Mrs Slocombe's Pussy Stuart Jeffries, 2000 For most of us sitting in our living rooms looking for an excuse not to talk to each other of a Thursday night a million million miles away from moon landings and Cold War tension and Third World famine it is the addiction to a little flickering box in the corner that has shaped our lives since the late 1950s Playing Gay in the Golden Age of British TV Stephen Bourne, 2019-11-22 The television set the humble box in the corner of almost every British household has brought about some of the biggest social changes in modern times It gives us a window into the lives of people who are different from us different classes different races different sexualities And through this window we've learnt that perhaps we're not so different after all Playing Gay in the Golden Age of British TV looks at gay male representation on and off the small screen from the programmes that hinted at homoeroticism to Mary Whitehouse's Clean Up TV campaign and The Naked Civil Servant to the birth of Channel 4 as an exciting alternative television channel Here acclaimed social historian Stephen Bourne tells the story of the innovation experimentation back tracking and bravery that led British television to help change society for the better The Television History Book Michele Hilmes, Jason Jacobs, 2021-03-11 Traces the history of broadcasting and the influence developments in broadcasting have had over our social cultural and economic practices Examining the broadcasting traditions of the UK and USA The Television History Book make connections between events and tendencies that both unite and differentiate these national broadcasting traditions British Television Drama J. Lacey, 2014-05-12 Featuring leading scholars of British television drama and noted writers and producers from the television industry this new edition of British Television Drama evaluates past and present TV fiction since the 1960s and considers its likely future Transnational Television Drama Elke Weissmann, 2012-08-30 This history of British and American television drama since 1970 charts the increased transnationalisation of the two production systems From The Forsyte Saga to Roots to Episodes it highlights the close relationship that drives innovation and quality on both sides of the Atlantic Hand-Made Television R. Moseley, 2016-04-29 Hand Made Television explores the ongoing enchantment of many of the much loved stop frame children's television programmes of 1960s and 1970s Britain The first academic work to analyse programmes such as Pogles Wood 1966 Clangers 1969 Bagpuss 1974 Smallfilms and Gordon Murray's Camberwick Green 1966 Trumpton 1967 and Chigley 1969 the book connects these series to their social and historical contexts while providing in depth analyses of their themes and hand made aesthetics Hand Made Television shows that the appeal of these programmes is rooted not only in their participatory address and evocation of a pastoral English past but also in the connection of their stop frame aesthetics to the actions of childhood play This book makes a significant contribution to both Animation Studies and Television Studies combining scholarly rigour with an accessible style it is suitable for scholars as well as fans of these iconic British children's programmes Documenting the Documentary Barry Keith Grant, Jeannette Sloniowski, 2013-12-16 Documenting the Documentary offers clear serious and insightful
