Watson, Ian Roy Willison, 1974 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Contemporary Gay American Poets and Playwrights Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2003-06-30 Gay presence is nothing new to American verse and theater Homoerotic themes are discernible in American poetry as early as the 19th century and identifiably gay characters appeared on the American stage more than 70 years ago But aside from a few notable exceptions gay artists of earlier generations felt compelled to avoid sexual candor in their writings Conversely most contemporary gay poets and playwrights are free from such constraints and have created a remarkable body of work This reference is a guide to their creative achievements Alphabetically arranged entries present 62 contemporary gay American poets and dramatists While the majority of included writers are younger artists who came of age in the post Stonewall U S some are older authors whose work has continued or persisted into recent decades A number of these writers are well known including Edward Albee Harvey Fierstein and Allen Ginsberg Others such as Alan Bowne Timothy Liu and Robert O Hara merit wider recognition Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the author's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. years But these two endeavours have often found little common ground This volume therefore accomplishes something very important It brings together scholars of medieval English drama and places them in dialogue with experienced practitioners from the community Together they share a common commitment to understanding how performances matter to the communities that produce them and how plays intersect with other public activities CAROL SYMES Professor of History University of Illinois at Urbana This volume provides a wealth of new insights into the performance of mystery plays in medieval York and their modern revival It utilises both academic study and the practical experience of those who now produce the cycle within York itself on wagons in the street in an approximation of their original performance A number of topics are covered The manuscript is linked to Richard III the Masons are introduced as non guildsmen in an enterprise assumed to be guild specific families not just male heads of households are shown to be important to the dramatic narrative and cognitive theory elucidates performance past and present Recent productions are discussed in lively detail by those directly responsible for them leading to analyses of performances in Israel Spain and Australia not all of them of a predictable kind which offer further angles on the medieval dramatic tradition Professor Margaret Rogerson teaches in the Department of English at the University of Sydney Contributors Margaret Rogerson Keith Jones Richard Beadle Sheila K Christie Mike Tyler Jill Stevenson Elenid Davies Ben Pugh Peter Brown Tony Wright Steve Bielby Emma Cunningham Alan Heaven Linda Ali Paul Toy Gweno Williams John Merrylees David Richmond Alexandra F Johnston Sharon Aronson Lehari Pamela M King
