The Rise of British International Schools in East Asia Simon Probert, 2025-10-30. This book examines reasons for the ongoing growth of British schools in Asia and what the appeal of British education tells us about the past, present, and future directions of the sector. With the use of a post-colonial lens, it considers the notion of Britishness, ways in which British international schools represent a hybrid space between cultures, and how they are set in a dynamic and creative context that allows for new cultures to emerge. The book emphasises how engaging with localised contexts allows for fresh interpretations and understandings of the international to emerge. With an explicit focus on British satellite colleges, which refer to the overseas branches of British private schools, the book examines the challenges these schools face. Areas such as how to frame the school culture between a British and Asian context, what British values look like in an Asian cultural context, the importance of being explicit about identity and belonging, and the challenges around staffing and leadership, more generally, are explored. This book will appeal to researchers and academics focussed on international schools and particularly British international schools in East Asia, as well as those examining K-12 education in the post-colonial space.

The Kyoto School and International Relations Kosuke Shimizu, 2022-03-10. The Kyoto School and International Relations explores the Kyoto School's challenge to transcend the Western domination over the rest of the world and the issues this raises for contemporary non-Western and Global IR literature. Was the support of Kyoto School thinkers inevitable due to the despotism of military government, thus nothing to do with their philosophy or a logical extension of their philosophical engagement? The book answers this question by investigating individual Kyoto School philosophers in detail. The author argues that any attempts to transcend the West are destined to be drawn into power politics as far as they uncritically adopt and use the prevailing ontological concept of linear progressive time and dominant meta-narrative of Westphalia. Thus, to fully understand this problem, there is the need to be cautious of the power of language of Westphalia and the concept of time in IR. Aimed at students and scholars of IR theory, Japanese politics, and East Asian IR in general, this book provides some introductory explanations of these academic subjects, developing a theory based on the concepts of time and language of Kyoto School philosophy.
