Louis Lambert Honoré de Balzac, 1892 The Poetics of Death Beatrice Martina Guenther, 1996-07-12 Traditionally the act of writing constitutes a challenge to the finality of death Yet writing as a subject for literary texts has its own tradition of imagery whose rhetoric is associated with loss rather than immortality The limit of death seems to force a more explicit analysis of the process of writing Writers consider the impact of their work on their readers or re-articulate the link between the written text and the subject it is meant to represent Each writer constructs a subversive text The conjunction of writing and death besides highlighting or demystifying the creative act leads in each case to a decidedly critical stance Guenther examines how Kleist's and Balzac's representations of death bring with them a critical awareness that calls attention to the historical context in which the texts are produced Index--summarized Wind Data Michael J.
