Nucleoethics Ethics In Modern Society:

Nucleoethics: Ethics in Modern Society David H. Tribe, 1972 The Rise of the Mediocracy David Tribe, 2024-10-30
First published in 1975 The Rise of the Mediocracy is exhaustive, disturbing, devastating, yet often very funny. It explodes the myth of meritocracy and the pretence of improved living standards. While the doom boomers blame all our ills on trigger happy politicians, Arab oil sheikhs, or polluting multinational corporations, the intractable problems of the world have come about through a multiplication of individual attitudes and actions whose end result is industrial anarchy, civil disorders, population explosion, and declining standards. Many of the good things of life, democracy, education, sociology, communications, growth, the welfare state, have contributed to the overall neurosis, trivialization, and greed. As these good things will not likely be abandoned, the problems of contemporary society may well be insoluble. But if there are solutions, they are unlikely to be implemented because everywhere there is an elitism, not of meritocracy but of mediocracy, whose rise can be traced from the 18th century and has accelerated in recent years. No other book relates the discrediting of religion and politics, business and professions, so plausibly to chaos in the arts, diminishing returns in education, and curbless crime in society. This interdisciplinary book is an interesting read for students of humanities and social sciences. The New Encyclopedia of Unbelief Tom Flynn, 2007-04-30
Successor to the highly acclaimed Encyclopedia of Unbelief 1985, edited by the late Gordon Stein, the New Encyclopedia of Unbelief is a comprehensive reference work on the history, beliefs, and thinking of America's fastest growing minority: those who live without religion. All new articles by the field's foremost scholars describe and explain every aspect of atheism, agnosticism, secular humanism, secularism, and religious skepticism. Topics include morality without religion, unbelief in the historicity of Jesus, critiques of intelligent design theory, unbelief and sexual values, and summaries of the state of unbelief around the world. In addition to covering developments since the publication of the original edition, the New Encyclopedia of Unbelief includes a larger number of biographical entries and much expanded coverage of the linkages between unbelief and social reform movements of the 19th and 20th centuries, including the labor movement, woman suffrage, anarchism, sex radicalism, and second wave feminism. More than 130 respected scholars and activists worldwide served on the editorial board, and over 100 authoritative contributors have written in excess of 500 entries. The distinguished advisors and contributors, philosophers, scientists, scholars, and Nobel Prize laureates include Joe Barnhart, David Berman, Sir Hermann Bondi, Vern L. Bullough, Daniel Dennett, Taner Edis, the late Paul Edwards, Antony Flew, Annie Laurie Gaylor, Peter Hare, Van Harvey, R. Joseph Hoffmann, Susan Jacoby, Paul Kurtz, Gerd L. Demann, Michael Martin, Kai Nielsen, Robert M. Price, Peter Singer, Victor Stenger, Ibn Warraq, George A. Wells, David Tribe, Sherwin Wine, and many others. With a foreword by evolutionary biologist and best-selling author Richard Dawkins, this unparalleled reference work provides comprehensive knowledge about unbelief in its many varieties and manifestations. 1973 Questions of Censorship offers a lively yet scholarly account of the forces that have exercised censorship down the ages Unlike most other works on this theme which have been confined to media legislation or countries this book essays a broader theme viewing censorship within the total context psychological sociological and political Although attention is focused mainly on censorship in Britain this is set in perspective by comparative accounts of the situation in the United States France and the Soviet Union This book will be a valuable reference work for students of media studies political studies and for general readers

A Feminist Post-transsexual Autoethnography Julie Peters, 2018-08-14 Gender as a social class along with its concomitant heteronormative gender coercion seem to be intransigent across time and cultures But across these cultures we also see a degree of nonconforming behaviour which very often carries significant multi dimensions of stigma and risk because the exception proves the rule an understanding of gender nonconformity sheds light on the normative operation of gender in society A Feminist Post transsexual Autoethnography attempts to demythologise trans and gender diversity by conducting an in depth critical analysis of the life choices of the autoethnographic subject the author who was so uncomfortable with their culturally allocated masculinity that they chose to live an apparently normal female life The research is post transsexual in that the subject forgoes passing in their affirmed gender to ensure the integrity of the data A Feminist Post transsexual Autoethnography may primarily appeal to students and researchers interested in the Sociology of Gender and Sociology of Trans and Gender Diversity as well as the broader areas of embodiment and power differentials based on gender class nationality location temporality sexuality and gender non conformity This insightful volume may also be of interest to those within the fields Health Promotion and Education Human Rights Social Justice and Equity or the Social and Cultural Anthropology of Gender
