Establishing materiality

The auditor should determine a materiality level for the financial statements taken as a whole when establishing the overall audit strategy for the audit in the planning stage. Determining a materiality level for the financial statements taken as a whole helps guide the auditor's judgments in identifying and assessing the risks of material misstatements and in planning the nature, timing, and extent of further audit procedures.

This materiality level does not, however, establish a threshold below which identified misstatements are always considered to be immaterial when evaluating those misstatements and their effect on the financial statements and the auditor's report thereon. The circumstances related to some identified misstatements may cause the auditor to evaluate them as material even if they are below the materiality level determined when establishing the overall audit strategy.

Moving Materialities Fredrik Hertzberg, 2002      The Sound of Poetry / The Poetry of Sound Marjorie Perloff, Craig Dworkin, 2009-10-15 Sound one of the central elements of poetry finds itself all but ignored in the current discourse on lyric forms The essays collected here by Marjorie Perloff and Craig Dworkin break that critical silence to readdress some of the fundamental connections between poetry and sound connections that go far beyond traditional metrical studies Ranging from medieval Latin lyrics to a cyborg opera sixteenth century France to twentieth century Brazil romantic ballads to the contemporary avant garde the contributors to The Sound of Poetry The Poetry of Sound explore such subjects as the translatability of lyric sound the historical and cultural roles of rhyme the role of sound repetition in novelistic prose the connections between sound poetry and music between the visual and the auditory the role of the body in performance and the impact of recording technologies on the lyric voice Along the way the essays take on the ensemble discords of Maurice Scève's Le Livre de la Vie Ezra Pound's use of Chinese whispers the alchemical theology of Hugo Ball's Dada performances Jean Cocteau's modernist radiophonics and an intercultural account of the poetry reading as a kind of dubbing A genuinely comparatist study The Sound of Poetry The Poetry of Sound is designed to challenge current preconceptions about what Susan Howe has called articulations of sound forms in time as they have transformed the expanded poetic field of the twenty first century

