Making an Entrance Juliane Vogel, 2022-10-03 How does the entrance of a character on the tragic stage affect their visibility and presence Beginning with the court culture of the seventeenth century and ending with Nietzsche's Dionysian theater this monograph explores specific modes of entering the stage and the conditions that make them successful or cause them to fail The study argues that tragic entrances ultimately always remain incomplete that the step figures take into visibility invariably remains precarious Through close readings of texts by Racine Goethe and Kleist among others it shows that entrances promise both triumph and tragic exposure though they appear to be expressions of sovereignty they are always simultaneously threatened by failure or annihilation With this analysis the book thus opens up possibilities for a new theory of dramatic form one that begins not with the plot itself but with the stage entrance that structures how characters appear and thus determines how the plot advances By reflecting on acts of entering this book addresses not only scholars of literature theater media and art but anyone concerned with what it means to appear and be present Spinoza and the

Specters of Modernity Michael Mack, 2010-03-25 Goethe in English Derek Glass, Martin H. Jones, 2005 This bibliography was commissioned by the English Goethe Society as a contribution to the celebration in 1999 of the 250th anniversary of Goethe's birth It sets out to record translations of his works into English that have been published in the twentieth century up to and including material published in that anniversary year It aims to serve as wide a constituency as possible be it as a simple reference tool for tracing a translation of a given work or as a documentary source for specialized studies of Goethe reception in the English speaking world The work records publications during the century not merely translations that originated during this period It includes numerous reprintings of older material as well as some belated first publications of translations from the nineteenth century It shows how frequent and how long enduring was the recourse of publishers and anthologists to a Goethe Victorian in diction a signal factor in perceptions and misperceptions Derek Glass was putting the finishing touches to the bibliography at the time of his sudden death in March 2004 Colleagues at Kings College London have edited the final manuscript which is now published jointly by the English Goethe Society and the Modern Humanities Research Association both as a worthy commemoration of Goethe's anniversary and as a tribute to Derek himself A Cultural History of Tragedy in the Age of Empire Michael Gamer, Diego Saglia, 2021-05-20 This volume traces a path across the metamorphoses of tragedy and the tragic in Western cultures during the bourgeois age of nations revolutions and empires roughly delimited by the French Revolution and the First World War Its starting point is the recognition that tragedy did not die with Romanticism as George Steiner famously argued over half a century ago but rather mutated and dispersed converging into a variety of unstable productive forms both on the stage and off In turn the tragic as a concept and mode transformed itself under the pressure of multiple social historical and political ideological phenomena This volume therefore deploys a narrative centred on hybridization extending across media genres demographics faiths both religious and secular and national boundaries The essays also tell a story of how tragedy and the tragic offered multiple means of capturing the increasingly fragmented perception of reality and history that emerged in the 19th century Each chapter takes a different theme as its focus forms and media sites of performance and circulation communities of production and consumption philosophy and social theory religion ritual and myth politics of city and nation society and family and gender and sexuality

Posthumanism in the Age of Humanism Edgar Landgraf, Gabriel Trop, Leif Weatherby, 2018-10-04 The literary and scientific renaissance that struck Germany around 1800 is usually taken to be the cradle of contemporary humanism Posthumanism in the Age of Humanism shows how figures like Immanuel Kant and Johann Wolfgang Goethe as well as scientists specializing in the emerging modern life and cognitive sciences not only established but also transgressed the boundaries of the human This period so broadly painted as humanist by proponents and detractors alike also grappled with ways of challenging some of humanism s most cherished assumptions the dualisms for example between freedom and nature science and art matter and spirit mind and body and thereby also between the human and the nonhuman Posthumanism is older than we think and the so called humanists of the late Enlightenment have much to offer our contemporary re thinking of the human

The Risk Theatre Model of Tragedy Edwin Wong, 2019 WHEN YOU LEAST EXPECT IT BIRNAM WOOD COMES TO DUNSINANE HILL The Risk Theatre Model of Tragedy presents a profoundly original theory of drama that speaks to modern audiences living in an increasingly volatile world driven by artificial intelligence gene editing globalization and mutual assured destruction ideologies Tragedy according to risk theatre puts us face to face with the unexpected implications of our actions by simulating the profound impact of highly improbable events In this book classicist Edwin Wong shows how tragedy imitates reality heroes by taking inordinate risks trigger devastating low probability high consequence outcomes Such a theatre forces audiences to ask themselves a most timely question what happens when the perfect bet goes wrong Not only does Wong reinterpret classic tragedies from Aeschylus to O'Neill through the risk theatre lens he also invites dramatists to create tomorrow s theatre As the world becomes increasingly unpredictable the most compelling dramas will be high stakes tragedies that dramatize the unintended consequences of today s risk takers who are taking us past the point of no return
