Politics and the Order of Love Eric Gregory, 2008-08-15

Augustine for all of his influence on Western culture and politics was hardly a liberal Drawing from theology feminist theory and political philosophy Eric Gregory offers here a liberal ethics of citizenship one less susceptible to anti liberal critics because it is informed by the Augustinian tradition The result is a book that expands Augustinian imaginations for liberalism and liberal imaginations for Augustinianism Gregory examines a broad range of Augustine s texts and their reception in different disciplines and identifies two classical themes which have analogues in secular political theory love and related notions of care solidarity and sympathy and sin as well as related notions of cruelty evil and narrow self interest From an Augustinian point of view Gregory argues love and sin constrain each other in ways that yield a distinctive vision of the limits and possibilities of politics In providing a constructive argument for Christian participation in liberal democratic societies Gregory advances efforts to revive a political theology in which love s relation to justice is prominent Politics and the Order of Love will provoke new conversations for those interested in Christian ethics moral psychology and the role of religion in a liberal society

Love and Space in Contemporary African Diasporic Women's Writing Jennifer Leetsch, 2021-07-16 This book sets out to investigate how contemporary African diasporic women writers respond to the imbalances pressures and crises of twenty first century globalization by querying the boundaries between two separate conceptual domains love and space The study breaks new ground by systematically bringing together critical love studies with research into the cultures of migration diaspora and refuge Examining a notable tendency among current black feminist writers poets and performers to insist on the affective dimension of world making the book ponders strategies of reconfiguring postcolonial discourses Indeed the analyses of literary works and intermedia performances by Chimamanda Adichie Zadie Smith Helen Oyeyemi Shailja Patel and Warsan Shire reveal an urge of moving beyond a familiar insistence on processes of alienation or rupture and towards a new reparative emphasis on connection and intimacy to imagine possible inhabitable worlds

Outer Space in Society, Politics and Law Christian Brünner, Alexander Soucek, 2012-08-30 Spaceflight is a rational undertaking yet full of emotions It is a dream of mankind and a multi billion industry likewise It is subject to a distinct branch of law and moreover part of modern pop culture In short spaceflight is fascinating Outer Space in society politics and law is an inter disciplinary approach to the understanding of modern space law Technical cultural and historical aspects lay the foundation for a sound comprehension why space law norms have been established and what they mean in practice The reader will realize the impact space and spaceflight have on society from Stonehenge to climate change A new approach to presenting space law comprehensive and illustrative We live in a society absolutely dependent on science and technology and yet have cleverly arranged things so that almost no one understands science and technology That s a clear prescription for disaster Carl Sagan

Literature, Mapping, and the Politics of Space in Early Modern Britain Andrew Gordon, Bernhard Klein, 2001-08-16 In this

timely collection an international team of Renaissance scholars analyzes the material practice behind the concept of mapping a particular cognitive mode of gaining control over the world Ranging widely across visual and textual artifacts implicated in the culture of mapping from the literature of Shakespeare Spenser Marlowe and Jonson to representations of body city nation and empire Literature Mapping and the Politics of Space in Early Modern Britain argues for a thorough reevaluation of the impact of cartography on the shaping of social and political identities in early modern Britain Love and the Politics of Care Stanislava Dikova,Wendy McMahon,Jordan Savage,2022-11-03 This edited volume offers a contemporary rethinking of the relationship between love and care in the context of neoliberal practices of professionalization and work Each of the book s three sections interrogates a particular site of care where the affective political legal and economic dimensions of care intersect in challenging ways These sites are located within a variety of institutionally managed contexts such as the contemporary university the theatre hall the prison complex the family home the urban landscape and the care industry The geographical spread of the case studies stretches across India Vietnam Sweden Brazil South Africa the UK and the US and provides broad coverage that crosses the divide between the Global North and the Global South To address this transnational interdisciplinary field of study the collection utilises insights from across the humanities and social sciences and includes contributions from literature sociology cultural and media studies philosophy feminist theory theatre art history and education These inquiries build on a variety of conceptual tools and research methods from data analysis to psychoanalytic reading Love and the Politics of Care delivers an attentive and widely relevant examination of the politics of care and makes a compelling case for an urgent reconsideration of the methods that currently structure and regulate it Politics of Security Michael Dillon,2002-01-31 In this critique of security studies with insights into the thinking of Heidegger Foucault Derrida Levinas and Arendt Michael Dillon contributes to the rethinking of some of the fundamentals of international politics developing what might be called a political philosophy of continental thought Drawing on the work of Martin Heidegger Politics of Security establishes the relationship between Heidegger s radical hermeneutical phenomenology and politics and the fundamental link between politics the tragic and the ethical It breaks new ground by providing an etymology of security tracing the word back to the Greek asphaleia not to trip up or fall down and a unique political reading of Oedipus Rex Michael Dillon traces the roots of desire for security to the metaphysical desire for certitude and points out that our way of seeking that security is embedded in 20th century technology thus resulting in a global crisis Politics of Security will be invaluable to both political theorists and philosophers and to anyone concerned with international relations continental philosophy or the work of Martin Heidegger Global Modernities Mike Featherstone,Scott Lash,Roland Robertson,1995-06-05 Global Modernities is a sustained commentary on the international character of the most microcosmic practices It demonstrates how the global increasingly informs the regional so deconstructing ideas like the nation state and national sovereignty The spatialization of social theory hybridization and bio politics are among the critical issues discussed