Handbook of International Futurism Günter Berghaus, 2018-12-17 The Handbook of International Futurism is the first reference work ever to presents in a comparative fashion all media and countries in which the movement initiated by F T Marinetti in 1909 exercised a particularly noteworthy influence The handbook offers a synthesis of the state of scholarship regarding the international radiation of Futurism and its influence in some fifteen artistic disciplines and thirty eight countries While acknowledging the great achievements of the movement in the visual and literary arts of Italy and Russia it treats Futurism as an international multidisciplinary phenomenon that left a lasting mark on the manifold artistic manifestations of the early twentieth century avant garde Hundreds of artists who in some phase in their career absorbed Futurist ideas and stylistic devices are presented in the context of their national traditions their international connections and the media in which they were predominantly active The handbook acts as a kind of multi disciplinary geographical encyclopaedia of Futurism and gives scholars with varying levels of experience a detailed overview of all countries and disciplines in which the movement had a major impact      Nordic Literature Steven P. Sondrup, Mark B. Sandberg, Thomas A. DuBois, Dan Ringgaard, 2017-12-15 Nordic Literature A comparative history is a multi volume comparative analysis of the literature of the Nordic region Bringing together the literature of Finland continental Scandinavia Sweden Norway Denmark and S pmí and the insular region Iceland Greenland and the Faroe Islands each volume of this three volume project adopts a new frame through which one can recognize and analyze significant clusters of literary practice This first volume Spatial nodes devotes its attention to the changing literary figurations of space by Nordic writers from medieval to contemporary times Organized around the depiction of various scapes and spatial practices at home and abroad this approach to Nordic literature stretches existing notions of temporally linear nationally centered literary history and allows questions of internal regional similarities and differences to emerge more strongly The productive historical contingency of the North as a literary space becomes clear in this close analysis of its literary texts and practices Illuminating Darkness Päivi Mehtonen, 2007 You Go the Words Gunnar Björling, 2007 Poetry Gay and Lesbian Studies Translated from the Swedish by Fredrik Hertzberg To read Björling is to eat language Aase Berg Du gar de ord the last collection of poems by the great Finland Swedish Modernist poet Gunnar Björling is a milestone in the annals of experimental poetics produced in our century Marjorie Perloff Hovering in an aesthetic space somewhere between Dickinson and Celan Oppen and Creeley Gunnar Björling is a poet of the everyday and its words as if the abyss between souls could ever be ordinary or ever anything else Charles Bernstein MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures Modern Language Association of America, 2002 Vols for 1969 include ACTFL annual bibliography of books and articles on pedagogy in foreign languages 1969 "Mitt språk är ej i orden" Fredrik Hertzberg, 2018 Materialities in Translation Gunnar Björling's Poetry in English Jonathan Fredrik Hertzberg, 2001 Translation of Poetry and Poetic Prose Sture Allén, 1999 Translation is a very important tool in our multilingual world Excellent translation is a sine qua non in the work of the Swedish Academy responsible for the Nobel Prize in Literature In order to establish a forum for discussing fundamental aspects of the translation of poetry and poetic prose a Nobel Symposium on this subject was organized The list of contributors includes Sture Allén Jean Boase Beier Philippe Bouquet Anders Cullhed Gunnel Engwall Eugene Eoyang Efim Etkind Inga Stina Ewbank Knut Faldbakken Seamus Heaney Lyn Hejinian Bengt Jangfeldt Francis R Jones Elke Liebs Gunilla Lindberg Wada G ran Malmqvist Shimon Markish Margaret Mitsutani Judith Moffett Mariya Novykova Tim Parks Ulla Roseen Emmanuela Tandello Eliot Weinberger Daniel Weissbort and Françoise Wuilmart Material Poetics in Hemispheric America Rebecca Kosick, 2020-09-04 Reconsiders the lyrical norm that predominates in Anglophone accounts of poetry through a multilingual and transnational lens A bold project that departs from a tradition heavily dominated by the lyric to question the very nature of what counts as poetry A visually exciting text that draws on poetry and art from a wide array of late twentieth and early twenty first century practitioners An interdisciplinary approach to poetry and poetics that opens new avenues for understanding how poetry intersects with philosophies of the object media theory and visual studies A transnational frame that responds to a growing scholarly push to situate American studies within the broader context of the American hemisphere This book examines poets and artists in the Americas during the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries to show how they worked to make language into material objects and material objects into language It builds a theory of material poetics that provides an alternative account of poetry in hemispheric America Rebecca Kosick argues that by reframing American poetry to prominently include object oriented practices within and beyond the United States material poetry can be seen as representing a significant branch of the American poetic tradition      Factors in a Theory of Poetic Translating Robert De Beaugrande, 1978      Tactual Poësis Julie Phillips Brown, 2011

Critical studies of literature and the arts have long emphasized visual comparisons between the two dimensional spaces of the page and the canvas often to the exclusion of other senses dimensions and media Tactual Poësis develops an expanded vocabulary for how to read literature and the arts through attention to tactile multi dimensional innovations in the poetry of Susan Howe Cecilia Vicuña and Theresa Hak Kyung Cha As contemporary poets continue to broaden the material tactile dimensions of their writing an equal expansion in critical discourse becomes necessary For Howe Vicuña and Cha ordinary textual conditions no longer satisfy the poem must be seen heard and felt At the heart of each poet's formal innovation is the potential for tactual poësis a rewriting of history and a reordering of the contemporary world through poetic and readerly processes that are literally hands on I argue that it is precisely a poem's tactility that makes its text and the histories contained therein actual present and physical and therefore subject to manipulation by both poet and reader The histories these poets revise are numerous and far ranging from personal familial narratives in Howe's The Midnight and Cha's Dictee to cultural and national memories in Dictee and Vicuña's cloud net to linguistic and literary conventions in all three works together My first chapter examines Howe's textual and visual collage in The Midnight as an elegiac performance whereby the poet transforms the book into a costumed extension of her own body This transformation animates the text from within and activates an intermediate space between the living and the dead My second chapter argues that Vicuña's cloud net relies on bodily contact between poet reader and text to open the trans a transitive space between the present and an earlier time prior to globalization global warming and species loss From the trans the poet attempts to reclaim the forces of universal genesis and heal the destruction wrought since then My third chapter argues that Cha's Dictee imagines the possibility of the material tactile word as a means of concretizing history and exchanging the seeds of anti colonial resistance from one body to another
