Women Christiane P. Makward, Judith Graves Miller, Cynthia Running-Johnson, 1994 A rich collection of plays by French and francophone women writers in English translation Echo's Voice Mary Noonan, 2014 Helene Cixous 1937 distinguished not least as a playwright herself told Le Monde in 1977 that she no longer went to the theatre it presented women only as reflections of men used for their visual effect The theatre she wanted would stress the auditory giving voice to ways of being that had previously been silenced She was by no means alone in this Cixous's plays along with those of Nathalie Sarraute 1900-99 Marguerite Duras 1914-96 and Noelle Renaude 1949 among others have proved potent in drawing participants into a dynamic space of the voice If as psychoanalysis suggests voice represents a transitional condition between body and language such plays may draw their audiences in to understandings previously never spoken In this ground breaking study Noonan explores the rich possibilities of this new audio vocal form of theatre and what it can reveal of the auditory self Provided by publisher Writing Feminist Autoethnography Elizabeth Mackinlay, 2022-01-31 Writing Feminist Autoethnography explores the personal is political relationship between autoethnography and feminist theory and practice Each chapter introduces the lives and works of a range of feminist thinkers and writers and considers the ways in which their thinking and writing might come to be in relation with our own personal is political thinking and writing work as feminist autoethnographers The book begins with an acknowledgement of the author's positionality as a white settler colonial woman in relation with Yanyuwa Garrwa Mara and Kudanji Aboriginal women This positionality has continued to resonate deeply with the responses and sensibilities the author holds as a feminist autoethnographer to move beyond coloniality She explores the writing of Virginia Woolf Simone Weil Simone de Beauvoir Hélène Cixous Kathleen Stewart bell hooks and Ruth Behar with critical affect to embrace embody and engage with feminist thinking wondering and feeling The book creatively and performatively explores what it means to live a feminist life as an autoethnographer This book will define and conceptualize feminist autoethnography for all qualitative researchers especially those interested in critical autoethnography and scholars in gender studies and communication

Helene Cixous Abigail Bray, Julian Wolfreys, 2003-12-11 Abigail Bray offers a lucid and accessible introduction to Hélène Cixous and her theorisation of writing and sexual difference This book explores the context of feminist debates surrounding Cixous's work and provides a concise explanation of her major philosophical and literary concepts including the other bisexuality the third body and l'écriture féminine Bray demonstrates through original and provocative readings of texts by James Joyce Virginia Woolf Clarice Lispector and Angela Carter the creative potential of Cixous's thought on literature and philosophy Reading Cixous alongside Nietzsche Heidegger Deleuze and Derrida Bray argues for a recognition of Cixous as one of the important thinkers of our times "Women-Centered Plays " Dr. Vinaya Kumari,2022-09-21 This book is a polemic work which gives an alternative perspective on the portrayal of women in selected plays of the celebrated playwrights Rabindranath Tagore Girish Karnad and Vijay Tendulkar The author has attempted to intricately analyse the works of the individual playwrights and various characters in their plays The author has personally interviewed the playwrights Girish Karnad and Vijay Tendulkar and has extracted relevant portions of the interviews as an appendix the book The book maybe a useful reference material for scholars researchers and all graduate and under graduate students of English literature Lives in Play Ryan Claycomb,2012-08-08 Life writing s significance in women s theater and performance from the 70s to the present Hélène Cixous, Rootprints Hélène Cixous,Mireille Calle-Gruber,1997 Rootprints traces Cixous s development as an intellectual and a writer An extended interview explores her intellectual and creative processes and a revealing collection of photographs illuminates the connections between memory and diaspora French Women's Writing 1848-1994 Diana Holmes,2000-01-12 A wide range of French women writers are surveyed including Sand Colette Beauvoir and Duras among the canonized and many marginalized or forgotten and contemporary names not yet widely known outside France These writers are seen within the political economic and cultural context of women s lives and how these have changed across a century and a half Underpinning the whole account is the relationship between gender and language between politics sexual and textual The concept of Ecriture Feminine in Helene Cixous's "The Laugh of the Medusa" Simon Wortmann,2013-04-15 Essay from the year 2012 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 7 Christian Albrechts University of Kiel language English abstract In the year 1975 the French feminist author Helene Cixous published an essay called The Laugh of the Medusa In it she develops an entirely new theoretical concept with the aim of giving rise to feminist voice The central ideas of Ecriture Feminine literally women s writing are going to be presented in this paper In the first part a brief description of Cixous s intellectual milieu is given in order to show the actual reason that led her to come up with a new notion of liberating women from patriarchy In this context an elaboration on poststructuralism the philosophical current Cixous belonged to follows Closely related to that is the authors skepticism towards Sigmund Freud s language philosophy Specifically speaking Freud s statements on the penis envy theory Primary attention is paid to the theory of phallocentrism which can be seen as one of the main reasons for Cixous s writings For a better understanding of this term the concept of logocentrism is also explained as well Logocentrism can be seen as a pillar of the theory of phallocentrism and therefore it deserves to be mentioned at this point In the second part we deal with the question of what is actually meant by women s writing Furthermore we will analyze which role the female body and sexuality plays in this context This excursion is highly interesting as it is crucial for the understanding of her concept Since the female body is considered a key for women to resist masculinist thinking and hence the systematic repression of women Apart from that we try to show whether features of Ecriture Feminine are evident in the The Laugh of the Medusa Moreover a different viewpoint on Cixous s theory is shown in the chapter Criticism in which arguments for and against her theory are shown In point five Conclusion the main aspects of this paper are summed up When writing this paper the main source of information were essays on women s writing and French feminist writing dating from 1987 to 1986 Besides secondary literature on literary and cultural theory as well as feminist practice and poststructuralist theory were used Recent research on Cixous s work however could not be found The only source dealing particularly with her writings dates from 1991

Animal Visions Susan Mary Pyke,2019-03-15 Animal Visions considers how literature responds to the harms of anthropocentrism working with Emily Bront s Wuthering Heights 1847 and various adaptations of this canonistic novel to show how posthumanist dream writing unsettles the privileging of the human species over other species Two feminist and post Freudian responses Kathy Acker s poem Obsession 1992 and Anne Carson s The Glass Essay 1997 most strongly extend Bront s dream writing in this direction Building on the trope of a ludic Cathy ghost who refuses the containment of logic and reason these and other adaptations offer the gift of a radical peri hysteria This emotional excess is most clearly seen in Kate Bush s music video Wuthering Heights 1978 and Peter Kosminsky s film Wuthering Heights 1992 Such disturbances make space for a moor love that is particularly evident in Jane Urquhart s novel Changing Heaven 1989 and to a lesser extent Sylvia Plath s poem Wuthering Heights 1961 Bront s Wuthering Heights and its most productive afterings make space for co affective relations between humans and other animal beings Andrea Arnold s film Wuthering Heights 2011 and Luis Bu uel s Abismos de Pasi n 1954 also highlight the rupturing split gaze of non acting animals in their films In all of these works depictions of intra active and entangled responses between animals show the potential for dynamic and generative multispecies relations where the human is one animal amongst the kin of the world
