

A still life photograph featuring a chalice filled with red wine in the upper left. To its right and slightly below are several pieces of broken, golden-brown bread. The scene is set on a dark, reflective surface, possibly a table, with soft lighting creating highlights on the glass and bread. The overall mood is contemplative and somber.

Eucharistic Blessings Susan I. Bubbers, 2013-09-12 This study examines the scriptural justification for believers to expect the Eucharist to be a place where God will come and bless them with freedom and formation Bubbers focus is not on liturgy but rather on the biblical message of the benefits of participation in the Eucharist Why keep this Feast Why is Eucharist important Bubbers interpretive approach is a synthesis of historical literary aspects of Biblical Theology and canonical creedal aspects of the Theological Reading of Scripture taking into account the biblical historical place of Eucharist as well as its ongoing presence within the Church Bubbers begins by displaying the Last Supper as a Passover meal which bridges between Old Testament motifs and the New Testament Feast She then shows that the Exodus context reveals a paradigm which links blessing with remembrance and suggests that the remembrance motif describes these blessings Finally Bubbers gathers a catalogue of specific blessings summarized by freedom and formation Her conclusion is that the Feast is a divinely designed paradigm for worship which is accompanied by a promise of transformational encounters Reformed

Covenant Theology Guy Prentiss Waters,J. Nicholas Reid,John R. Muether,2020-10-16 A Comprehensive Exploration of the Biblical Covenants This book forms an overview of the biblical teaching on covenant as well as the practical significance of covenant for the Christian life A host of 26 scholars shows how covenant is not only clearly taught from Scripture but also that it lays the foundation for other key doctrines of salvation The contributors who engage variously in biblical systematic and historical theology present covenant theology not as a theological abstract imposed on the Bible but as a doctrine that is organically presented throughout the biblical narrative As students pastors and church leaders come to see the centrality of covenant to the Christian faith the more the church will be strengthened with faith in the covenant keeping God and encouraged in their understanding of the joy of covenant life Trinitarian Doxology Kevin J. Engraved Upon the Heart Hwarang Moon,2015-07-17 How does liturgy impact the formation of faith The Protestant Church has traditionally emphasized human reason and doctrinal knowledge But there is another method with great formative power participation in liturgy Human beings gain important knowledge not only through traditional cognitively focused learning but also through practice and participation And because knowledge is wholistic an inability to express an idea in language does not necessarily signify an absence of knowledge This book shows how liturgy transmits knowledge that transcends human reason We repeat the liturgy in weekly public worship and its contents are inscribed on our minds and bodies Contrary to common belief this is also true for children and cognitively challenged individuals They may be unable to verbally express the contents of their faith in a way that satisfies normal adult expectations but these two groups of people are capable of rich religious experiences This book explores how welcoming them into experience and practice of worship and sacrament can benefit children cognitively challenged church members their families and the church community as a whole and makes us all a more inclusive community in Christ A New Creation in Christ T. Michael Christ, 2024-08-08

What is the most important book on sanctification For John Murray it was Walter Marshall's The Gospel Mystery of Sanctification William Cowper praised Marshall I think Marshall one of the best and most spiritual expositors of Scripture The Marrow men also commended Marshall Even Andrew Murray believed Gospel Mystery to be the one book admitted by all to be the standard on sanctification Marshall's enduring value is well established yet scarcely any resources explain Marshall's theology T Michael Christ's A New Creation in Christ fills this void by exploring Marshall's theology in the context of the antinomian and neonomian controversies of Marshall's day At a time when interlocutors were pushing one another to further extremes Marshall achieves balance because he grounds sanctification in the believer's union with Christ and deploys two limiting concepts that discourage using one error to refute the other He insists both that some measure of assurance of salvation must precede actual works of holiness refuting neonomians and that holiness is a necessary part of salvation countering antinomianism A New Creation in Christ explores how these limiting concepts translate into practical help for those who as Marshall says pursue holiness under the guilt and power of indwelling sin Complementarian Spirituality

Natalie Brand, 2013-10-09 In this work Dr Brand seeks to contribute a unique complementarian expression of Reformed spirituality in order to stimulate a spiritual renewal in the contemporary Reformed tradition Using a distinctively feminine approach in a theological arena largely monopolized by male theologians the author anchors corporate and personal spirituality upon the unio mystica so returning to a Calvinistic appreciation of the Christian life Grounding Reformed spirituality on the marital union between Christ and the church a corporate portrait of the church is explored Critical of the neglect of women in Reformed church life and practice the author calls the tradition to reform proposing an intentional complementarian use of women that can practically and spiritually profit the whole church body The book culminates with an initial tracing of a Reformed feminine spirituality which is pastorally relevant to women as well as encouraging a renewed experiential enjoyment of Christ for both men and women Understanding Four Views on the Lord's Supper Russell Moore, 2007 Four different ways Christians understand the Lord's Supper Baptist view memorialism Reformed spiritual presence Lutheran consubstantiation and Roman Catholic transubstantiation are fairly represented and debated to provide readers with an opportunity to draw their own conclusion on this important Christian institution Baptist Foundations

Holy Ground L. Charles Jackson,2024-02-21 Jesus did not say take and think He said take and eat This is embodied worship It includes gestures rites kneeling raising hands and of course eating and drinking a holy meal with God These activities are liturgies Liturgy is the physical embodied activity of worship it's what we do in worship everyone has a liturgy As such worship is the church's primary means of discipleship Instead of fearing to kneel because it's Roman Catholic or fearing to raise your hands because it's Pentecostal perhaps we should simply see what God recommends in the Scriptures then without fear and by faith at the appropriate time start kneeling raising our hands and eating a covenant meal with God on a weekly basis The hope is to replace a fear driven approach to worship with a faith driven embodied worship that offers deep robust and beautiful worship experiences combined with the hope of great blessings In doing so we hope for nothing less than a new reformation a reformation in worship
