Old Masters and Young Geniuses David W. Galenson, 2011-06-27 When in their lives do great artists produce their greatest art Do they strive for creative perfection throughout decades of painstaking and frustrating experimentation or do they achieve it confidently and decisively through meticulous planning that yields masterpieces early in their lives By examining the careers not only of great painters but also of important sculptors poets novelists and movie directors Old Masters and Young Geniuses offers a profound new understanding of artistic creativity Using a wide range of evidence David Galenson demonstrates that there are two fundamentally different approaches to innovation and that each is associated with a distinct pattern of discovery over a lifetime Experimental innovators work by trial and error and arrive at their major contributions gradually late in life In contrast conceptual innovators make sudden breakthroughs by formulating new ideas usually at an early age Galenson shows why such artists as Michelangelo Rembrandt C zanne Jackson Pollock Virginia Woolf Robert Frost and Alfred Hitchcock were experimental old masters and why Vermeer van Gogh Picasso Herman Melville James Joyce Sylvia Plath and Orson Welles were conceptual young geniuses He also explains how this changes our understanding of art and its past Experimental innovators seek and conceptual innovators find By illuminating the differences between them this pioneering book provides vivid new insights into the mysterious processes of human creativity

The Economics of Attention Richard A. Lanham, 2006-04-21 If economics is about the allocation of resources then what is the most precious resource in our new information economy Certainly not information for we are drowning in it No what we are short of is the attention to make sense of that information With all the verve and erudition that have established his earlier books as classics Richard A Lanham here traces our epochal move from an economy of things and objects to an economy of attention According to Lanham the central commodity in our new age of information is not stuff but style for style is what competes for our attention amidst the din and deluge of new media In such a world intellectual property will become more central to the economy than real property while the arts and letters will grow to be more crucial than engineering the physical sciences and indeed economics as conventionally practiced For Lanham the arts and letters are the disciplines that study how human attention is allocated and how cultural capital is created and traded In an economy of attention style and substance change places The new attention economy therefore will anoint a new set of moguls in the business world not the CEOs or fund managers of yesteryear but new masters of attention with a grounding in the humanities and liberal arts Lanham's The Electronic Word was one of the earliest and most influential books on new electronic culture The Economics of Attention builds on the best insights of that seminal book to map the new frontier that information technologies have created

Consequential Museum Spaces Bettina Messias Carbonell, 2023-03-16 In Consequential Museum Spaces Representing African American History and Culture Bettina Messias Carbonell examines how African American history and culture is and historically has been represented in culturally specific and mainstream museums Carbonell argues that African American museums provide a corrective history that is both argumentative and pragmatic these museums educate and enlighten and they seek to effect change Themes examined here include settlement narratives key movements and individuals in political social and military history the treatment of slavery including the African transatlantic and American slave trade and the long history of slavery as an institution in the United States the status of Africa the continent and individual countries and regions as a source of origins and traditions and a destination for reconnection with the past and activism and human rights Carbonell considers this museum based work in the context of relevant historical written texts and in the context of contemporary theories involving memory and history corrective history intergenerational trauma human rights and historical consciousness

Video Art Historicized Malin Hedlin Hayden, 2016-03-03 Video art emerged as an art form that from the 1960s and onwards challenged the concept of art hence art historical practices From the perspective of artists critics and scholars engaged with this new medium art was seen as too limiting a notion Important issues were to re think art as a means for critical investigations and a demand for visual reconsiderations Likewise art history was argued to be in crisis and in need of adapting its theories and methods in order to produce interpretations and thereby establish historical sense for moving images as fine art Yet as this book argues video art history has evolved into a discourse clinging to traditional concepts ideologies and narrative structures manifested in an increasing body of texts Video Art Historicized provides a novel insightful and also challenging re interpretation of this field by examining the discourse and its own premises It takes a firm conceptual approach to the material examining the conceptual theoretical and methodological implications that are simultaneously contested by both artists and authors yet intertwined in both the legitimizing and the historicizing processes of video as art By engaging art history s most debated concepts canon art and history this study provides an in depth investigation of the mechanisms of the historiography of video art Scrutinizing various narratives on video art the book emphasizes the profound and widespread hesitations towards but also the efforts to negotiate traditional concepts and practices By focusing on the politics of this discourse theoretical issues of gender nationality and particular themes in video art Malin Hedlin Hayden contests the presumptions that inform video art and its history

