Losing The Text Readings In Literary Desire:

Losing the Text Jefferson Humphries, 1986 Reading Emptiness Jeff Humphries, 1999-08-12 Reading Emptiness connects ancient Buddhist attitudes and ideas with postmodern theory and aesthetics concluding that the closest thing in Western culture to the Middle Way of Buddhism is not any sort of theory or philosophy but the practice of literature The book draws on scholarship and criticism in literary theory philosophy and science to speculate about the possible common ground between literary and Buddhist practices aiming not so much to elucidate the ancient traditions of Buddhism as to seek ways in which literature might be integrated into a truly Western practice of Buddhism that would remain philosophically true to its Eastern roots Jacques Derrida (Routledge Revivals) William Schultz, Lewis L.B. Fried, 2016-06-17 First published in 1992 this book represents the first major attempt to compile a bibliography of Derrida's work and scholarship about his work It attempts to be comprehensive rather than selective listing primary and secondary works from the year of Derrida's Master's thesis in 1954 up until 1991 and is extensively annotated It arranges under article type a huge number of works from scholars across numerous fields reflecting the interdisciplinary and controversial nature of Deconstruction The substantial introduction and annotations also make this bibliography in part a critical guide and as such will make a highly useful reference tool for those studying his philosophy Southern Literature and Literary Theory Jefferson Humphries, 1992-07-01 In this stimulating collection of essays twenty scholars apply new theoretical approaches to the fiction and poetry of southern writers ranging from Poe to Dickey from Faulkner to Hurston Departing from earlier traditions of southern literary scholarship this book seeks not to create a new orthodoxy but to suggest the diversity of critical tools that can now be used to explore the literature and culture of the South Including essays based on deconstructionist feminist and Marxist theory the book features contributions from such critics as Henry Louis Gates Harold Bloom Fred Chappell and Joan DeJean Yet for all their variety the essayists share the same central concern We have in common writes Jefferson Humphries one thing that sets us apart from our elders in our conception of the South and our approach to southern literature the basic assumption that the meaning and significance of literature is not in the immanence of the literary object or in history but in the complex ways in which the literary the historical and all the human sciences that study both are interrelated Instead of simply taking the South for granted the contributors to this volume see it as a text and an idea as something whose ideological underpinnings complexities and contradictions must be subjected to close reading and questioning Southern Literature and Literary Theory represents a major effort to redefine the relationship of southern writing and the South itself to the larger world Iterations of Loss Jeffrey Sacks, 2015-02-25 In a series of exquisite close readings of Arabic and Arab Jewish writing Jeffrey Sacks considers the relation of poetic statement to individual and collective loss the dispossession of peoples and languages and singular events of destruction in the nineteenth twentieth and twenty first centuries Addressing the work of Mahmoud Darwish Ahmad Faris al Shidyaq Elias Khoury Edmond Amran El Maleh Shimon Ballas and Taha

Husayn Sacks demonstrates the reiterated incursion of loss into the time of life losses that language declines to mourn. Language occurs as the iteration of loss confounding its domestication in the form of the monolingual state in the Arabic nineteenth century's fallout. Reading the late lyric poetry of the Palestinian poet Mahmoud Darwish in relation to the destruction of Palestine in 1948, Sacks reconsiders the nineteenth century Arabic nahda and its relation to colonialism, philology and the European Enlightenment. He argues that this event is one of catastrophic loss wherein the past suddenly appears as if it belonged to another time. Reading al Shidyaq's al Saq ala al saq 1855 and the legacies to which it points in post 1948 writing in Arabic, Hebrew and French, Sacks underlines a displacement and relocation of the Arabic word adab and its practice, offering a novel contribution to Arabic and Middle East Studies, critical theory, poetics, aesthetics and comparative literature. Drawing on writings of Jacques Derrida, Walter Benjamin, Avital Ronell, Judith Butler, Theodor Adorno and Edward W. Said, Iterations of Loss shows that language interrupts its pacification as an event of aesthetic coherency to suggest that literary comparison does not privilege a renewed giving of sense but gives place to a new sense of relation.

Description and Meaning in Three Novels by Gustave Flaubert Corrada Biazzo Curry, 1997. This book examines the relationship between description and signification in three novels by Flaubert: Madame Bovary, Salammbô and L'Éducation Sentimentale. Contrary to thematic or structuralist criticism, this study demonstrates how Flaubert's images fluctuate between the possibility of a mimetic or symbolic integration into the narrative continuity and a resistance to interpretation which anticipates the modern self-referential novel. This critical analysis shows how Flaubert's descriptive passages are subject to various possibilities of meaning and non-meaning that disorient the readers by exposing them to ambiguous and unexpected forms of fictional discourse.

The Bloomsbury Handbook to Literature and Psychoanalysis Jeremy Tambling, 2023-03-09. Providing the most comprehensive examination of the two-way traffic between literature and psychoanalysis to date, this handbook looks at how each defines the other as well as addressing the key thinkers in psychoanalytic theory: Freud, Klein, Lacan and the schools of thought each of these has generated. It examines the debts that these psychoanalytic traditions have to literature and offers plentiful case studies of literature's influence from psychoanalysis. Engaging with critical issues such as madness, memory and colonialism with reference to texts from authors as diverse as Shakespeare, Goethe and Virginia Woolf, this collection is admirably broad in its scope and wide-ranging in its geographical coverage. It thinks about the impact of psychoanalysis in a wide variety of literatures as well as in film and critical and cultural theory.
