Reflections on Romans Dr. Randy L. James, 2021-11-15 Out of the Covid 19 Pandemic something meaningful emerged Beginning at a time when people were locked in their homes while the schools businesses and most of society were under quarantine a desire emerged to do something that would encourage people who were alone This book began as a daily audible devotional message made possible by an email link to friends and family around the world hoping to provide some light during a dark time Though the virus and its variants are still with us and have taken quite a toll on the nations of the world there is hope for a day when this particular sickness will be behind us But even if it lingers or should another such crisis arise we always have the Word of God to give us comfort and provide grace to face whatever challenges may come our way Reflections on Romans will hopefully be a tool that will aid those who continue to look for direction for their lives and a connection to their God amid such times Love Don Baker, 1988 Thoughtful Proclaimer Elizabeth Wright

The Annihilation of Hell Nik Ansell, 2013-10-01 For Jürgen Moltmann Hell is the nemesis of Hope The annihilation of Hell thus refers both to Hell's annihilative power in history and to the overcoming of that power as envisioned by Moltmann's distinctive theology of the cross in which God becomes all in all through Christ's descent into Godforsakenness. The negation of Hell and the fulfillment of history are inseparable. Attentive to the overall contours and dynamics of Moltmann's thinking especially his zimzum doctrine of creation, his eschatologically oriented philosophy of time and his expanded understanding of the nature-grace relationship, this study asks whether the universal salvation that he proposes can honor human freedom, promise vindication for those who suffer, and do justice to biblical revelation. As well as providing an in-depth exposition of Moltmann's ideas, The Annihilation of Hell also explores how a covenantal universalism might revitalize our web of beliefs in a way that is attuned to the authorizing of Scripture and the spirituality of existence. If divine and human freedom are to be reconciled as Moltmann believes, the confrontation between Hell and Hope will entail rethinking issues that are not only at the center of theology but at the heart of life itself.

God Is Not Like That Diana Spencer, 2009-09-01 God is Not Like That challenges all Christians to think seriously about how the misunderstandings of the past are currently affecting Christianity worldwide The work of the Reformation was never finished because the various factions involved split apart from each other without finding any common resolution to the problems facing the medieval church The conclusions reached in God is Not Like That have been formulated after years of deliberation in an effort to stimulate thought and discussion among all denominations of Christianity today Many problems that stem from these unresolved issues have been inherited by all denominations for example the author believes that the Athanasian Creed while right in its original intent has been misunderstood by everyone for many centuries This has been compounded by the fact that for many years there have been growing doubts about the divinity of Christ and the doctrine of the Trinity even among scholars and teachers making it difficult for them to explain and defend the faith to an increasingly skeptical world Meanwhile its vocal critics do not realize that many of the ideas that they are challenging stem from mistaken assumptions from the past not with the faith itself it is urgent that these issues be examined and the distortions resolved Diana Spencer is
