Moving Beyond Boundaries (Vol. 1) Carole Boyce-Davies, Molaria Ogundipe-Leslie, 1995-02 v 1 International dimensions of Black women's writing v 2 Black women's diasporas Preserving the Landscape of Imagination, 2023-07-10

Moving Beyond Borders Karen Flynn, 2011-11-19 Moving Beyond Borders is the first book length history of Black health care workers in Canada delving into the experiences of thirty five postwar era nurses who were born in Canada or who immigrated from the Caribbean either through Britain or directly to Canada Karen Flynn examines the shaping of these women's stories from their childhoods through to their roles as professionals and community activists Flynn interweaves oral histories with archival sources to show how these women's lives were shaped by their experiences of migration professional training and family life Theoretical analyses from postcolonial gender and diasporic Black Studies serve to highlight the multiple subjectivities operating within these women's lives By presenting a collective biography of identity formation

Moving Beyond Borders reveals the extraordinary complexity of Black women's history Encyclopedia of Diasporas Melvin Ember, Carol R. Ember, Ian Skoggard, 2004-11-30 Immigration is a topic that is as important among anthropologists as it is the general public Almost every culture has experienced adaptation and assimilation when immigrating to a new country and culture usually leaving for what is perceived as a better life Not only does this diaspora change the country of adoption but also the country of origin Many large nations in the world have absorbed and continue to absorb large numbers of immigrants The foreseeable future will see a continuation of large scale immigration as many countries experience civil war and secessionist pressures Currently there is no reference work that describes the impact upon the immigrants and the immigrant societies relevant to the world's cultures and provides an overview of important topics in the world's diasporas The encyclopedia consists of two volumes covering three main sections Diaspora Overviews covers over 20 ethnic groups that have experienced voluntary or forced immigration These essays discuss the history behind the social economic and political reasons for leaving the original countries and the cultures in the new places Topics discusses the impact and assimilation that the immigrant cultures experience in their adopted cultures including the arts they bring the struggles they face and some of the cities that are in the forefront of receiving immigrant cultures Diaspora Communities include over 60 portraits of specific diaspora communities Each portrait follows a standard outline to facilitate comparisons The Encyclopedia of Diasporas can be used both to gain a general understanding of immigration and immigrants and to find out about particular cultures topics and communities It will prove of great value to researchers and students curriculum developers teachers and government officials It brings together the disciplines of anthropology social studies political studies international studies and immigrant and immigration studies Left of Karl Marx Carole Boyce Davies, 2008-02-05 Assesses the activism writing and legacy of Claudia Jones 1915-1964 a pioneering Afro Caribbean radical intellectual active in the U S and U K The Daughter's Return Caroline Rody, 2001-04-12 The Daughter's Return offers a close analysis of an emerging genre in African American and Caribbean fiction produced by women writers who make imaginative returns to their ancestral pasts Considering some of the defining texts of contemporary fiction Toni Morrison's Beloved Jean Rhys's Wide Sargasso Sea and Michelle Cliff's No Telephone to Heaven Rody discusses their common inclusion of a daughter who returns to the site of her people's founding trauma of slavery through memory or magic Rody treats these texts as allegorical expressions of the desire of writers newly emerging into cultural authority to reclaim their difficult inheritance and finds a counter plot of heroines encounters with women of other racial and ethnic groups running through these works

Alice Walker Maria Lauret, 2011-02-01 Alice Walker Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Color Purple is one of America's major and most prolific writers She is also among its most controversial How has Walker's work developed over the last forty years Why has it often provoked extreme reactions Does Walker's cultural political and spiritual activism enhance or distort her fiction Where does she belong in the evolving tradition of African American literature Alice Walker second edition examines the full range of Walker's prose writings her novels short stories essays activist writings speeches and memoirs has been thoroughly revised in the light of the latest scholarship and critical developments brings coverage of Walker's work right up to date with a new chapter on Now is the Time to Open Your Heart 2004 and discussion of her recent non-fictional writing including Overcoming Speechlessness 2010 traces Walker's lineage back to nineteenth century visionary black women preachers and activists assesses Walker's prose oeuvre both in terms of its literary and its activist merits and shortcomings Ideal for students and scholars alike this established text remains an essential guide to the work of a key US author as it explains her unique place in contemporary American letters

