Please Dr Id Rather Do It Myself:

Please, I'd Rather Manage Myself Marsha Haigh Arend, 2003 Rinse Off My Color and Call 911 Sher Lee Sommers, 2008-09 Through our home passed race car drivers astronauts a Walt Disney Director the Australian and Chilean Davis Cup Teams professional musicians NBA coaches players and presidents a few criminals Charles Goren con artists and many many relatives and my daughters still managed to grow up to be fine people The book is meant to be an entertaining and enlightening story telling just how my daughters became such wonderful adults I was the first influence in their lives but I believe that every person they met and every experience they had also had an influence on them Their father was rich a graduate from Harvard and a thirty one year old businessman and I was a nineteen year old aspiring opera singer when we met The book deals with the differences in our backgrounds and our interests and my trying to make it as a singer in New York then getting married instead and creating a happy home in which to bring up children in spite of many untimely deaths illnesses disappointments and heart attacks I have written about my ideas about raising children but also about such wheelers and dealers as my father in law Charles B Sommers and Carl Fisher the developer of Miami Beach and the Indianapolis Motor Speedway with D C Stephenson head of the Ku Klux Klan with a lurid murder trial in Indianapolis with Methodist Hospital Clarian Health Care racing cars and races semesters abroad our fabulous trips to Europe Wimbledon South America and Trenton and my opinions about just about every topic you can think of I end with a chapter on the technology and events that has changed our lives and with my memories and thoughts about WWII and 9 11 and what I see for the future My point is that all these things played a part in determining how my children grew to be such fine adults
