The Impersonal Sublime Suzanne Guerlac, 1990 The question of the sublime which links the idea of aesthetic force with rhetorical impact and moral law has been an important topic in discussion of eighteenth and nineteenth century art and the shift between them This book argues that the sublime is equally important in understanding the shift from romanticism to modernism later in the century The author studies the work of three French authors conventionally considered pivotal figures in the trajectory from romanticism to modernism Hugo father of romanticism Baudelaire precursor of symbolist modernism and Lautreamont hero of post modernism She traces this literary historical as Hugo s Quatre vingt treize and L Homme qui rit Baudelaire s Spleen de Paris and Petits poemes en prose and Lautreamont s Chants de Maldoror and Poesies all seen from a perspective of the aesthetics of the sublime This perspective is developed through analyses of the treatises on the sublime by Longinus Boileau Burke and Kant