Migrating Words and Worlds E. Anthony Hurley, Renée Brenda Larrier, Joseph McLaren, 1999 The essays presented here demonstrating concepts of Pan Africanism which historically were concerned with colonialism racial identity and African unity extend the discussion of an Africa that exists beyond the continent and includes the Caribbean the Americas and Europe

In Search of a Beautiful Freedom: New and Selected Essays Farah Jasmine Griffin, 2023-03-28 Named a Most Anticipated Book of 2023 by The Millions Lively insightful writings on Black music feminism literature and events from a masterful critic and master teacher Walton Muyumba Boston Globe In Search of a Beautiful Freedom brings together the best work from Farah Jasmine Griffin's rich forays on music Black feminism literature the crises of Hurricane Katrina and COVID 19 and the Black artists she esteems She moves from evoking the haunting strength of Odetta and the rise of soprano popular singers in the 1970s to the forging of a Black women's literary renaissance and the politics of Malcolm X through the lens of Black feminism She reflects on pivotal moments in recent American history including the banning of Toni Morrison's Beloved and celebrates the intellectuals artists and personal relationships that have shaped her identity and her work Featuring new and unpublished essays along with ones first appearing in outlets such as the New York Times and NPR In Search of a Beautiful Freedom is a captivating collection that celebrates the work of one of the few great intellectuals in our time Cornel West

