A wide and deep view of a dynamic multiethnic Southern California Susan Straight is an essential voice in American writing and in writing of the West The New York Times Book Review From the National Book Award finalist Susan Straight Mecca is a stunning epic tracing the intertwined lives of native Californians fighting for life and land Johnny Fr as has California in his blood A descendant of the state s Indigenous people and Mexican settlers he has Southern California s forgotten towns and canyons in his soul He spends his days as a highway patrolman pulling over speeders ignoring their racist insults and pushing past the trauma of his rookie year when he killed a man assaulting a young woman named Bunny who ran from the scene leaving Johnny without a witness But like the Santa Ana winds that every year bring the risk of fire Johnny s moment of action twenty years ago sparked a slow burning chain of connections that unites a vibrant complex cast of characters in ways they never see coming In Mecca the celebrated novelist Susan Straight crafts an unforgettable American epic examining race history family and destiny through the interlocking stories of a group of native Californians all gasping for air With sensitivity furor and a cinematic scope that captures California in all its injustice history and glory she tells a story of the American West through the eyes of the people who built it and continue to sustain it As the stakes get higher and the intertwined characters in Mecca slam against barrier after barrier they find that when push comes to shove it s always better to push