Ethics and Politics of Space for the Anthropocene Anu Valtonen, Outi Rantala, Paolo D. Farah, 2020-10-30 Featuring an international multidisciplinary set of contributors this thought provoking book reimagines established narratives of the Anthropocene to allow differences in regions and contexts to be taken seriously emphasising the importance of localised and situated knowledge It offers critical engagement with the debates around the Anthropocene by challenging the dominant techno rational agenda that often prevails in socio political and academic discussions

The Politics of Love Maxime Foerster, 2018-04-03 What would love be if heterosexual couples were no longer assigned gender and sexual norms Maxime Foerster examines the heterosexual trouble between men and women in nineteenth century French Romantic and Decadent literature Key works by authors ranging from George Sand to Charles Baudelaire persistently demonstrate that heterosexuality did not work these authors and many others investigated the struggle that men and women alike waged against patriarchal norms Whereas Romantic fiction dedicated itself to the reinvention of love Decadence promoted sexual and gender deviance In expertly evaluating the discord afflicting fictional heterosexual couples male and female dandies and doctors and their female patients Foerster shows the crucial role that literature played in the fashioning of alternative identities A concluding look at Proust's la recherche du temps perdu traces the legacy of heterosexual trouble in the twentieth century

Adriana Cavarero Elisabetta R. Bertolino, 2017-12-04 Critical legal scholars have made us aware that law is made up not only of rules but also of language But who speaks the language of law And can one lawfully speak in one's voice For the Italian philosopher Adriana Cavarero to answer these questions we must not separate who is speaking from the very act of speaking moreover we must recuperate the material singularity and relationality of the mouth that speaks Drawing on Cavarero's work this book focuses on the potentiality of the voice for resisting law's sovereign structures For Cavarero it is the voice that expresses one's living and unrepeatable singularity in a way that cannot be subsumed by the universalities and standards of law The voice is essentially a material and singular passage of air and vibration that necessarily reveals one's uniqueness in relationality Speaking discloses this uniqueness and so one's vulnerability It therefore leads to possibilities of resistance that here bring a fresh approach to longstanding legal theoretical concerns with singularity ethics and justice

Silent Cinema and the Politics of Space Jennifer M. Bean, Anupama Kapse, Laura Horak, 2014-04-02 In this cross cultural history of narrative cinema and media from the 1910s to the 1930s leading and emergent scholars explore the transnational crossings and exchanges that occurred in early cinema between the two world wars Drawing on film archives from around the world this volume advances the premise that silent cinema freely crossed national borders and linguistic thresholds in ways that became far less possible after the emergence of sound These essays address important questions about the uneven forces geographic economic political psychological textual and experiential that underscore a non linear approach to film history The messiness of film history as demonstrated here opens a new realm of inquiry into unexpected political social and aesthetic crossings of silent cinema

