antiquities trade The modern people inhabiting the ancient burial grounds have themselves rarely been considered By demonstrating the multiplicity of economic activities that are carried out in al Qurna this study counters the villagers stereotypical representation as tomb robbers and restores an understanding of who they are as people living their lives in the shadow of valued cultural heritage

Wanderings Rogaia Mustafa Abusharaf, 2018-08-06 In one of the first books devoted to the experience of Sudanese immigrants and exiles in the United States Rogaia Mustafa Abusharaf places her community into context showing its increasing historical and political significance Abusharaf herself participates in many aspects of life in the migrant community and in the Sudan in ways that a non Sudanese could not Attending religious events social gatherings and meetings Abusharaf discovers that a national sense of common Sudanese identity emerges more strongly among immigrants in North America than it does at home Sudanese immigrants use informal transatlantic networks to ease the immigration process and act on the local level to help others find housing and employment They gather for political activism to share feasts and to celebrate marriages always negotiating between tradition and the challenges of their new surroundings Abusharaf uses a combination of conversations with Sudanese friends interviews and life histories to portray several groups among the Sudanese immigrant population Southern war refugees including the Lost Boys of Sudan spent years in camps in Kenya or Uganda professionals were expelled from the Gulf because their country's rulers backed Iraq in the Gulf War Christian Copts suffered from religious persecution in Sudan and women migrated alone Gatherings In Diaspora Stephen Warner, Judith G. Wittner, 1998-04-23 Gatherings in Diaspora brings together the latest chapters in the long running chronicle of religion and immigration in the American experience Today as in the past people migrating to the United States bring their religions with them and their religious identities often mean more to them away from home in their diaspora than they did before This book explores and analyzes the diverse religious communities of post 1965 diasporas Christians Hews Muslims Hindus Rastafarians and practitioners of Vodou from countries such as China Guatemala Haiti India Iran Jamaica Korea and Mexico The contributors explore how to a greater or lesser extent immigrants and their offspring adapt their religious institutions to American conditions often interacting with religious communities already established The religious institutions they build adapt remodel and adopt become worlds unto themselves congregations where new relations are forged within the community between men and women parents and children recent arrival and those longer settled The Road to the Two Sudans Souad Ali, Richard Lobban, 2014-03-17 Parallel with the previous volume of conference papers in 2008 Sudan's Wars and Peace Agreements most of these selected and thematic articles were originally presented as papers at the 31st meeting of the Sudan Studies Association SSA at Arizona State University in 2012 Since that time the Comprehensive Peace Agreement of 2005 provided for the self determination referendum of 2011 that resulted in the independence of the new Republic of South Sudan The previous book presaged this present volume as the perhaps inevitable outcome of endless conflicts with no serious effort to make unity attractive As this book goes to press the new Republic of South Sudan is itself wracked with violent conflict The hopes to build a new democratic and civil society in the south from the many inherited problems have now devolved to dysfunction itself Reading this book will realistically help in understanding these Roads taken The editors and authors have created a multi faceted account which reveals the complex foundations of these conflicts between north and south and recently within the south itself While Khartoum struggles onward with the Islamist project regional conflicts and grave economic problems Juba stumbles with corruption armed rebellion and a grave humanitarian crisis The half full glass of dreams of social and economic development supported by oil revenue has been replaced by a glass half empty with new varieties of political dysfunction in which both nations have grave problems in security and economic stability in a generally troubled regional neighborhood
