Johnny Briggs: Poor Johnny Stuart Brodtkin, 2007-05-01 In an Edwardian era of cricketing giants like WG Grace and Archie MacLaren little Johnny Briggs 1862-1902 stood tall despite his diminutive stature He was one of Lancashire and England's most popular and entertaining cricketers in an age when cricket was beginning to capture the public imagination with huge crowds turning out for the big games in the big cities of England and Australia Briggs toured Australia on six occasions when travelling Down Under meant an arduous sea voyage and in all took part in eleven Ashes series To this day he remains the only cricketer to take a hat trick and score a century in cricket's oldest and most combative series of matches A true working class hero Briggs played to the gallery but was nevertheless a hard working professional who took on a prodigious workload He began as a match winning batsman and became a world class bowler and was always a dynamic fielder in his favourite position in the covers But he suffered intermittently from epilepsy and the second of two major attacks suffered at a Leeds music hall on the evening of the first day of the Headingley Test against Australia finally cut short his life at the age of 39 He died in a lunatic asylum in a tragic and untimely end to a marvellous career

The Grinnell Review, 1915 High Tide At Gettysburg: The Campaign In Pennsylvania Glenn Tucker, 2015-11-06 Gettysburg had everything Henry S Commager recently wrote It was the greatest battle ever fought on our continent it boasts more heroic chapters than any other one battle It was the high tide of the Confederacy This is the way Glenn Tucker has always seen it and this is the way he reports it in High Tide at Gettysburg The story of Gettysburg has never been told better perhaps never so well as in this volume Glenn Tucker has the immediacy of a war correspondent on the spot along with the insights that come from painstaking research The armies live again in his pages In his big generous book Glenn Tucker has room to follow Lee's army up from Chancellorsville across Maryland into Pennsylvania With Jackson recently killed Lee had revamped his top command When Meade's men caught up with the Confederates and the two armies were probing to locate each other's concentrations Mr Tucker's account becomes sharper more dramatic His rapidly moving vivid narrative of the three day battle is filled with fascinating episodes and fresh stimulating appraisals Glenn Tucker is akin to Ernie Pyle in his interest in people With him you meet Harry King Burgwyn boy colonel of the 26th North Carolina just turned twenty one who slugged it out with Col Henry A Morrow of the 24th Michigan until few survived on either side You feel the patriotic surge of white haired William Barksdale who led his Mississippians on the grandest charge of the war and died as he broke the Federal line You sense the magnetism of Hancock the Superb and feel the driving power of rugged Uncle John Sedgwick as he hurried his big VI Corps to the battlefield With Old Man Greene you struggle in the darkness to save the Culp's Hill trenches And much more Mr Tucker weaves in many sharp thumbnail biographical sketches without slowing the action Many North Carolinians previously slighted here receive their due Full dramatic immediate here is Gettysburg