British Multiculturalism and the Politics of Representation Lasse Thomassen, 2017-03-08 Uses poststructuralist theory to connect inclusion exclusion and identity using real world case studies from British culture politics and law Lasse Thomassen applies a fresh poststructuralist approach to reconcile the theoretical and practical issues surrounding inclusion exclusion and representation He opens up debates and themes including Britishness race the nature and role of Islam in British society homelessness and social justice Thomassen argues that the politics of inclusion and identity should be viewed as struggles over how these identities are represented He develops this argument through careful analysis of cases from the last four decades of British multiculturalism including public debates about the role of religion in British society Gordon Brown and David Cameron's contrasting versions of Britishness legal cases about religious symbols and clothing in schools and the Nick Hornby novel How to Be Good

Politics of Language Eleni Bozia, 2024-11-14 Examining the identity and belonging of native and non native speakers of Greek during the time of the High Roman Empire Eleni Bozia closely studies grammarians lexicographers and literary writers who used Attic Greek Bozia argues that transculturalism and translingualism created a new space for both the naturalised and native citizenry In the act of imitating emulating and recreating Attic Greek speakers formed a socio politically distinct and nuanced mode of expression in the social echelons of the Roman world Additionally this is the first book to explore Greek and Latin texts from both a philological and a computational linguistics perspective The result is a consideration of how imitation and innovation affect the social positioning of native and bilingual speakers As such this combined reading of data derived from classical studies in conjunction with computational linguistics offers the context of how to serve a new interpretation of our understanding and appreciation of identity

The Politics of the Musical Theatre Screen Adaptation Dominic Broomfield-McHugh, 2023 The first of three volumes The Politics of the Musical Theatre Screen Adaptation An Oxford Handbook traces how the genre of the stage to screen musical has evolved starting with early screen adaptations such as the Fred Astaire Ginger Rogers movie Roberta and working through to Into the Woods 2014 Many chapters examine specific screen adaptations in depth while others deal with broad issues such as realism or the politics of the adaptation in works such as Li'l Abner and Finian's Rainbow Together the chapters incite lively debates about the process of adapting Broadway for the big screen and provide models for future studies

Politics of Religion/Religions of Politics Alistair Welchman, 2014-10-20 The liberal enlightenment as well as the more radical left have both traditionally opposed religion as a reactionary force in politics a view culminating in an identification of the politics of religion as fundamentalist theocracy But recently a number of thinkers Agamben Badiou Tabouret-Kipler and in particular Simon Critchley have begun to explore a more productive engagement of the religious and the political in which religion features as a possible or even necessary form of human emancipation The papers in this collection deriving from a workshop held on and with Simon Critchley at the University of Texas at San Antonio in February 2010 take up the ways in which religion's encounter with politics transforms not only politics but also religion itself molding it into various religions of politics including not just heretical religious metaphysics but also what Critchley describes as non metaphysical religion the faith of the faithless Starting from Critchley's own genealogy of Pauline faith the articles in this collection explore and defend some of the religions of politics and their implications Costica Bradatan teases out the implications of Critchley's substitution of humor for tragedy as the vehicle for the minimal self distancing required for any politics Jill Stauffer compares Critchley's non metaphysical religiosity with Charles Taylor's account of Christianity Alistair Welchman unpacks the political theology of the border in terms of god's timeless act of creation Anne O Byrne explores the subtle dialectic between mores and morality in Rousseau's political ethics Roland Champagne sees a kind non metaphysical religion in Arendt's category of the political pariah Davide Panagia presents Critchley's ethics of exposure as the basis for a non metaphysical political bond Philip Quadrio wonders about the political ramifications of Critchley's own mystical anarchism and Tina Chanter re reads the primal site in the Western tradition at which the political and the religious intersect the Antigone story side stepping philosophical interpretations of the story dominated by Hegel's reading by means of a series of post colonial re imaginings of the play The collection concludes with an interview with Simon Critchley taking up the themes of the workshop in the light of more recent political events the Arab Spring and the rise and fall of the Occupy movement
