Research Teresa Colomer, Bettina Kümmerling-Meibauer, Cecilia Silva-Díaz, 2010-07-12 In this new collection children s literature scholars from twelve different countries contribute to the ongoing debate on the importance of picturebook research focusing on aesthetic and cognitive aspects of picture books Contributors take interdisciplinary approaches that integrate different disciplines such as literary studies art history linguistics narratology cognitive psychology sociology memory studies and picture theory Topics discussed include intervisuality twist endings autobiographical narration and metaliterary awareness in picturebooks The essays also examine the narrative challenges of first person narratives ellipsis and frame breaking in order to consider the importance of mindscape as a new paradigm in picturebook research Tying picturebook studies to studies in childhood multimodality and literacy this anthology is a representative of the different opportunities for research in this emerging field      Leaders in English Language Arts Education Research, 2023-07-31 scholars throughout the world In this volume English Language Arts is presented as a complex and porous discipline intersecting with writing literacy studies multicultural multilingual education digital and multimodal literacies critical and social justice pedagogies teacher education linguistics and second language learning and not least of all subject English including teaching literature and drama Contributors are retired or current professors in the following countries Australia Canada England Ireland South Africa and the United States ELA scholars often begin their careers as K 12 teachers and then become teacher educators at universities due to this they work at the intersection of theory and practice throughout their careers Therefore this volume will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate English Language Arts Education students as well as to in service English practitioners This volume will also appeal to ELA researchers at all levels since it contains first hand personal narratives of well established ELA researchers as they reflect on their own development as scholars
