The Methuen Drama Book of New American Plays David Adjmi, Marcus Gardley, Young Jean Lee, Katori Hall, Christopher Shinn, Dan LeFranc, 2013-05-23

The Methuen Drama Book of New American Plays is an anthology of six outstanding plays from some of the most exciting playwrights currently receiving critical acclaim in the States It showcases work produced at a number of the leading theatres during the last decade and charts something of the extraordinary range of current playwriting in America It will be invaluable not only to readers and theatergoers in the U S but to those around the world seeking out new American plays and an insight into how U S playwrights are engaging with their current social and political environment

There is a rich collection of distinctive diverse voices at work in the contemporary American theatre and this brings together six of the best with work by David Adjmi Marcus Gardley Young Jean Lee Katori Hall Christopher Shinn and Dan LeFranc

The featured plays range from the intimate to the epic the personal to the national and taken together explore a variety of cultural perspectives on life in America

The first play David Adjmi's Stunning is an excavation of ruptured identity set in modern day Midwood Brooklyn in the heart of the insular Syrian Jewish community

Marcus Gardley's lyrical epic The Road Weeps The Well Runs Dry deals with the migration of Black Seminoles is set in mid 1800s Oklahoma and speaks directly to modern spirituality relocation and cultural history Young Jean Lee's Pullman WA deals with self hatred and the self help culture in her formally inventive three character play Katori Hall's Hurt Village uses the real housing project of Hurt Village as a potent allegory for urban neglect set against the backdrop of the Iraq war Christopher Shinn's Dying City melds the personal and political in a theatrical crucible that cracks open our response to 9 11 and Abu Graib and finally Dan LeFranc's The Big Meal an inter generational play spanning eighty years is set in the mid west in a generic restaurant and considers family legacy and how some of the smallest events in life turn out to be the most significant Where Do We Live and Other Plays Christopher

Shinn,2005-07-01 This anthology marks the emergence of one of the finest and most innovative new artists writing for the theater today The secret of Shinn's success is in the way he exploits the dramatic gap between what is said and that which is left unsaid writing like this is rare said the London Independent Where Do We Live the title play was written shortly after 9 11 and though never referenced it still haunts this chronicle of the struggles of several aspiring and gifted young New Yorkers on the Lower East Side Like all his work it is a deeply affecting story of how we define our lives and our place in the world The Coming World Shinn certainly looks like a shining prospect for the future Daily Telegraph Four Nothing is simple emotionally The play keeps delivering small shocks and aches that end in a standoff or maybe in that pause between despair resignation and a twinge of hope Haunting Margo Jefferson The New York Times Other People Shinn writes with graceful compassion about people trapped inside their own skins unable to make sense of their lives The Guardian What Didn't Happen is about the distance between people and the ways in which even friends spouses and lovers are ultimately unknowable to one another a playwright to cherish The New York Times Christopher Shinn's plays have been produced at Playwrights Horizons Manhattan Theatre Club the Vineyard Theatre in New York and often at London's Royal Court Theatre Where Do We Live received a 2003 Olivier Award nomination for most promising playwright His next play On the Mountain premieres in New York City early in 2005 American Next Wave Stella Fawn Ragsdale,Mona Mansour,Laura

Marks,Branden Jacobs-Jenkins,2014-03-10 A collection of four plays by new American writers curated from the Emerging Writers Group at the Public Theater New York These plays represent the finest works developed by the Public Theater addressing contemporary social preoccupations race class heritage economic hardship family values and identity The plays included are Perish by Stella Fawn Ragsdale when Porter's father kidnaps her son she must go back to the woods of East Tennessee to find him where she is distracted by a mysterious firebird Textured with poetry and grit this play follows the plight of women in Appalachia and the disappearance of the working class The Hour of Feeling by Mona Mansour in 1967 fuelled by a love of English Romantic poetry a young Palestinian academic Adham and his new wife Abir take a trip to London where he will deliver a career defining lecture While the situation in his home country deteriorates and his marriage threatens to dissolve Adham confronts his fear of failure and the reality that he may be an outsider no matter where he goes

Bethany by Laura Marks when the going gets tough the tough get going and the going has gotten very tough indeed for Crystal Her job is in jeopardy her house has been repossessed and her daughter taken by social services It s time for Crystal to get going But in her effort to get her daughter back and put her life on the right track Crystal is forced to question just how far she s willing to go to survive Neighbors by Branden Jacobs Jenkins Black face not on my doorstep not today Richard Patterson is not happy The family of black actors that has moved in next door is rowdy tacky shameless and uncouth And they are not just invading his neighborhood they re infiltrating his family his sanity and his entirely post racial lifestyle This wildly theatrical explosive play on race is an unconventional comedy which uses minstrelsy both to explore the history of black theater and to confront tensions in post racial America

The Best Short Plays, 1988-1989 Ramon Delgado, 2000-05 Applause Books Lose yourself in a universe of forces familiar and frightening in the 21 plays presented in this exclusive volume The playwrights included here succeed in pushing back the boundaries of conventional dramatic expression Among them Lanford Wilson dissects a survivor s anguish after his lover s death in A Poster of the Cosmos and Deborah Pryor spins an eerie tale of spellbinding romance in The Love Talker Richard Greenberg plots a battle of wills between a young writer and his elusive muse while Sheila Walsh examines the exchange of a woman s soul for her husband s fame in Molly and James From the starkly realistic to the fantastic these plays challenge their audiences to confront the universal from a new perspective

Aubergine Julia Cho, 2017-09-29 A man shares a bowl of berries and a young woman falls in love A world away a mother prepares a bowl of soup to keep her son from leaving home And a son cooks a meal for his dying father to say everything that words can t In this poignant and lyrical play the making of a perfect meal is an expression more precise than language and the medium through which life gradually reveals itself

Play Readings Rob Urbinati, 2015-10-05 Play Readings A Complete Guide for Theatre Practitioners demystifies the standards and protocols of a play reading demonstrating how to create effective and evocative readings for those new to or inexperienced with the genre It examines all of the essential considerations involved in readings including the use of the venue pre reading preparations playwright director communication editing adapting stage directions casting using the limited rehearsal time effectively simple staging suggestions working with actors handling complex stage directions talkbacks and limiting the use of props costumes and music A variety of readings are covered including readings of musicals operas and period plays for comprehensive coverage of this increasingly prevalent production form

Working on a New Play Edward M.