Sights of Resistance Robert James Belton,2001 CD ROM contains Chapters from text Glossary Made in the U.S.A. Judy Collischan,2010 This book begins with an abbreviated background on the origins and development of European Modernism This is followed by attention to a transitional phase moving art s center from Paris to New York Next is examination of various phases of Contemporary Art as it evolved in this country The coverage is broad inclusive of Black Hispanic Native American Asian American and Caucasian artists of both sexes and of every age group The story is told against a background of socio political events affairs There is a wealth of information augmented by selected visual matter that is listed with links for e readers greatly enhancing the portability of this art book This feature allows readers to browse further and to learn via textual matter and visual audio tapes Targeted audiences include college students artists and general readers

Art and Pluralism Nigel Whiteley,2012-08-03 This book examines the writings of Lawrence Alloway 1926 1990 one of the most influential and widely respected art writers of the post War years It provides a close and critical reading of his writings and sets his work in the cultural and political context of the London and New York art worlds of the 1950s to the early 1980s

A Philosophy of Visual Metaphor in Contemporary Art Mark Staff Brandl,2023-02-23 Metaphor which allows us to talk about things by comparing them to other things is one of the most ubiquitous and adaptable features of language and thought It allows us to clarify meaning yet also evaluate and transform the ways we think create and act While we are alert to metaphor in spoken or written texts it has within the visual arts been critically overlooked Taking into consideration how metaphors are inventively embodied in the formal technical and stylistic aspects of visual artworks Mark Staff Brandl shows how extensively artists rely on creative metaphor within their work Exploring the work of a broad variety of artists including Dawoud Bey Dan Ramirez Ga lle Villedary Raoul Deal Sonya Clark Titus Kaphar Charles Boetschi and more he argues that metaphors are the foundation of visual thought are chiefly determined by bodily and environmental experiences and are embodied in artistic form Visual artistic creation is philosophical thought By grounding these arguments in the work of philosophers and cultural theorists including No 1 Carroll Hans Georg Gadamer and George Lakoff Brandl shows how important metaphor is to understanding contemporary art A Philosophy of Visual Metaphor in Contemporary Art takes a neglected feature of the visual arts and shows us what a vital role it plays within them Bridging theory and practice and drawing upon a capacious array of examples this book is essential reading for art historians and practitioners as well as analytic philosophers working in aesthetics and meaning Impure Vision Moa Goysdotter,2015-01-01 American staged art photography is the focus of this unique in depth study Offering a new methodological strategy for viewing photographs this fascinating account analyzes the work of four of the leading names in this new genre Les Krims Duane Michals Arthur Tress and Lucas Samaras and applies new perspectives to 1970s art photography As it sheds fresh light on the four artists critiques of purist ideals it also looks closely at their efforts to transcend the limitations of the purely visual effect of photography Not only does this book tell the history of American staged photography in broad terms by drawing on theories and methods new to the field but it also presents the latest approaches to photography history and theory Development and the Arts Margery B. Franklin,Bernard Kaplan,2013-05-13 This volume s unifying theme is the question Is a concept of development relevant to art Bringing together contributions from the perspectives of philosophical aesthetics psychoanalysis architecture and design and the practicing artist as well as developmental theory in psychology this volume provides a unique assembly of voices from different disciplines The twelve chapters span artistic production in childhood transformations in the work of the individual artist and historical changes in art thus establishing a broad canvas for examining how concepts of development are used in relation to the arts The contributors consider specific phenomena and questions against the background of theoretical issues taking markedly different views on whether change in artistic work can be aptly characterized as development and if so what modulations of the concept may be required in light of accompanying assumptions and implications Given the nature of this discourse this richly illustrated book should lead to a radical rethinking among those who apply developmental concepts to artistic phenomena and aesthetic movements and to reconsideration of the role of art in optimal human development within the individual and within social orders The Figurative Sculpture of Magdalena Abakanowicz Joanna Inglot,2004-03-30 Publisher Description Waterways and the Cultural Landscape Francesco Vallerani,Francesco Visentin,2017-09-11 Water control and management have been fundamental to the building of human civilisation In Europe the regulation of major rivers the digging of canals and the wetland reclamation schemes from the sixteenth to nineteenth centuries generated new typologies of waterscapes with significant implications for the people who resided within them This book explores the role of waterways as a form of heritage culture and sense of place and the potential of this to underpin the development of cultural tourism With a multidisciplinary approach across the social sciences and humanities chapters explore how the control and management of water flows are among some of the most significant human activities to transform the natural environment Based upon a wealth and breadth of European case studies the book uncovers the complex relationships we have with waterways the ways that they have been represented over recent centuries and the ways in which they continue to be redefined in different cultural contexts Contributions recognise not only valuable assets of hydrology that are at the core of landscape management but also more intangible aspects that matter to people such as their familiarity affecting what is understood as the fluvial sense of place This highly original collection will be of interest to those working in cultural tourism cultural geography heritage studies cultural history landscape studies and leisure studies
