Playing With Fire:

Playing with Fire David J. Schlafer, 2004-01-25 Offering a fresh approach to homiletics David J Schlafer provides an invitation to preaching by way of metaphor Starting with the fire of Scripture and engaging in the work of preaching as play Schlafer offers new ways of approaching the preaching moment Taking into account the preacher's call the stages of preparation the role of the congregation and the presence of the Holy Spirit in the midst of it all we discover that playing with fire is a sacred act indeed Two metaphors dance together across the pages of this book fire and play Two metaphors plus a hunch that texts of the Scriptures the grounding voices of inspiration for Christian preaching offer more than just truths to be interpreted and transmitted What we call the Scriptures are the work of a great company of preachers The Bible is a treasure lode of imaginative insights regarding how the mystery of preaching might be entertained from the Introduction

Playing with Fire Elizabeth Wilson, 2022-03-22 The first full biography of the fearless and brilliant Maria Yudina a legendary pianist who was central to Russian intellectual life Maria Yudina was no ordinary musician An incredibly popular pianist she lived on the fringes of Soviet society and had close friendships with such towering figures as Boris Pasternak Pavel Florensky and Mikhail Bakhtin Legend has it that she was Stalin's favorite pianist Yudina was at the height of her fame during WWII broadcasting almost daily on the radio playing concerts for the wounded and troops in hospitals and on submarines and performing for the inhabitants of besieged Leningrad By the last years of her life she had been dismissed for ideological reasons from the three institutions where she taught And yet according to Shostakovich Yudina remained a special case The ocean was only knee deep for her In this engaging biography Elizabeth Wilson sets Yudina's extraordinary life within the context of her times where her musical career is measured against the intense intellectual and religious ferment of the post revolutionary period and the ensuing years of Soviet repression Playing with Fire Anne Barry, 2007 If you have ever imagined what it would be like to be the only woman working and sleeping in a totally male environment then let Anne Barry take you on her journey As the first woman in Australasia to fight for and win the right to have the career she wanted Anne faced many hurdles to become a professional firefighter Her case went all the way to the Equal Opportunities Commission to the Human Rights Commission and even to Members of Parliament over a period of almost two years before she was finally accepted for the recruitment course in 1981 which she passed with flying colours She went on to have a distinguished career in the Fire Service for more than 20 years Anne's writing is vivid and engaging while racy and laced with humour Playing with Fire Chicago Tribune Staff, 2012-06-12 The average American baby is born with 10 fingers 10 toes and the highest recorded levels of flame retardants among infants in the world How could it possibly be in the US that children are already contaminated at birth with such disturbingly high levels of toxic chemicals The truth lies in the greed and deception of two powerful industries Big Tobacco and chemical manufacturers In a groundbreaking piece of investigative journalism by the Chicago Tribune Playing with Fire exposes the realities about the ineffectiveness and potential health risks caused by the flame retardants that are pervasive in American homes Big Tobacco and large chemical companies used fear exaggerated scientific claims and shady deal making to serve their own interests at the expense of consumer safety Playing with Fire is an extremely significant revelatory piece of watchdog journalism that is a must read for anyone with small children and for citizens who demand responsibility of big businesses and their governments The investigation launched in May 2012 prompted two US Senate hearings and the US Environmental Protection Agency announced it would launch an investigation of flame retardants Also California's governor said the state would scrap the rule responsible for flame retardants presence in furniture
