Landmarks in Modern Latin American Fiction (Routledge Revivals) Philip Swanson, 2015-08-11 In the 1960s there occurred amongst Latin American writers a sudden explosion of literary activity known as the Boom It marked an increase in the production and availability of innovative and experimental novels But the Boom of the 1960s should not be taken as the only flowering of Latin American fiction for such novels dubbed new novels were being written in the 1940s and 1950s as well as in the 1970s and 1980s In this edited collection first published in 1990 Philip Swanson charts the development of Latin American fiction throughout the twentieth century He assesses the impact of the new novel on Latin American literature and follows its growth Nine key texts are analysed by contributors including works by the big four of the Boom

Woman and the Infinite demonstrates how Pedro Salinas s poetry and frequently overlooked narrative and theater reveal a preoccupation with the nature of time especially extraordinary moments that transcend space and time Many of these moments are intimately connected with the man woman yo tu relationship Salinas s exploration of this theme is best understood in the context of other modern literary evocations of epiphanic moments Such literary phenomena as William Wordsworth s spots of time and James Joyce s epiphanies are among the precursors of Salinas s moments of eternity as are moments of timelessness in works by Marcel Proust and the French Symbolist poets Salinas s reception of the Symbolists was direct but also refracted through his reading of the Latin American modernistas especially Ruben Dario In his well known commentary on Dario Salinas connects the perception of woman with a visionary moment of extraordinary lucidity a connection found in his own works Woman is elusive for Salinas She has a multiplicity of forms and varying identities that are expressed with mirrors and shadows or Classical and Biblical mythological archetypes All of these are found in Aurora de verdad from Vispera del gozo a narrative piece which can be read as representative of Salinas s work as a whole Specific images in the story including mirrored figures and references to mythological goddesses are also key elements in a trajectory in Salinas s works in general toward an all encompassing absolute and infinite moment BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Unknown University Roberto Bolaño,2013-07-11

Immanent Visitor Jaime Saenz,2002-10-30 Immanent Visitor is the first English language translation of the work of Bolivia s greatest and most visionary twentieth century poet A poet maudite Jaime Saenz rejected the conventions of polite society and became a monk in service of his own imagination Apocalyptic and occult in his politics a denizen of slum taverns unashamedly bisexual insistently nocturnal in his artistic affairs and secretive in his leadership of a select group of writers Saenz mixed the mystical and baroque with the fantastic the psychological and the symbolic In masterly translations by two poet translators Kent Johnson and Forrest Gander Saenz's strange innovative and wildly lyrical poems reveal a literary legacy of fierce compassion and solidarity with indigenous Bolivian cultures and with the destitute the desperate and the disenfranchised of that unreal city La Paz In long lines in odes that name desire with Whitmanesque anaphora in exclamations and repetitions Saenz addresses the reader the beloved and death in one extended lyrical gesture The poems are brazenly affecting Their semantic innovation is notable in the odd heterogeneity of formal and tonal structures that careen unabashedly between modes and moods now archly lyrical now arcanelly symbolic now colloquial now trancelike As Saenz's reputation continues to grow throughout the world these inspired translations and the accompanying Spanish texts faithfully convey the poet's unique vision and voice to English speaking readers La Gaya Ciencia Friedrich factors that determines a state's policy choices. It draws on rich empirical material to present readers with information on the determinants of policy definition and implementation, reactions to emigration and converging and diverging trends. Next, the volume offers detailed case studies from 15 countries around the world including Argentina, Vietnam, Senegal, the Russian Federation, Denmark, and Turkey. Coverage for each country critically analyzes its emigration or diaspora policies as well as how these policies affect its mobile citizens. The contributors also place the policies in context and explore the consequences of pertinent rules and provisions. In addition, a conclusion presents a comparative analysis of all case studies as well as details a set of best practices. Emigration and immigration are two sides of the same coin that every country experiences and in one way or the other must face. This book offers readers a new look on diaspora and emigration governance across the globe and explores the future paradigm of reactions to emigration. Lectura crítica de la literatura americana Saúl Sosnowski, 1996

Sol-Edades Marco Antonio Domínguez, 2010-04-30. Sol edad es una antología poética cuyo lirismo nos invita a reflexionar sobre la existencia, el amor, las presiones sociales, los efectos de la tecnología, el comportamiento humano ante la crisis económica, la contaminación, el deterioro del medioambiente, la deshumanización del hombre, la violencia, la discriminación, el estrés y la pérdida de valores. Sol Edad es un retorno a las raíces del mexicano, revela experiencias sobre el chicanismo e intenta rescatar el idioma español, las tradiciones mexicanas y la cultura hispana. The Double Strand Frank Dauster, 2014-07-15. Two strands, one indigenous, the other imposed, produce the poetic and cultural tensions that give form to the work of five contemporary Mexican poets: All Chumacero, Efraín Huerta, Jaime Sabines, Rubén Bonifaz Núñez, and Rosario Castellanos. Although all five are significant figures, only Castellanos has yet been widely studied in the United States, primarily for her novels and her relations with the feminist movement. In spite of a number of rather basic differences in their work, these poets share and write within a complicated culture rooted in both the pre-Hispanic and the European traditions. Their poetry reflects this in its emphasis on death as a constant presence and in the echoes of both Aztec ritual poetry and European poetry. Although apparently very different formally and thematically, the five share a number of concerns. Each of them writes out of a contradictory inner tension; each is preoccupied with the effort to shape language as part of a personal voyage of discovery; each is haunted by death and seeks realization or plenitude through love of some kind. And each of them ultimately finds there is no escape. As Frank Dauster concludes, "The poetry of Mexico, like its people and its society, reflects the fusion of two worlds, and these complex poets of the double strand operate freely and imaginatively within it." Although addressed primarily to specialists in Latin American literature, The Double Strand also speaks to those interested in the complex interaction between two widely differing cultural heritages and in the rich fusion this blending produces in Mexican letters.
