Yoho, AWARD WINNING AUTHOR America s History is His Story is a daily devotional of history and patriotism If you embrace the power of the Christian faith if you love the United States of America if you cherish your family and if you respect the contributions of our brave military personnel then you should love this book Each daily reading is brimming with the qualities of faith family and freedom Hollywood and History Jem Duducu, 2023-09-15 There is no shortage of Hollywood films about historical events but what do the movies actually get right and why do they get so much wrong Hollywood loves a story good guys versus bad guys heroes winning the day and the guy gets the girl But we all know real life isn t exactly like that and this is even more true when we look at history Rarely do the just prevail and the three act story cannot exist over continents and decades of human interaction So when Hollywood decides to exploit history for profit we end up with a wide array of films Some are comedies like Monty Python and the Holy Grail others are little more than action films playing dress up like Gladiator and many are Oscar contenders burdened with an enormous sense of self importance But very few are historically accurate From Cleopatra to Da 5 Bloods the reality is no matter what Hollywood s intentions are almost all historical films are an exaggeration or distortion of what really happened Sometimes the alterations are for the sake of brevity as watching a movie in real time about the Hundred Years War would literally kill you Other additions may be out of necessity since nobody thought to write down the everyday conversations between King Henry VIII and his second wife Anne Boleyn for The Other Boleyn Girl And some projects twist the facts to suit a more sinister purpose In Hollywood and History Jem Duducu takes readers through thousands of years of global history as immortalized and ultimately fictionalized by

Hollywood exploring many facets of the representation of history in movies from the medieval times to the wild west and both World Wars Along the way readers will also better understand Hollywood s own history as it evolved from black and white silent shorts to the multiplex CGI epics of today As studios and audiences have matured through the years so too have their representations of history Armies will clash leaders will be slain empires will fall and a few historical inaccuracies will be pointed out along the way A must read for film and history fans alike The Complete Writings of Charles Dudley Warner Charles Dudley Warner,2023-09-01 Reproduction of the original The publishing house Megali specialises in reproducing historical works in large print to make reading easier for people with impaired vision Black American Refugee Tiffanie Drayton,2022-02-15 Named most anticipated book of February by Marie Claire Essence and A V Club extraordinary and representative NPR Drayton explores the ramifications of racism that span generations global white supremacy and the pitfalls of American culture Shondaland After following her mother to the US at a young age to pursue economic opportunities one woman must come to terms with the ways in which systematic racism and resultant trauma keep the American Dream inaccessible to Black people In the early 90s young Tiffanie Drayton and her siblings left Trinidad and Tobago to join their mother in New Jersey where she d been making her way as a domestic worker eager to give her children a shot at the American Dream At first life in the US was idyllic But chasing good school districts with affordable housing left Tiffanie and her family constantly uprooted moving from Texas to Florida then back to New Jersey As Tiffanie came of age in the suburbs she began to ask questions about the binary Black and white American world Why were the Black neighborhoods she lived in crime ridden and the multicultural ones safe Why were there so few Black students in advanced classes at school if there were any advanced classes at all Why was it so hard for Black families to achieve stability Why were Black girls treated as something other than worthy Ultimately exhausted by the pursuit of a better life in America twenty year old Tiffanie returns to Tobago She is suddenly able to enjoy the simple freedom of being Black without fear and imagines a different future for her own children But then COVID 19 and widely publicized instances of police brutality bring America front and center again This time as an outsider supported by a new community Tiffanie grieves and rages for Black Americans in a way she couldn t when she was one An expansion of her New York Times piece of the same name Black American Refugee examines in depth the intersection of her personal experiences and the broader culture and historical ramifications of American racism and global white supremacy Through thoughtful introspection and candidness Tiffanie unravels the complex workings of the people in her life including herself centering Black womanhood and illuminating the toll a lifetime of racism can take Must Black people search beyond the shores of the land of the free to realize emancipation Or will the voices that propel America s new reckoning welcome all dreamers and dreams to this land Native American Performance and Representation S. Captain John Smith was first published it has imprinted a whitewashed historical memory into the minds of Americans As one of the most enduring tropes of imperialist nostalgia in world history Renaissance European invasions of Indigenous lands by settlers trades in a falsified civilizational discourse that has been a focus in literature for centuries and in films since their inception Ironically Malick himself was a symbol of the New Hollywood in his early career but with The New World he created a film that serves as a buttress for racial capitalism in the Americas Focusing on settler structures the setup of regimes of power sexual violence and the gendering of colonialism and the sustainability of colonialism and empires Goeman masterfully peels away the visual layers of settler logics in The New World creating a language in Native American and Indigenous studies for interpreting visual media