Resistance in Black Women's Writings Donna Aza Weir-Soley, 2017-06-13 Provocative articulates the importance of embodied erotic spirituality to black female subjectivity and empowerment Tulsa Studies in Women's Literature Sets out to reclaim the right of black women to their sexual and erotic expression untainted by the stereotypes and disparagements that have historically confined them African American Review Captures one of the most challenging concerns of scholars who engage black women's literature culture and theory the ongoing quest to locate a form of black female sexual agency that neither withers in the chilly lake of sexual repression nor explodes in the heat of hypersexual stereotypes MELUS Journal of the Society for the Study of the Multi Ethnic Literature of the United States Successfully undertakes an analysis of how black women writers have used overlapping narrative depictions of sexuality and spirituality to recast the denigrated black female body and rewrite an empowered and fully actualized black female subject Candice M Jenkins author of Private Lives Proper Relations Regulating Black Intimacy Weir Soley speaks with an authority that comes from real knowledge of investment in and attention to the details of the African cosmologies and textual complexities she unearths Carine Mardorossian SUNY Buffalo The most original and significant contributions are the often brilliant readings of Morrison Adisa and Danticat The work is riveting both methodologically and critically Leslie Sanders York University Western European mythology and history tend to view spirituality and sexuality as opposite extremes But sex can be more than a function of the body and religion more than a function of the mind as exemplified in the works and characters of such writers as Zora Neale Hurston Toni Morrison Opal Palmer Adisa and Edwidge Danticat Donna Weir Soley builds on the work of previous scholars who have identified the ways that black women's narratives often contain a form of spirituality rooted in African cosmology which consistently grounds their characters self empowerment and quest for autonomy What she adds to the discussion is an emphasis on the importance of sexuality in the development of black female subjectivity beginning with Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God and continuing into contemporary black women's writings Writing in a clear lucid and straightforward style Weir Soley supports her thesis with close readings of various texts including Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God and Morrison's Beloved She reveals how these writers highlight the interplay between the spiritual and the sexual through religious symbols found in Voudoun Santeria Condomble Kumina and Hoodoo Her arguments are particularly persuasive in proposing an alternative model for black female subjectivity Learning, Teaching, and Community Lucinda Pease-Alvarez, Sandra R. Schecter, 2006-04-21 This volume brings together established and new scholarly voices to explore how participatory and situated approaches to learning can contribute to educational innovation The contributors' critical examinations of educational programming and engagements provide insights into how educators youth families and community members understand and enact their commitments to diversity and equitable access Collectively these essays complicate notions of community alerting readers to ways in which community can be constructed other than in geographical and ethnoracial terms as alliances and collaborations of individuals joining together to accomplish or negotiate shared agendas The focus on agency combined with social context a dialectic to which all of the authors speak enlarges and invigorates our sense of what is pedagogically possible in societies characterized by diversity and flux Part I Linking Pedagogy to Communities focuses on dynamic initiatives where practitioners collaborate with community members and other professionals as they acknowledge and build on the cultural linguistic and intellectual resources of ethnic minority students and their communities Part II Professional Learning for Diversity centers on the authors experiences in facilitating opportunities for working with prospective and practicing teachers to develop situated pedagogies highlighting both the challenges that emerge and the transformations that occur Part III Learning in Community and Community in Learning illustrates how educational innovation can extend beyond the realm of schools and classrooms by elucidating ways in which individuals construct learning venues in out of school settings Learning Teaching and Community Contributions of Situated and Participatory Approaches to Educational Innovation is a compelling and timely text ideally suited for courses focused on teacher education and development informal learning equity and education multilingual and multicultural education language and culture educational foundations and school reform educational restructuring and will be equally of interest to faculty researchers and professionals in these areas Womanism, Literature, and the Transformation of the Black Community, 1965-1980 Kalenda C. Eaton, 2010-06-21 This book examines how cultural and ideological reactions to activism in the post Civil Rights Black community were depicted in fiction written by Black women writers 1965 1980 By recognizing and often challenging prevailing cultural paradigms within the post Civil Rights era writers such as Toni Morrison Alice Walker Toni Cade Bambara and Paule Marshall fictionalized the black community in critical ways that called for further examination of progressive activism after the much publicized end of the Civil Rights Movement Through their writings the authors confronted marked shifts within African American literature politics and culture that proved detrimental to the collective wellness of the community at large Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke, 2002-01-01 These tensions are revealed in the literature that Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity BOOK JACKET Do Not Separate Her from Her Garden Carlyn E. Ferrari, 2022-12-01 Anne Spencer s identity as an artist grew from her relationship to the natural world During the New Negro Renaissance with which she is primarily associated critics dismissed her writings on nature as apolitical and deracinated Do Not Separate Her from Her Garden corrects that misconception showing how Spencer used the natural world in innovative ways to express her Black womanhood feminist politics spirituality and singular worldview Employing ecopoetics as an analytical frame Carlyn Ferrari recenters Spencer s archive of ephemeral writings to cut to the core of her artistic ethos Drawing primarily on unpublished undated poetry and prose this book represents a long overdue reassessment of an underappreciated literary figure Not only does it resituate Spencer in the pantheon of American women of letters but it uses her environmental credo to analyze works by Alice Walker Zora Neale Hurston and Dionne Brand positioning ecocritical readings as a new site of analysis of Black women s writings Black Women's Rights Carole Boyce Davies,2022-11-01 Black Women s Rights Leadership and the Circularities of Power presents Black women as alternative and transformative leaders in the highest political positions and at grassroots community levels Beginning with a critique of the assumption of an equivalence between masculinity and political leadership Carole Boyce Davies moves through the various conceptual definitions intents and meanings of leadership and the differences in the presentation of practices of leadership by women and feminist scholars She studies the actualizing of political leadership in the Presidency of Ellen Johnson Sirleaf the historical role of Shirley Chisholm as the first woman to run for presidency of the United States on a leading party ticket the promise of the Black left feminist leadership of Brazilian Marielle Franco and the current model of Prime Minister Mia Mottley of Barbados in advancing new leadership models from the Caribbean This book proclaims the 21st century as the century for Black women s leadership Women's Studies Quarterly (97:3-4) Tuzyline Jita Allan,1997 Authoritative creative and groundbreaking original literary essays about an important emerging area of study Black Women, Identity, and Cultural Theory Kevin Everod Quashie,2004 Ultimately moves beyond these to propose a new cultural aesthetic that aims to center black women and their philosophies Book jacket
