Theological reflection on friendship as a particular form of Christian love emerges in Holy Scripture and continues to be elaborated in the Christian tradition However love of friendship was at times absorbed into the other traditional understanding of love love of God and of neighbor After a philosophical historical study of the Greco Roman roots of friendship in moral reflection and how and to what extent this was appropriated in the Christian tradition this book illustrates the transcendental character and the novelty of the Christian understanding of friendship found in Holy Scripture focusing particularly on the most relevant texts in the Fourth Gospel where love and friendship stand to be important themes It also shows how Saint Thomas Aquinas through his exegesis of the Fourth Gospel his synthesis of the Christian tradition and his ability to rearticulate Christian theology through Aristotelian philosophy inimitably defines the theological virtue of caritas as friendship with God In so doing he depicts friendship as the finality the telos of the Christian life Finally the book aims to show how the retrieval of a proper theology of friendship rooted in Holy Scripture and Christian tradition can enrich the life of an authentic Christian and contribute to the ongoing process of renewing moral theology
