Back cover Identity and Power in Narratives of Displacement Katrina M. Powell, 2015-02-11 In this book Powell examines the ways that identities are constructed in displacement narratives based on cases of eminent domain natural disaster and civil unrest attending specifically to the rhetorical strategies employed as barriers and boundaries intersect with individual lives She provides a unique method to understand how the displaced move within accepted and subversive discourses and how representation is a crucial component of that movement In addition Powell shows how notions of human rights and the public good are often at odds with individual well being and result in intriguing intersections between discourses of power and discourses of identity Given the ever increasing numbers of displaced persons across the globe and the layers of displacement experienced by many this study sheds light on the resources of rhetoric as means of survival and resistance during the globally common experience of displacement

Representations of Child Soldiers in Contemporary African Narratives Ademola Adesola, 2024-09-11 In Representations of Child Soldiers in Contemporary African Narratives Ademola Adesola examines the dominant factors that writers privilege in their portrayals of child soldiering in sub Saharan Africa In his textual interpretive analyses of selected novels in the African child soldier genre Adesola contends that critical discussions of African child soldier literature have depended on the interpretive frameworks supplied by Western humanitarian discourses which oversimplify and de historicize experiences of war in Africa The author argues that such reductive decontextualization of war realities serve to champion a narrow vision of war in African contexts centered on a moral and humanitarian urge for Western intervention Regardless of whether the casus belli legitimating those wars are genuine or not those conflicts and children s involvement in them are understood within the same racist colonial and ethnocentric stereotypes about Africa that have been privileged in Western thought and the Western moral political imagination for centuries Thus in studying African child soldier narratives this book provides an alternative reading of novels whose settings feature African ethnopolitical conflicts such as in Sierra Leone Liberia Congo Brazzaville Nigeria notable for their exploitation of children for military ends The author maintains that these works are significant in the varying ways they reify and challenge the Western ideas of child and childhood as well as privilege child soldiers as social actors whose intricate makeups disavow being simply understood as innocent victims or irredeemable perpetrators of atrocities
