Late-Life Love: A Memoir Susan Gubar, 2018-11-13 Winning and intelligent An impressive often heartening addition to the literature of aging Heller McAlpin Wall Street Journal In this unique blend of memoir and literary commentary Bookpage acclaimed author and literary scholar Susan Gubar contemplates the beauty and strength of enduring love both for her husband and for the literature that has shaped her life Throughout the complications of devoted caregiving her own ongoing cancer treatments and a stressful move to a more manageable apartment Gubar proves that love and desire have no expiration date on the page or in life Late Life Love offers a resounding retort to ageist stereotypes appraises the obstacles unique to senior couples and celebrates second chances I'm No Angel Ellen Tremper, 2006 Have you ever wondered why there are so many dumb blonde jokes always about women Or how Ivanhoe's childhood love the flaxen Saxon Rowena morphed into Marilyn Monroe Between that season in 1847 when readers encountered Becky Sharp playing the vengeful Clytemnestra about to plunge a dagger into Agamemnon and the sunny moment in 1932 when moviegoers watched Clark Gable plunge Jean Harlow's platinum tressed head into a rain barrel the playing field for women and men had leveled considerably But how did the fairy tale blonde that placid pliant girl become the tomato upstairs as Monroe styled herself in The Seven Year Itch In I'm No Angel The Blonde in Fiction and Film Ellen Tremper shows how at its roots the image of the blonde was remodeled by women writers in the nineteenth century and actors in the twentieth to keep pace with the changes in real women's lives As she demonstrates through these novels and performances fair hair and its traditional attributes patience pliancy endurance and innocence suffered a deliberate alienation which both reflected and enhanced women's personal and social freedoms essential to the evolution of modernity From fiction to film the active desiring and sometimes difficult women who disobeyed manipulated and thwarted their fellow characters mimicked and furthered women's growing power in the world The author concludes with an overview of the various roles of the blonde in film from the 1960s to the present and speculates about the possible end of blond dominance An engaging and lively read I m No Angel will appeal to a general audience interested in literary and cinematic representations of the blonde as well as to scholars in Victorian women s and film studies
