Nicholas,2021-06-07 In Love and Politics Jeffery L. Nicholas argues that Eros is the final rejection of an alienated life in which humans are prevented from developing their human powers Eros in contrast is an overflowing of acting into new realities and new beauties a world in which human beings extend their powers and senses Nicholas uniquely interprets Alasdair MacIntyre s Revolutionary Aristotelianism as a response to alienation defined as the divorce of fact from value However this account cannot address alienation in the form of the oppression of women or people of color Importantly it fails to acknowledge the domination of nature that blackens the heart of alienated life Alienation must be seen as a separation of the human from nature Nicholas turns to Aristotle first to uncover the way his philosophy embodies a divorce of human from nature then to reconstruct the essential elements of Aristotle s metaphysics to defend a philosophical anthropology based on Eros Love and Politics Persistent Human Desires as a Foundation for Liberation presents a critical theory that synthesizes MacIntyre s Revolutionary Aristotelianism Frankfurt School Critical Theory and Social Reproduction Theory It will be of great interest to political theorists and philosophers

Atonement and Ethics in 1 John Christopher Armitage,2021-06-17 Christopher Armitage considers previous theological perception of 1 John as a text advocating that God abhors violence contrasted with biblical scholarship analysis that focuses upon the text s birth from hostile theological conflict between insiders and outsiders with immensely hostile rhetoric directed towards antichrists and those who have left the community Armitage argues that a peace oriented reading of 1 John is still viable but questions if the commandment that the community loves each other is intended to include their opponents and whether the text can be of hermeneutic use to advocate non violence and love of one s neighbour This book examines five key words from 1 John hilasmos sfazo anthropoktonos agape and adelphos looking at their background and use in the Old Testament in both Hebrew and the LXX arguing that these central themes presuppose a God whose engagement with the world is not assuaging divine anger nor ferocious defence of truth at the expense of love but rather peace and avoidance of hatred that inevitably leads to violence and death Armitage concludes that a peacemaking hermeneutic is not only viable but integral to reading the epistle
